Israeli shooting kills two, wounds three protesters

ANABTA, Occupied West Bank (AP) — Israelis killed two Arabs and wounded three others Monday when they opened fire on a crowd of stone-throwing Palestinians who had trapped a convoy of soldiers and civilians, the army said.

Soldiers wounded four Arabs in two other clashes, a military spokesman said. The Arab-owned Palestine Press Service put the number of Arabs wounded by gunfire at 22 and provided a list of names.

Troops battled Palestinians in protests throughout the West Bank and Gaza Strip, leaving more than a dozen Arabs hospitalized with beating injuries and three soldiers injured by stones.

The renewed violence caused the first deaths from gunfire since Jan. 15 and brought to 41 the confirmed Arab death toll in the rioting that began Dec. 8. It came as the United States was exploring ways to revive the stalled Middle East peace process.

Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin said he hoped the new U.S. initiative would lead to political negotiations, but he warned that Israel would use force and collective punishment to quell protests.

"I just want to make it clear to Palestinian residents of the territories that we are ready — even if it demands lengthy action — to act with force," he said on Israel TV's Arabic-language program.

In response to the upsurge of violence, the army clamped curfews on seven refugee camps and two towns.

In Anabta, a town about 60 miles northwest of Jerusalem, hundreds of protesters barricaded the Nablus-Tulkarem highway and stoned Israeli vehicles, an army spokesman said, speaking on condition of anonymity.

Two civilian cars, a police car and a bus carrying soldiers, were trapped by the crowd. Some of the Israeli soldiers got out of their cars and opened fire, killing two Arabs and wounding one, the spokesman said. Army officials said they were investigating whether the shots were fired by soldiers or civilians.

Army reinforcements arrived on the scene and opened fire, wounding two more Arabs in the legs, the spokesman said. Israel radio said Arab-run Palestine Press Service said a total of four Arabs were wounded in Anabta.

A 22-year-old Anabta resident who would only give his first name as Mohammed, said demonstrators battled soldiers for about four hours at an elementary school near the main highway.

Jurors probed about publicity of KKK trial

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Attorneys Monday questioned potential jurors in the murder trial of two former Ku Klux Klan leaders accused in the death of a black teen-ager who was beaten and hanged from a tree in a case that eventually drove a Klan organization into bankruptcy.

Mobile County Circuit Judge Michael Zoghby withheld rulings on several pretrial motions Monday, including a defense request to exclude blacks from the jury.

Bennie Jack Hays, 72, and his son-in-law, Frank Cox, 32, were indicted in August in the March 1981 beating death of Michael Donald, 19, whose death resulted in a $7 million civil verdict that led to bankruptcy for the United Klans of America.

Zoghby gave attorneys permission to question potential jurors individually after nearly all the panelists raised their hand when asked if they had heard of the case.

The judge also considered a defense request for separate trials for Hays and Cox. Zoghby earlier denied that request, but defense attorney Neil Hanley asked the judge to consider.

Earlier, Hanley argued that race must be an issue in jury selection because of the Klan's hatred of blacks.

"If I strike blacks (from the jury) because it's a Klan case, it is the same reason I would strike Jews from the trial of a PLO member," Hanley said.

But District Attorney Chris Galanos opposed the request.

"Just because they're black doesn't mean they hate the Klan," Galanos said.

Beulah Donald, 67, the victim's mother, sat in court Monday as the jury was selected. After her son's death she filed suit in federal court against the Tuscaloosa-based United Klans of America Inc.

An all-white jury a year ago awarded her $7 million. As part of the judgment, the national headquarters of the United Klans in Tuscaloosa was decided to Donald's estate.

Hays' son, Henry Francis Hays, was convicted of capital murder in the slaying in 1983 and sentenced to death. James "Tiger" Knowles pleaded guilty to federal charges of violating Donald's civil rights and was sentenced to life in prison after agreeing to testify for the government.

Reagan argues for Contra aid package

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan argued Monday that Nicaragua's leftist leaders would not comply with a regional peace plan without a "threat hanging over them" and that his $36.2 million Contra aid package would do the trick.

Meanwhile, the White House scrambled to make the aid package palatable to doubtful House members as the outcome of Wednesday's high-stakes vote remained in the hands of some 20 fence-sitters.

