12th Man Scoreboard

Cyclists roar past opponents in races

Aggie cyclists waylaid the competition in stage races held earlier this month in Houston and Lubbock.

The A&M cycling team was in Houston on October 1 and 2, racing in the Hardy Toll Road Race. The event consisted of a criterium race and a road race.

In both the stage and criterium events, the racers were divided into categories containing 100 riders each. In category 3, A&M's Chris Fuller finished 11th in both the road race and criterium events while teammate Mike Aston was 18th in the road race and 10th in the criterium.

A&M's Tom Ames highlighted the Aggie performances by placing third in the criterium event and 10th

Runners raise money in charity event

Runners ranging in age from 15 to 58 competed in the third annual Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship 5K run to benefit the Pleasant Hills Children's Home at the Texas A&M West Campus.

Eighty-six runners competed in 10 divisions in the event that raised $350 for the charity.

Luis Mena won the men's title with an event-record clocking of 15 minutes, seven seconds over the 3.1 mile course.

"This is the fastest winning time

Lacrosse team spans Sam Houston St.

A&M's lacrosse team split two games last weekend.

The club lost to a group of former club players Saturday and defeated Sam Houston on Sunday.

The alumni beat the Aggies 6-5. A&M has never beaten the alumni members.

After the 10-9 win over Sam Houston, the rookie club members took on Sam Houston's rookies for two quarters and came away with a 6-1 win.

This weekend the club heads to

Aggie sailing team struggles in regatta

Texas A&M's Sailing Club heads to New Orleans this weekend for a regatta hosted by Tulane.

The teams this weekend will be racing in 22-foot shields and flying scots, also over 20 feet. A&M's boats are owned by the club.

Last weekend Sailing Club members traveled to Lake Waco for the

Aggie judo team ties for title in Uvalde

Boosted by three first-place finishes, the Aggie Judo team kicked its way to a first-place tie in the team standings at the Cactus Jack Tournament in Uvalde last weekend.

Aggies Bobby Perez, Darrell Coleman and John Hughes collected

Last weekend the team traveled to Lubbock and raced in the Texas Tech Collegiate event.

The men's team raced in A & B divisions in a road race and a time trial, while the women's team competed in the same events in one division.

Annette Wolfe was second in the road race and third in the time trial to lead the women's team. Wolfe performed in a field of 15.

For the men, Todd Jones was third in the road race ahead of Aston who finished eighth. They competed in an 18-man field.

12th Man Sports

we've ever had," Chi Alpha President Tim Brecheen said. "It's over a minute faster than last year's winning time."

Karla Hancock won the women's division while finishing in a time of 20 minutes, 42 seconds.

The course began at the Olsen Field parking lot and continued through the Texas A&M Research Park before ending back at the Olsen Parking lot.

Lacrosse

Austin to play indoor (box) lacrosse at Tattoos Indoor Soccer arena. Twelve to 14 teams are expected to play.

A&M plays twice Saturday and at least once Sunday. The top four teams go on to the semifinals.

Box lacrosse uses a softer ball than outdoor lacrosse and is faster and higher scoring.

Sailing

Ensey Memorial hosted by Baylor. Six teams from Texas competed and Kansas University also made the trip.

A&M sent a team of new sailors to gain experience. They finished fifth in the B-division and sixth in the A-division.

Judo

first place in their respective divisions to lead the team to a first-place tie with the University of Texas in the 14-team competition.

Knothole Tickets available for $3 to high-schoolers

The Texas A&M ticket office will make Knothole Tickets for Saturday's A&M-Baylor football game available to high school students for $3 Saturday morning.

The tickets were made available after Baylor returned more than 2,800 tickets it was allotted. Baylor was unable to sell the tickets.

The tickets can be picked up at window 4 at G. Rollie White Coliseum. They will also be available at noon at the north end of Kyle Field, as well as the southeast gate of the stadium.

Plenty of reserved seats remain for the game. They can be purchased at window 7 from 7 this morning until 4 this afternoon, as well as the day of the game from 8 a.m. until the kickoff at 2 p.m.

Matchups

Scioscia is hot and better than either Oakland catcher.

Designated Hitter; Will be used in games at Oakland
Don Baylor, Oakland

Filled same role with Boston in 1986 World Series and Minnesota in last year's postseason. Hit seven homers with 34 RBI as free-agent acquisition. Was 0-for-6 in playoffs. Has .292 average in two World Series.

Danny Heep or Rick Dempsey, Dodgers

Heep, a left-handed hitter, was Mets' DH in 1986 World Series and went 1-for-11. Was Los Angeles most-used pinch hitter, but why? Went 4-for-44 as PH. Dempsey, a right-handed catcher, hit .251 with seven homers. Had two doubles in five at-bats in playoffs.

Oakland has Baylor, and history shows Baylor is a winner.

Starting Pitching
Dave Stewart, Storm Davis, Bob Welch, Oakland

Stewart, a two-time 20-game winner, gave up two runs in 13 1-3 innings against Boston. Davis won career-high 16 games. Welch won career-high 17.

Orel Hershiser, Tim Belcher, John Tudor, Los Angeles

Hershiser closed season with record 59 scoreless innings and was iron man of the playoffs, pitching four times and winning MVP award. Belcher, a rookie, won twice against the Mets. Tudor, still not 100 percent, is left-hander with a different look.

Oakland rotation is set with rest. Hershiser pitched Game 7 Wednesday night and can't start opener. The Athletics get a slight edge.

Relief Pitchers
Dennis Eckersley, Rick Honeycutt, Gene Nelson, Greg Cadaret, Curt Young, Oakland

Eckersley saved all four playoff victories with six shutout innings and was MVP. Led majors with 45 saves. Nelson won twice against Boston and Honeycutt won once, each with scoreless relief.

Jay Howell, Jesse Orosco, Brian Holton, Ricky Horton, Alejandro Pena, Los Angeles

Howell and Orosco, the closers, were ineffective in the playoffs — with or without pine tar. Pena did not fare much better, but Holton and Horton did well.

Both teams have good middle relief but Oakland gets the edge because Eckersley is in top form.

Bench
Polonia, Javier, Baylor, Gallego, Oakland

Balanced bench gives Oakland options. There's power, speed, defense and on-base potential, depending on which player is used.

Tracy Woodson, Jose Gonzalez, Mike Davis, Los Angeles

Gonzalez is fine defensive outfielder. Not much offense from any of the three.

Oakland gets the edge because of versatility.

Manager
Tony La Russa, Oakland

Expects a lot from himself and his players. Seems to manage more with his mind than heart.

Tom Lasorda, Los Angeles

Many see his act as too Hollywood, but he motivates his players and they love him.

Two different men with different approaches, both successful. Even.
