and try to block out the pain when I play."

The 65-percent Lewis easily romped for a 47-yard TD in the third quarter to put the score at 17-3. The run was the longest of the year for Lewis and for the Aggies.

On A&M's next possession, Lewis churned for 38-yards before being dragged to the turf by William McClay.

Freshman Keith McAfee eluded the grasp of Rice defenders on the next play for a 42-yard run before being halted within two yards of the end zone.

Richardson scored on a quarterback keep to put the Aggies at a comfortable 24-3.

"We knew we needed to come out in the second half and score," Richardson said. "We needed to put the drives together when we got the ball, because we didn't have the ball that often."

"I thought he (Richardson) threw the ball well," Sherrill said, "but we didn't have the ball that much when you look at the stats."

Richardson completed six of 11 attempts for a career high of 98 yards passing.

"I should have hit more of the passes that I threw out there," Richardson said. "We didn't execute well."

A&M moved to 4-0 in the South-west Conference and 4-3 overall while adding to the Owls' 13-game losing streak.

A&M did not out play Rice but managed to win.

"We didn't play the kind of game that we normally do," Sherrill said. "We played more zone instead of blitzing all day. We didn't play that well up front."

Aaron Wallace had two sacks for the day and John Roper added one.

Sherrill said it was difficult to tell if the Aggies were emotionally ready for the game.

The Aggies were confused with the Rice game plan but made half-time adjustments.

A&M burst into the third quarter with big running plays from Lewis and teammates. The second half had the Owls diligently sticking to the ground.

Lewis and the Aggies got the A&M running game in full stride in the second half, but Rice continued its plan of running the ball despite the waning clock.

"I thought they played a bit conservatively in the second half when they may have been able to even the score by throwing the ball," Sherrill said. "They just wouldn't throw the ball."

The fourth quarter was dry for the Aggies, but Rice managed to find the end zone for the Owl's only touchdown.

The offense moved the ball steadily downfield on quarterback Quentin Roper's runs and an 8-yard Aggie face-mask penalty.

Runs by Roper and Lorenzo Cyphers took the Owls to combined on the run, before Roper capped the drive with a 2-yard dive — officially. The ball actually was entirely inside the 1 yard line.

Lady Aggies

The Lady Aggies move to 3-1 in conference play and 13-8 overall. Rice falls to 2-2 and 13-8.

"This is definitely the best we have played all season long," A&M Head Coach Al Givens said. "Offensively and defensively we are moving really well."

Givens said he was pleased with the team's defensive effort and that every player contributed to the match.

"Cheri Steensma had a stellar performance, and I don't believe she committed any errors all night," he said.

Steensma led the Lady Aggies with 25 kills followed by Viera with 17 kills and Hierholzer with 10. Steensma's hitting percentage was .556 with Kelli Kellen at .444 and Viera with .406.

A&M Setter Yvonne Viera had 16 digs for the night. Viera distributed 13 and Steensma had 13.

Rice jumped to a three-point lead in the first game, but the Lady Aggies pulled even with the Owls. A&M outside attacker Viera and Krista Hierholzer's serving and tacking pushed A&M to a 15-13 lead.

On the game point, A&M's Cummings went down with a leg injury and did not return to the court.

Givens said Cummings suffered a mild hyperextension and should not be out long.

The Lady Aggies put the game away on the serve of Ponder.

A&M shot to an 8-3 lead in the second game. The Lady Aggies won the game with Steensma contributing the
