Soviet space program to be discussed

The MSC Political Forum will sponsor a program Tuesday on "The Soviet Space Program: Past, Present and Future."

Alexander Kharkovsky, who has worked in many aspects of the Soviet space program, will be speaking in 212 MSC at 7 p.m. Admission is free.

"He has been working with the Soviet space program for 25 years," said Luba Diangar, who has worked with Kharkovsky and will be his host.

"He has met cosmonauts and designers and knows everything that has happened in the Soviet space program," she said.

Diangar said the program should be fun and interesting because the speaker is personable.

"He wants to push the American space program forward," she said.

Judy's to perform at A&M Thursday

The Judy's are back. MSC Town Hall is bringing The Judy's to DeWare Field House Thursday. The Judy's, whose albums include "The Wonderful World of Appliances" and "Moo," play a minimalist, new wave style of music. The band also is well known for its stage antics; the song "Guyana Punch" is often accompanied by band members dousing the audience with pitchers of water. Songs sure to be included on this "Girl of 1,000 Smells" tour are "Watching M.T.V.," "All the Pretty Girls" and "Milk". Tickets are $4.50 and are available at the MSC Box Office.

OPAS brings Frankenstein adaptation

By Richard Tijerina
Senior Staff Writer

The Opera and Performing Arts Society will present the Guthrie Theatre's adaptation of "Frankenstein," based on Mary Shelley's novel, to Rudder Auditorium Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Adapted by playwright Barbara Field, this version of the story of the giant but gentle monster addresses the dynamics of the relationship between creator and creation.

"More than an adaptation," Field said, "this play is a response to the novel. The heart of the book is the dialogue between Frankenstein and the creature and one in which I'm focusing this script."

A free lecture will be held by Guthrie Theatre workshop artists in Rudder Theatre Wednesday at 6:15 p.m., prior to the performance, to discuss the adaptation of Shelley's novel for the stage and the mechanics of their national tour.

Suspect kills self after surrounded by police officers

DALLAS (AP) — A murder suspect — released by mistake after he exchanged ID bracelets with another jail inmate — fatally shot himself in the head as police surrounded an apartment where he was hiding, authorities said.

Derrick Greene, 18, described by authorities as a hit man, was found dead at 5:30 a.m. Saturday in a second-floor apartment about three miles northeast of downtown Dallas.

A police tactical squad surrounded the apartment about 1 a.m. Saturday after being tipped that Greene was hiding in the apartment, investigator D.A. Watts said.

Officers saw a man climbing out a back window of the apartment, but he went back inside after officers called to him with a bullhorn, Watts said.

They continued calling but got no response and then threw a tear-gas canister into a window.

Watts said the tactical squad, without knowing if anyone else was in the apartment or if Greene was alive, finally broke through the door and found Greene lying dead on the floor just inside. A .45-caliber handgun was beside him.

The Dallas County medical examiner's office estimated that Greene died about 1 a.m. of a self-inflicted gunshot wound in the mouth.

Officers fired no shots and did not hear the shot that killed Greene, Watts said.

Greene, a Jamaican who also was known by the alias of Johnathon Crow, was arrested March 15 and held in maximum security at Lew Sterrett Justice Center on charges of two attempted murders and one attempted assassination.

Police suspect the killings on Nov. 20 and Dec. 16 were related to drug trafficking among Jamaican gang members, officers said.

Jail officials said they believe Greene escaped by offering a reward to inmate James Arthur, 17, in exchange for Davis' prisoner identification bracelet.

Davis was to have been released from jail Wednesday after a $10,000 bond was posted for him on aggravated assault charges.

Instead, Greene, wearing Davis' ID bracelet, was released.

Officials said Davis remained in jail over the weekend, and an additional charge of aiding a felon escape was filed against him.
