Delvalle orders removal of Noriega

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) — The president ordered the removal of Panama's strongman, Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega, Thursday, but the military rejected the command and the man named as the new armed forces chief said he would not take the job.

President Eric Arturo Delvalle said Noriega would be succeeded by Col. Marcos Justines, the chief of staff. Late Thursday, Justines said, "I reject that order."

Noriega, under indictment on drug trafficking charges in the United States, is regarded as the real power behind the civilian government in Panama, headquarters for U.S. military operations in Latin America.

The government's Radio Nacional called Panamanians to a Thursday night rally supporting Noriega at a downtown park near the National Palace.

There was no immediate indication whether Noriega would comply with Delvalle's order. He has said he is innocent of all charges against him.

Col. Leonidas Macias, police chief for the Defense Forces, flanked by colonels and lieutenant colonels at the Forces' central garrison, told Panamanian TV that no officer would replace Noriega.

Paper: Meese backed bribe to Israel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attorney General Edwin Meese III and the late CIA director William Casey backed a plan to make secret payments out of the Pentagon budget for Israel's support of a $1 billion Iraqi oil pipeline, the Washington Post said in a story quoting informed sources.

In Thursday editions, the Post reported that it had obtained memos by longtime Meese friend E. Robert Wallach outlining the Pentagon budget plan devised in late 1985 after other attempts to ensure the safety of the pipeline project had failed. The Wallach memos say Meese supported the plan and Casey endorsed it.

The Post said it was this plan that former National Security Adviser William P. Clark characterized as "a protection racket" when he was consulted about it late in 1985.

On Clark's recommendation, National Security Adviser John Poindexter reportedly blocked the plan, the Post said.

Responding to the Post story, one of Meese's lawyers rejected suggestions that the attorney general had endorsed the idea.

Kremlin tries to end ethnic protests

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin on Wednesday installed an Armenian as the Communist Party chief of a disputed territory in an apparent effort to end ethnic protests in Soviet Armenia that a dissident said involved 200,000 people.

Soviet authorities also ordered an end to the unrest.

Protesters in Yerevan, the Armenian capital, want the Nagorno-Karabakh region in neighboring Azerbaizhan turned over to Armenia, smallest of the Soviet Union's 15 republics.

In another apparent concession, Moscow radio said Armenian party leaders would ask the Central Committee in Moscow to discuss Nagorno-Karabakh in a meeting on nationality policy.

No such meeting has been scheduled, but Soviet leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev proposed one last week.

Yerevan was the scene Tuesday and Wednesday of industrial strikes, school boycotts and public demonstrations said to be the largest in the Soviet Union's 70-year history.

In the Baltic republic of Estonia on Wednesday, there was a rally on a national anniversary day, with demonstrators shouting "Get the Russians out!" a dissident said.

Demotions spur boycott of school

CHICAGO (AP) — Angry parents in a tough South Side neighborhood kept nearly half the pupils home from a public school Wednesday after the principal demoted 250 youngsters at mid-year because of poor reading skills.

"I will never agree to demoting my child," said Brenda Wimberly, whose 9-year-old son, Dontae, was demoted from third to second grade. "If his reading doesn't come up in April, then he can remain in the third grade for next year."

About half of Beethoven Elementary School's 830 students have been kept out of the school since Monday by angry parents.

Principal Grace Dawson said Wednesday she would try to make her decision stick.

"I took the step because my children were so far behind — two, three, four years behind in reading — that we had to do something," Dawson said. While some parents taught their children at a makeshift alternative school Wednesday, about 20 met with Dawson at the school and others attended the Chicago Board of Education's regular meeting to protest the demotions.

Drug lowers virus level in AIDS carriers

NEW YORK (AP) — The anti-AIDS drug AZT lowered virus levels and improved immune systems in more than two-thirds of 18 otherwise healthy carriers of the AIDS virus, according to a European study.

In a separate development Thursday, researchers at the University of Miami said they were able to prevent AIDS victims from contracting a deadly form of pneumonia.

The AZT study's results fall far short of what would be needed for doctors to recommend that healthy AIDS virus carriers begin taking AZT, which can have dangerous side effects, Dr. Samuel Broder, the director of AIDS drug testing at the National Cancer Institute, said Thursday.

Broder said the study suggests that a recently initiated American study of AZT in healthy carriers "needs to proceed urgently."

"It's very important not to rush out and start using AZT in a situation in which its use has not been proven," Broder said.

The AZT study, published in the current issue of The Lancet, a British medical journal, found that levels of the AIDS virus "declined significantly" in 13 of 18 men who had longstanding AIDS virus infections but no symptoms of AIDS.

Shultz urges Israel to make agreement

JERUSALEM (AP) — Secretary of State George P. Shultz urged Israel on Thursday to negotiate a prompt and final agreement with the Arabs about the violence-plagued occupied territories.

He said the 21-year Israeli occupation of the West Bank and Gaza Strip was the main reason for unrest that has cost at least 65 lives since Dec. 8.

"Its fundamental origin is essentially indigenous," Shultz said on the flight from Washington to begin a five-day peace shuttle in which he will submit proposals to the Israelis and Arabs.

Shultz would give no details, but said his approach to both sides will go far beyond an interim arrangement for the occupied lands, where 1.5 million Palestinians live.

It is understood to be a two-step plan that would loosen Israeli controls immediately and lead to negotiations for a final settlement, even Palestinian statehood, by December.

Church meets about Swaggart scandal

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — The hierarchy of the Assemblies of God met into the night Thursday to consider toughening sanctions against TV evangelist Jimmy Swaggart after a prostitute said she had performed pornographic acts for him.

The church's Executive Presbytery was to consider a recommendation by its Louisiana district that Swaggart, the denomination's most prominent minister, be barred from preaching for three months and undergo counseling during a supervised two-year rehabilitation period. About half the people calling the denomination this week have criticized that recommendation as too lenient.

"I expect this session will go through the evening," church spokesman Juleen Turnage said. "This is just a discussion meeting and not a decision meeting."

Leaders were expected to remain overnight in Springfield, the church's international headquarters, and probably will meet again today.
