

Lewis leads Frogs past Owls; Pitt, Virginia pull upsets

Associated Press

John Lewis led three players in double figures with 20 as Texas Christian defeated Rice 70-64 Sunday and maintained its early season lead in Southwest Conference basketball.

Craig Sibley added 18, including 14 in the first half, and Rich Antee had 17 for TCU.

Texas Christian improved its SWC record to 4-0 and hiked its overall record to 11-5. Rice fell to 1-3 and 6-8.

Rice mounted a comeback in the second half, led by the outside shooting of Dana Hardy, and trimmed TCU's lead to 65-60 with 58 seconds left.

But Rice played the final 10 minutes without its frontline as center Andy Gilchrist and forwards David Willie and Kenneth Rourke fouled out.

Rice was led by Hardy and Gilchrist, who each finished with 12 points. Willie, Richard Holmes and D'Wayne Tanner each added 10.

Rourke led all rebounders with 10.

TCU's final 10 points came at the free-throw line.

"Our shots were falling at the end of the first half and we were taking good shots," Lewis said after the win. "Once again we pulled it out with our free throw shooting."

TCU coach Moe Iba said his team's strategy was to get Rice out of synch offensively.

"We were scared of this ball game," Iba said. "Rice has the type of team that if you let them do what they want to offensively, they're really tough to beat."

Rice coach Scott Thompson said the Owls had trouble offensively.

"If the ball is falling for us, we're a whole lot better team because our confidence level is higher," he said.

Iba, asked if TCU is the team to beat in the Southwest Conference, said it isn't and pointed out that five of the Horned Frogs' first eight conference games are on the road.

"We have two days now to get ready for Houston," he said. "We're just trying to be competitive."

Pittsburgh 99, Oklahoma 91

Brian Shorter scored 37 points, and Rod Brookin had 24 as Pittsburgh, which had lost three of its last four games, overcame Mookie Blaylock's 37 points for a 99-91 upset of third-ranked Oklahoma.

Pitt, which had lost earlier to Siena and Duquesne, used career scoring highs by both Shorter and Brookin to end Oklahoma's 11-game winning streak. The loss was the first for the Sooners, 13-2, in the 12 games they have scored 90 or more points.

Shorter, a sophomore forward who sat out last season because of Proposition 48, had 22 first-half points as Pitt used a nine-point run — aided by a technical foul on Oklahoma coach Billy Tubbs — for a 55-49 halftime lead. Pitt, 8-6, scored only 57 points in its last game, a 76-57 loss to No. 7 Georgetown last Wednesday.

Louisville 67, Georgia Tech 65

Kenny Payne hit two 3-point baskets in the final 77 seconds, lifting ninth-ranked Louisville to a 67-65 victory over No. 19 Georgia Tech Sunday.

Payne's first 3-pointer, with 1:17 to play, gave the Cardinals a 63-62 lead; his second, with 44 seconds left, built a 66-64 advantage.

Pervis Ellison, who led the Cards with 20 points, hit a free throw four seconds from the end as Louisville 12-2, stretched its winning streak to 12 games.

Brian Oliver missed a 40-foot shot at the buzzer for Tech, 10-4, who lost to North Carolina State 82-68 Saturday.

Oliver had a chance to give Tech a tie with five seconds left, but missed one of two free throws, leaving Louisville with a 66-65 lead before Ellison's free throw.

Virginia 106, No. 8 North Carolina 83

Richard Morgan scored a career-high 39 points as Virginia trounced No. 8 North Carolina 106-83 Saturday in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
