K-State halts Jayhawks' home streak

From the Associated Press
 The winning streaks are over for Kansas and Purdue, but the victories keep coming for Brigham Young. Kansas State ended Kansas' 55-game home-court winning streak Saturday, while Indiana halted second-ranked Purdue's 16-game victory string. No. 7 BYU remained the nation's only major undefeated team, improving its record to 15-0 with a victory over Air Force.

Mitch Richmond scored 35 points as Kansas State beat Kansas 72-61 at Lawrence. It was the Jayhawks' first home loss since Feb. 22, 1984, when they were beaten by Oklahoma.

"We've had some unbelievable victories in that streak," Kansas Coach Larry Brown said. "It's time to start over."

Senior Dean Garrett scored a career-high 31 points, including the winning basket with five seconds left, as Indiana downed Purdue 82-79 at Bloomington. Purdue entered the game with the longest major-college winning streak in the country.

On Sunday, No. 6 Temple drenched Rhode Island 77-70, No. 17 Syracuse routed No. 8 Michigan 89-71, and No. 9 Kentucky beat Notre Dame 78-69. No. 6 Duke did not play over the weekend.

No. 1 Arizona 78, No. 13 Illinois 70
 Tom Tolbert scored 20 points as

Arizona improved its record to 20-1. Illinois, 14-6, led twice early in the game, but a 3-pointer by Steve Kerr put Arizona ahead for good 11-10. The Illini trailed by only five points with 4:56 left, but Arizona surged to a 73-63 lead with 1:26 remaining.

Kerr scored 17 points. Illinois was led by Lowell Hamilton, who scored all of his 21 points in the second half.

Indiana 82, No. 2 Purdue 79
 Purdue, which rallied from a 21-point first-half deficit, had a chance to win after Garrett put Indiana ahead 80-79 with a short jumper. But Tony Jones was called for traveling with two seconds left and Indiana scored at the buzzer.

The Boilermakers fell to 17-2 overall and 6-1 in the Big 10 Conference, while Indiana improved to 11-6 and 3-4.

No. 3 North Carolina 73, Georgia Tech 71
 Jeff Lebo scored North Carolina's last 15 points with five 3-point field goals, sparking the Tar Heels over the visiting Yellow Jackets in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The Tar Heels, 15-3 overall and 4-2 in the league, held a six-point halftime lead behind J.R. Reid's 15 points. But the Yellow Jackets held Reid to two baskets in the second half, and rallied for a 64-58 lead with 4:22 left before Lebo went on his 3-point binge.

No. 4 Nevada-Las Vegas 92, Pacific 67

No. 6 Temple 77, Rhode Island 70
 Senior Tim Perry scored a career-high 27 points as visiting Temple snapped Rhode Island's 10-game winning streak.

Temple, 16-1 overall and 10-0 in the Atlantic 10, has never lost to Rhode Island in 22 meetings. Rhode Island, which fell to 7-2 in the conference, was led by Kenny Green's 18 points.

No. 7 BYU 95, Air Force 75
 The Cougars broke open the game with a 7-0 run at the start of the second half that gave them a 56-38 lead.

BYU improved to 15-0 overall and 6-0 in the Western Athletic Conference, while Air Force dropped to 8-10 and 2-6.

No. 17 Syracuse 89, No. 8 Michigan 71
 Rony Seikaly equaled his career high with 33 points as Syracuse took command early in the second half against Michigan.

Michigan, 17-3, fell behind with 16:01 to play, but closed gap to 61-58 with 10:42 left. Grant scored nine of his 22 points that span. But Syracuse, 15-3, responded with 11 straight points won on to rout the Wolverines the nationally televised game.

No. 9 Kentucky 78, Notre Dame 67-65
 Kentucky, 14-3, fought off a one-half rally by Notre Dame Rex Chapman's three-point shot with 1:18 left.

Notre Dame, 12-5, trailed 67-65 before cutting the deficit to 72-69 on Rivers' two-point shot with 24 seconds remaining.

Ed Davender led Kentucky 23 points, and Rivers scored 11 for Notre Dame.

No. 10 Oklahoma 96, No. 11 State 91

LiftAmerica and Special Olympics

LiftAmerica is a program in which individuals solicit pledges for their performances in the LiftAmerica event. The event consists of a bench press competition in which men will press 135 lbs and women will press 55 lbs. Pledges are based on the number of repetitions at these weights. LiftAmerica collects all the money through the mail. Participants are not responsible for collecting any money. The event is to be held on March 1 in room 268 G. Rollie White beginning at 6 PM. Interested individuals should come by the Intramural-Recreational Sports Office to enter and receive their pledge packets. For more info on the program, contact James Welford in the IM-Rec Sports Office or call him at 845-7826. In addition to benefitting Special Olympics, individuals will receive incentive awards based on the actual dollar amount collected by LiftAmerica from their pledges.
