Two Austin teens arrested, charged with murder, theft

AUSTIN (AP) — A sheriff's deputy said authorities were lucky to capture two Austin teen-agers who were arrested at the Mexican border charged with the stabbing death of a third youth. Stacy Sigler, 17, was killed during the theft of his 1988 Suzuki Samurai, authorities said. Sigler's body was found Saturday in a southeast Travis County field. Held in the case are Hector Soliz, 18, and Reyes Mendieta, 18, said Detective Jerry Wiggins of the Travis County sheriff's office. He said they were being held in Travis County Jail Monday without bond on the capital murder charge. Homicide detective Gary Cutler said authorities believe the suspects headed south toward Mexico and drove by mistake to a truck impoundment area at the border. "There was some luck involved, no doubt," Cutler said of the arrests. "They drove to the wrong spot. It's a whole different ballgame if they get over to Mexico." Mendieta and Soliz were picked up at the International Bridge in Laredo on Saturday morning in Sigler's 4-wheel drive vehicle several hours after Sigler was reported missing, police said. The teen-agers were returned to Travis County early Sunday morning, where they also were charged with felony theft by appropriation in connection with the taking of Sigler's vehicle, authorities said. An autopsy indicated Sigler died of seven stab wounds inflicted with a knife at least seven inches long. Dr. Robert Bayardo, Travis County medical examiner, said.
