

Doesn't it make sense to elect the next Chief Justice of the 10th Court of Appeals based on background and experience rather than party affiliation?

Put sets out by Comm. to Elect Judge Bob Thomas Chief Justice Karl May, Treas. 5400 Bosque, Waco, TX 76710

cut here

Defensive Driving Course

Oct. 19, 29 Nov. 2, 3

College Station Hilton

For information or to pre-register phone 693-8178 24 hours a day.

cut here

FORT SHILOH GRILLE

Discount Coupons

2628 Texas Ave. S. College Station

Chicken Fried Steak Baked Potato or Fries $2<sup>79</sup> reg. $3.69

Homemade Rolls

Good Sun., Mon. & Tues. Nights Only Expires 12/88

---

$3<sup>00</sup> off Chicken Fajitas for 2

Served with grilled onions, beans, rice, sour cream, guacamole, pico de gallo, cheddar cheese and homemade flour tortillas. Expires 12/88

"Public Service and the Texas Economy"

Texas LT. Governor Bill Hobby

7 p.m.

Monday, October 17

601 Rudder

everyone invited admission free!

PSS

The Political Science Society

Join The Ultimate Travel Club!

FREE!

*The Ultimate Combination**

- $600,000 Flight insurance with every ticket...FREE!
- Gold VISA Card...FREE!
- Traveler's checks...FREE!
- Ticket delivery to your office...FREE!
- Travel seminars...FREE!
- Parties...FREE!
- Travel research and consultation...FREE!
- Luggage Tags and Passport cases...FREE!

in association with United Citizens Bank

EDUCATIONAL TOUR COORDINATORS

Member FDIC

Call or come by any branch of United Citizens Bank or ITS Tours & Travel: 693-1414 764-9400 ext. 222

Lady Aggies lose to No. 9 Wildcats

By Doug Walker
Assistant Sports Editor

Ninth-ranked Kentucky, led by 18 kills from outside hitter Kim Thompson, took advantage of poor serving and blocking by Texas A&M to sweep the Lady Aggies in volleyball action Saturday night at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Kentucky won by scores of 15-4, 18-16 and 15-12.

Thompson, a senior who ranks among the national leaders in kills average per game, led the Wildcats in hitting percentage with a mark of .516 and added 11 digs as Kentucky ended a four-game A&M winning streak.

Kentucky moved to 16-3 on the year with the victory while the Lady Aggies fell to 12-7.

Senior outside attacker Cheri Steensma led A&M with 13 kills. Vivian Viera added nine kills and Krista Hierholtzer chipped in nine more while leading both teams in hitting percentage with a .565 percentage.

A&M Head Coach Al Givins said the Lady Aggies were intimidated by the Wildcats in the match's first game and hurt themselves in the second game by committing several serving errors.

"You can't make eight service errors and expect to win the game," Givins said. "If we win that one, who knows what happens."

Kentucky took the first game by scoring the final 13 points of the game after A&M had taken a 4-2 lead behind the serve of Hierholtzer, a sophomore setter. A&M hit a dismal .069 in the opening game while the Wildcats hit .320 in their best hitting game of the match.

The second game saw A&M take an early 6-3 lead before settling in for a close battle. A&M served for the game with leads of 14-13 and 16-15 before being victimized both times by crucial service errors.

Givins thought the Lady Aggies earned Kentucky's respect by rebounding in game two after the poor start.

"We played at a higher level in the second game," Givins said. "In the second and third games, we blocked and hit better. In the second game they (Kentucky) knew they were in a match."

A&M hit .361 in the second game.

The final game of the match was also a tight one. A&M held leads of 10-8 and 11-10 before Kentucky battled back to win 15-12 on a match-ending spike by senior middle blocker Lisa Bockovoy.

