Animal rights group pickets annual Miss USA pageant

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — An animal rights group plans to picket the Miss USA pageant in El Paso during its national broadcast March 1 because the winner receives a full-length fur coat.
Longtime pageant master of ceremonies Bob Barker resigned last month over the same issue.
Pageant directors probably won't change their minds, but the protest should make the public more aware of animal rights, said Bob Young, director of the Las Cruces chapter of Sangre de Cristo Animal Protection.
Barker threatened to pull out of the 1987 pageant in Albuquerque, N.M., when he learned the 10 semi-finalists would wear fur coats. He agreed to stay when the contestants were provided with synthetic furs.
