

Class of '89

Denise Arledge Education

Howdy! My name is Denise Arledge, and I'm running for Class of '89 president. I'm currently serving as junior class president, and I'm looking forward to continuing that position for our senior year. I've watched our class grow strong this year as the Class of '89 Council and I have worked hard for a successful year.

I'm excited about having the opportunity to work at making our class grow even stronger our senior year through several goals: continuing class unity, pride, awareness and involvement. Work-

Class of '90

Dan Gattis Scientific Nutrition

Howdy Ags, my name is Dan Gattis and I am running for re-election for the president of the Class of '90. I have held the office of president for the past two years and I feel that I have done a good job. The office I am running for requires that you know many things about the system by which it runs. This is not something that can be told to you, it is something that you must learn on your own by experience. I feel that I have the qualifications and experience required to do the job and do it well, and I would appreciate your vote.

Class of '91

Tracey Butler General Studies

The constitution defines the president as a representative of the people. It should be that way! The Class of '91 is a big part of Texas A&M. My plans of improving unity, spirit, student involvement and student awareness will make our class play an even bigger part. Not only will I represent our class, I will find the problems, seek out the solutions, then put for these improvements. Let's put the student back into the student body government!

Ben Mach Political Science

Howdy fellow Ags! My name is Ben Mach and I am running for the Class of '91 president. I would like to serve as your president because I would be capable of performing the duties required of the office. I feel that it is important to keep you, the students, informed on what's happening and encourage everyone to get involved. Since we are the biggest class, let's work together to make it the best!

Henry Peacock Political Science

If elected, I would work with the utmost diligence to establish class unity, identity and activity. We have been here almost two semesters, and now it's time to get something done. I feel confident that with a little effective communication and good organization we can have a fully operational and active class. But in order to accomplish this, I need your vote. Let's get something done and vote Peacock for president Class of '91.

Tracy Hammerstein History

The Class of '90 is my utmost priority for it is extremely important to me. The class needs to be revitalized though! A lack of communication prevails between class representatives and the class. I have numerous ideas to make Class of '90 a productive as well as an exciting, spontaneous class. Above all, the communication gap will be filled! Through your support we can make the Class of '90 spirit thrive! I have the will just give me the means! Vote Tracy Hammerstein.

Katherine Smith Business Administration

Howdy, Class of '90. My name is Katherine Smith and I am running for president of our class. I have several goals that I plan to achieve as president. One goal is reorganizing and defining council. This would establish a firm policy of who does what, when and how. Everyone is a member of the Class of '90 and as such, my second goal is to initiate an awareness committee that will build strength and unity within our class.

My qualifications include fish camp counselor, sorority and serving on this year's council as your chairman of class ball. The experience of working with and for students forms the foundation for my goals and candidacy. I hope to earn your vote. " '90 — we can be the best."

Jimi Lou Steambarge Journalism and Political Science

I feel I have the dedication, desire and drive to be the next Class of '90 president. With this desire and my enthusiasm for both Texas A&M and the Class of '90, I feel I am the qualified person.

My goals are to represent you, the Class of '90, listen to your ideas and get more people involved while uniting our class.

Therefore, vote Jimi Lou Steambarge — the one ready for a challenge.
