Society offers free skin cancer tests

The American Cancer Society will sponsor free skin cancer screenings Saturday at the Humana Day Surgery Clinic as part of National Melanoma/Skin Cancer Detection and Prevention Month.

Dr. Clyde Caperton, a local dermatologist participating in the screening, said results from the tests on suspicious areas will be available immediately.

"A skin diagnosis is visual," he said. "We look at it and if somebody had something that is a skin cancer or precancerous suspicious we will give them a little card and tell them they have a suspicious lesion . . . and they should see their doctor or one of the dermatologists later."

Local dermatologists Dr. Terry Jones and Dr. David Barton also will participate in the screening. American Cancer Society statistics show that 7,800 people died from the most serious form of skin cancer, malignant melanoma, in 1987.

Caperton said ulcers on the skin or black moles are possible signs of skin cancer.

Testing will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and people interested in the test should call the local American Cancer Society office at 776-1463 for an appointment.

Judge drops suit accusing four teen-agers of slander

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A former teacher's slander suit filed against four teen-agers who accused her of having sex with another teen has been thrown out of court because she failed to attend two deposition hearings, officials said.

State District Judge John Yates dismissed the $400,000 suit Monday because Lou Ann Hogan had missed the deposition appointments.

Hogan's attorney, John Schulman, said he will consult with the former Clark High School English teacher about an appeal on the dismissal.

Hogan has found a job in New York, and her attorneys said that kept her from meeting the deposition dates.

"This lady is not trying to avoid her deposition," attorney John Schulman said. "What she is trying to do is take a job."

But defense attorneys Robert Thornton and Otto Good said Hogan was avoiding answering questions concerning her alleged tryst with Clark High School student Chad Cadenhead.

The teen-ager reportedly bragged to friends that he was having a sexual relationship with the teacher. When the friends did not believe him, he set up a rendezvous with the teacher and the friends watched from outside his bedroom window, attorneys have said.

The sexual acts allegedly witnessed by the teen-agers occurred twice in mid-December. Cadenhead, a 17-year-old with emotional problems, committed suicide in late January.