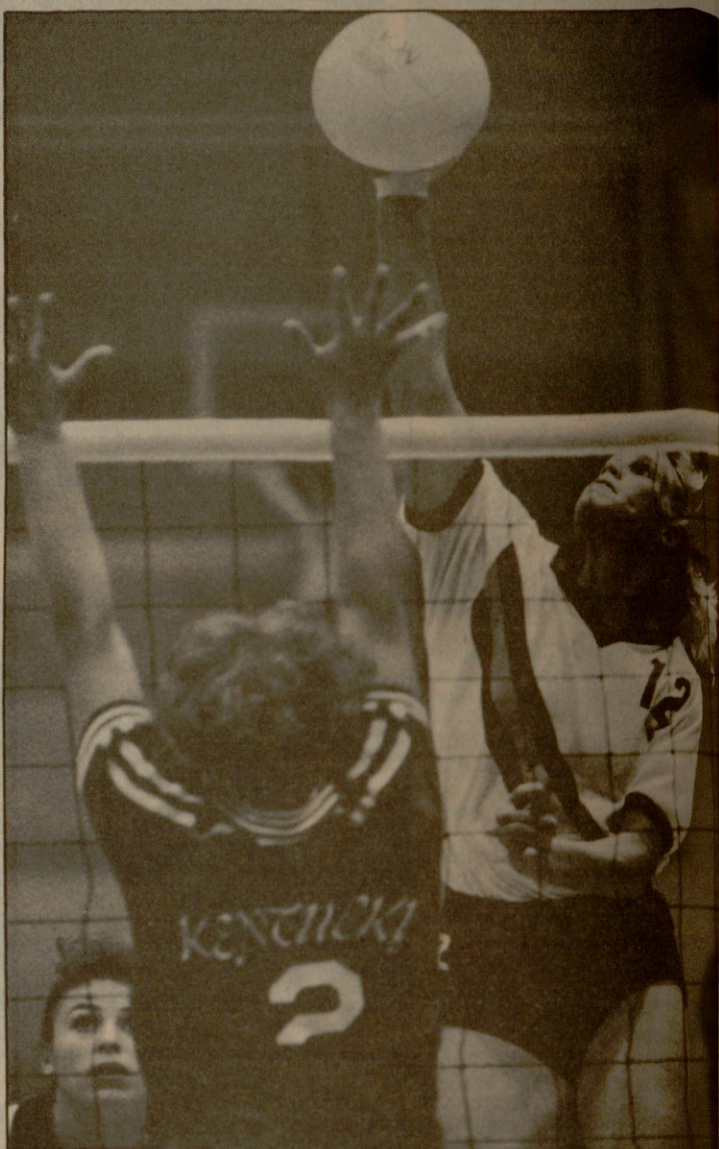

Bokovoy led Kentucky with 14 digs and was second on the team with 10 kills.

Junior setter Yvonne Van Brandt led A&M with 16 digs while Viera added 10. Outside attacker Amy Cummings totalled nine digs for the match.

The Lady Aggies were coming off of a Southwest Conference win over Baylor on Friday night which ran A&M's SWC record to 2-1.

"We got beat by a better team tonight," he said. "We're two and one in the conference and we've got Rice coming up this Friday. At least this wasn't a conference game."

The Rice game is scheduled for a 7:30 start Friday night at G. Rollie White Coliseum.

A&M's Cheri Steensma goes up for a spike against two Kentucky defenders. The Lady Aggies lost the match in three games.

Photo by Frederick O...

A&M netters take second in Rolex meet

Craig Whitteker and Gustavo Espinosa took second place in doubles play to highlight the Texas A&M men's tennis team at the Southwest Louisiana-Rolex Invitational Tournament in Lafayette, La.

Whitteker and Espinosa, unseeded in the tournament, fell to Steven and Stuart Jung 3-6, 6-7 (7-5), 7-5 in the final. The Jung brothers, from the University of Nebraska, were the No. 1 seed in the tournament.

The Aggie team saved three match points when down 5-4 in the third set behind Whitteker's serve, then saved two more on Espinosa's serve before losing.

"They played an unbelievable match," A&M Assistant Coach Tim Drain said.

The Jungs defeated the No. 1 A&M doubles team, Shaun O'Donovan and Steve Kennedy, in the semifinals 6-4, 7-6.

Espinosa also reached the final game of the consolation singles bracket, where he lost to Jesco Van Heintze of the University of South Alabama 4-6, 6-1, 6-1.

Hershiser

(Continued from page 7)

eight inning, despite working on three days' rest since shutting out the New York Mets in Game 7 of the National League playoffs by the same 6-0 score.

