Rijo, 3-run 7th help Reds beat Astros 5-2

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jose Rijo allowed three hits in seven innings and Dave Collins' pinch-hit single ignited a three-run seventh inning Tuesday night, carrying the Cincinnati Reds to a 5-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

Cincinnati built a 2-0 lead as Eric Davis singled home a first-inning run and Jeff Reed hit a solo homer in the second off Mike Scott, 13-7, who hasn't won since Aug. 13.

A throwing error by reliever Larry Andersen set up run-scoring singles in the seventh by Collins, Barry Larkin and Kal Daniels.

Rijo, 13-8, allowed just three singles in his second start since coming off the disabled list Sept. 8, recovered from tendinitis in his right elbow. Rijo has allowed just five hits in 13 scoreless innings in the two starts, both victories.

Rob Murphy allowed an eighth-inning RBI single to Glenn Davis and John Franco got four outs for his 33rd save, giving up a run-scoring single to Kevin Bass in the ninth.

Scott allowed six hits over six innings and struck out five in losing for the fourth fourth time in six starts.

Cincinnati scored in the first as Chris Sabo singled, stole his 44th base, moved up on Daniels' groundout and scored on Davis' single to left, his National League-leading 20th game-winning RBI.

Reed hit the first pitch from Scott in the second inning for his second NL homer and the fourth of his career. His other NL homer was with Montreal last June 26 off the Reds' Bill Gullickson.

Andersen helped the Reds score two more runs in the seventh. He walked Reed and threw wildly to first on Ron Oester's bunt, putting the runners in scoring position. Collins' pinch-hit single scored Reed, and Larkin followed with an RBI single. Daniels' infield single off Dave Meads completed the scoring.
