Lee Trevino wins golf's Skins Game

LA QUINTA, Calif. (AP) - Lee Trevino lofted a 6-iron shot 167 yards and into the cup for a hole in one worth $175,000 Sunday in golf's Skins Game.

Trevino watched in something approaching disbelief as the ball hit the island green of the 17th hole at PGA West and trickled in the cup.

The 47-year-old Trevino trotted to his caddy, rotund Herman Mitchell, gave him a big hug, then began jumping into the air, both arms raised

"God. Can you believe it? It was on it all the way," said a stunned Arnold Palmer.

Palmer and Jack Nicklaus, along with Fuzzy Zoeller, followed Trevino to the tee on the par-3 hole, needing an ace to halve the hole.

None, of course, got it. "Well," sighed Zoeller as his shot went about 12 feet by the cup, "I just flat blew a hole in one again.

The perfect shot, launched against a clear, blue desert sky, was certainly the climax to Trevino's brightest day in the sun.

He swept all the money available on the last nine holes, $285,000, and completed the two-day, 18-hole, made-for-television event with $310,000.

"I've been playing golf for 35 years and that's only the second hole in one I've ever had," Trevino said.

Zoeller, who had dominated this popular show the last two years, and Nicklaus each won $70,000 over the first nine holes Saturday. Palmer, 58, who has competed in all five Skins Games, was shut out. Trevino, who missed several critical short putts Saturday, said he made an overnight change in his putting stance that helped him with a 12-foot birdie putt that was worth $25,000 on the first hole of the day's play, which started from the 10th

Zoeller dropped a 20-foot birdie putt on the 11th, but Palmer rolled in a 15-footer on top of it to halve the hole and make the 12th worth $50,000

Trevino won that one, too. He scored from 20 feet and Palmer lipped out a 12-footer than would have tied him.

The next four holes were halved, with Nicklaus and Zoeller each making birdie on the 16th.

Dickerson, Bentley guide Colts to 51-27 demolition of Houston

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Eric continues to battle him for playing time in the Indianapolis backfield.

eight carries. Dickerson, meanwhile, ran right into the Colts' record book with 136 yards on 27 carries.

"I've said all along that I consider both Dickerson and Bentley as starting players," Indianapolis Coach Ron Meyer said. "Certainly Albert performed magnificantly today."

George Wonsley scored on a 2-yard plunge with 10 seconds to play, giving the Colts the highest point to-tal since a 58-20 victory over Buffalo on Dec. 12, 1976.

"We didn't think that they could stop us, but we found a way to stop ourselves," Houston Coach Jerry Glanville said with 1:56 to play. Houston, also 6-5, trailed 31-17 after Jamie Williams' 7-yard reception with 2:27 left in the third quarter. The Oilers drew closer on a