The Athletics, the second-highest scoring team in the majors this year, saw their scoreless inning streak reach 16 1-3 as they managed to get just six balls out of the infield. Hershiser's pinpoint pitches were sharper than those by his parents, who threw out the ceremonial first balls.

Hershiser, who got only 11 hits this year and batted a career-low .129, also swung the mottled bat. His one-out single to center field in the third inning touched off a five-run outburst, capped by Marshall's home run.

Hershiser's hit-and-run double to right in the fourth made it 6-0 and finished Storm Davis. He doubled to left field in the sixth, matching his season total for two-base hits.

Davis, who had allowed just three earned runs in 17 1-3 previous postseason innings with Baltimore and Oakland, ran into Los Angeles' sudden impact in the third. Hershiser faked a bunt on a 3-1 and lined it past Davis' ear for a triple. Hershiser bravely took off on the Sax's single to right field, unaccompanied by Canseco's powerful arm, and slid safely into third.

Franklin Stubbs, playing in Gabe's absence, singled home Hershiser. Mickey Hatcher followed with a hit to run single for a 2-0 lead. Hatcher has been 2-for-14 lifetime against Davis before singling his first two trips.

Aggies

(Continued from page 7)

at the start of the third quarter. They made it to the Baylor 16-yard line before failing on a fourth-down run attempt.

Two drives later, A&M was determined to score a touchdown as they tried and succeeded on two more fourth-down conversions, both by Wilson. On the 12th play of the 64-yard drive, Wilson shot through the right side and headed up the sideline for a 30-yard touchdown run. He had 92-yards in the game.

Sherrill said the Aggies chose to go for the first down on fourth down attempts because the team has missed all four field goals attempted this year. Scott Slater attempted and missed one field goal in the game.

The Aggies got the ball again when defensive back Alex Morris recovered a fumble at the David of a 29-yard pass from Goebel to David Bell at the 8:45 mark of the final period.

Richardson got the drive moving with a 39-yard scamper on an option to the right. It was slow and steady the rest of the way until Richardson exploded around the right corner for a 15-yard TD run.

Baylor got the ball back with over minutes on the clock and passed it to midfield. But freshman defensive back Kevin Smith pulled down an Goebel pass and returned it 52-yards for going out of bounds at the 10:00 line.

The Aggies lost a yard on two plays and then took two delay-of-game penalties to put them back to their 13. The took advantage of good A&M containment blocking and swung around left end for the final TD with two seconds on the clock.

WORLD FOOD DAY

INTERNATIONAL TELECONFERENCE

Monday October 17th
11 a.m.-2 p.m.
Rm. 601 Rudder

Kick-off for:
Texas A&M Second Annual Community Food Drive
for the Brazos Valley

TAMU ECONOMICS SOCIETY

ATTN: ECONOMICS MAJORS

YOU ARE INVITED TO A REAL BOURBON STREET BASH.

WHERE: NEW ORLEANS
WHY: VISIT FEDERAL RESERVE BANK AND THE REST OF NEW ORLEANS
WHEN: OCTOBER 28-30, 1988
HOW MUCH: $55-65 APPROX. COVERS TRANSPORTATION AND ROOM.
HOW: COME TO ECONOMICS SOCIETY MEETINGS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1988 AT 7 PM
RUDDER 604 AB. DEPOSIT $25 DUE 10/21/88.
FOR MORE DETAILS CALL BILL CULPEPPER 764-8280

Associated Reading Centers

Congratulates our September Graduates

This Class Averaged A
66% Reduction in Reading Time
Improved Comprehension 25%

Crystal Titlow	Craig Wilhelm
Shannon Reed	Zane Dunham
Diana Sensano	Mina Miller
Dina Sensano	Daniel Mark
Gerry Bowen	Jess Fulmer
Don Fronning	Charles Warlick
Tim Rogers	Thou Dang
Wendy Hinkle	Nick Bumtass
Laurette Veres	Brad Carlow

Andy Fruhling

You are now prepared for the information age. Taught by trained & qualified instructors who care about your success & get results. Call 696-9324 or (713)690-5343 or attend a preview class this week.