"One question must be answered," Reagan said. "Sandinista promises of the past have been broken. Can we believe them now?"

The president argued that the Sandinista government has reneged on a string of pledges to democratize, and that unless aid to the Contras is continued, it will do the same thing again.

"The Sandinistas haven't made one concession on their own without a threat hanging over them," he said.

"It's just this simple — the way to democracy and peace in Nicaragua is to keep the pressure of the Sandinistas, taking irreversible steps to comply with the regional peace plan, and giving aid to the freedom fighters now," Reagan said to his enthusiastic audience at a Washington hotel.

The president is fighting for a package that includes $3.6 million for ammunition and anti-aircraft missiles.

Breast cancer death rates increase

WASHINGTON (AP) — The breast cancer detection rate among American women is the highest on record but death rates have increased slightly instead of improving from early treatment as experts had hoped, according to a federal study released Monday.

The study, compiled by the National Cancer Institute to reflect rates of incidence and death from all types of cancer, said breast cancer is still the leading cause of death from malignancy among women.

It says this finding suggests women are not taking advantage of screening techniques that could detect breast cancer at a stage when cure is more likely, although detection of breast cancer is at the highest rate in history.

The study also said that although lung cancer remains the leading cause of cancer deaths, the death rate decreased among males in 1985 but continues to increase in women.

NCI used various studies to compile a report generally reflecting cancer statistics for 1950 to 1985, with some cancer estimates for 1987.

Inouye asks for program support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, saying "I have made an error in judgment," told the Senate Monday that he wants Congress to rescind $8 million to build schools in France for North African Jews.

But Inouye, D-Hawaii, defended his action in supporting the program, which drew widespread criticism from members of Congress, the Reagan administration and civil liberties groups.

The American Civil Liberties Union and the American Jewish Committee both were looking into the legality of building religious schools abroad. In the United States, such a program would violate the constitutional separation of church and state.

Companies bid on phone contracts

WASHINGTON (AP) — A General Services Administration official said Sunday the agency was given reason to believe competitors for $55 million in government telephone contracts had received secret information about AT&T's bid but the GSA still allowed the competitors to bid on the contracts.

Paul Trause, deputy GSA administrator, said a GSA contracting employee received a telephone conversation from a representative of one of the competing companies and was concerned but not enough to raise serious questions in the agency.

"What you had is a good person in good faith making a judgment call that in retrospect turned out to be wrong," he said.

He said the employee, who he would not identify, received the call last spring, well before the final bidding deadline for the contracts that were awarded in October.

Firms begin intense hiring process

NORMAL, Ill. (AP) — Work history, education and an interview with a personnel supervisor are only a minor part of the hiring process for a joint automaking venture between Chrysler Corp. and Japan's Mitsubishi Motors Corp.

Applicants for jobs at the Diamond Star plant, which soon will begin building sport coupes for the 1989 model year. Eventually, the plant is expected to build 240,000 cars annually and employ 2,900.

Warner had 12 years' supervisory experience on assembly lines and in fabrication and machine shops when he lost his job building coal mining equipment in West Virginia.

"They take nothing for granted," said Bob Warner, who never thought he'd be subjected to an intense screening process first developed to hire U.S. undercover intelligence officers.

Warner, 40, was hired last fall as a group leader, or assembly line supervisor, at the $650 million Diamond Star plant, which soon will begin building sport coupes for the 1989 model year. Eventually, the plant is expected to build 240,000 cars annually and employ 2,900.

Leftist leader wins election in Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Rodrigo Borja, who has vowed to shift Ecuador to the left, apparently won the election Sunday to replace pro-American President Leon Febres Cordero. But Borja failed to receive a majority and faces a runoff.

With more than 80 percent of the vote counted, Borja was leading with about 20 percent, and appeared headed for a runoff May 8 with another opposition candidate, Abdala Bucaram.

With 2,907,908 ballots counted, Borja, leader of the Democratic Left Party, had 592,233 votes, or 20.4 percent of the total, according to official results.

Bucaram received 449,166 votes, or 15.4 percent of the tally.

Sixto Duran, 66, the conservative candidate of the governing Social Christian Party, had been favored to make the runoff against Borja. But after learning that he had 381,195 votes, or 13.1 percent, Duran conceded defeat.
