Man still sought in sex crime case

By J.Frank Hernandez
Reporter

Crime Stoppers is looking for the suspect in the sexual assualt of an 18-year-old woman. The victim was assaulted between 5 and 7 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 20, 1988 in her home located near the intersection of Hwy. 30 and Munson Street in College Station.

The victim answered a knock on her door and allowed her assailant to use the phone. After doing so, he threatened her with a knife and sexually assualted her.

The suspect is described as a white male, 5 foot 11 inches tall, approximately 200 pounds, with blue eyes, reddish brown hair and a short growth beard and mustache speckled with gray.

He was wearing a blue ball cap with "USA" in red letters on the front, a light blue striped pullover, blue jeans and boots. A person matching the description was seen wandering in the area before the attack.

Crime Stoppers is looking for anyone with information regarding this crime. If you have any information, please call Crime Stoppers at 775-TIPS. When called, Crime Stoppers will issue a special coded number to protect the caller's identity.

If your call leads to an arrest and grand jury indictment, Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 in cash. Crime Stoppers also pays cash for information on any felony crime or wanted fugitive.

State workers may get $1.5 billion in raises

AUSTIN (AP) — A state senator hasproposed a $1.5 billion state employee pay raise, including an emergency 12 percent, across-the-board increase and further raises for 1990-91.

"Our state employees have bitten the bullet for too long, shouldering the burden of the state's budget," Sen. Gonzalo Barrientos, D-Austin, said Tuesday.

"Their salaries have not kept pace with inflation nor with increases in insurance premiums," he told a news conference. "Inflation and insurance have combined not only to reduce the purchasing power of our state employees' salaries, but have conspired to result in an actual pay cut."

With Barrientos were representatives of the Texas State Troopers Association, Texas Public Employees Association, Texas Game Wardens Association and Texas State Employees Union. State Reps. Parker McCollough, D-Georgetown; Bob Richardson, R-Austin; and Lena Guerrero, D-Austin; also appeared.

The proposed raise would apply to all state employees in Texas, numbering more than 200,000, Barrientos said.

Barrientos said he filed legislation authorizing the 12 percent emergency raise — with a $125 floor — and it would take effect March 1 if approved. He also pledged to work for additional 3.4 percent employee pay raises for state employees in each of the next two fiscal years.

The cost of the package would be $300 million this fiscal year, $600 million in 1990 and $600 million in 1991, he said.

Barrientos said he would keep his mind open to a tax increase, but he would look to fund the proposed raise in other ways. He said he would support a state lottery and noted that the comptroller also has deducted money from available revenue as a contingency for court cases.

"Keeping experienced, dedicated workers on the job for the people of Texas saves taxpayer dollars," Barrientos said. "It is an investment, not an expense. We cannot afford the expense of searching for, hiring and training new employees, and then losing them."

Inflation has been 20.8 percent since 1983, while pay raises for state employees have amounted to 12 percent, Barrientos said. He also said studies show private-sector employees are paid 17 percent to 39 percent more than state employees doing comparable jobs.

Suspect in shooting surrenders to police

McKINNEY (AP) — A suspect surrendered to authorities Tuesday afternoon in the fatal shooting of a woman who had come to a day care center to pick up her children.

Ricky Lynn Newman, 30, was accompanied by his attorney as he gave himself up to Collin County sheriff's officers without incident. Officers described him as the estranged husband of Laurie Lee Newman, who died Monday from a single gunshot wound.

"There was no problem," Sheriff's Lt. John Holton said of Newman's surrender. "He walked in and said, 'I'm Richard Newman. I understand you are looking for me.' We heard he would be here at 4 p.m. and he showed up at 4:15 p.m."

Authorities said Newman would probably be arraigned by Wednesday morning.

"He was very subdued. He has been very calm. He has not been saying very much. He has just kept his head down," sheriff's Lt. Bobby Clark said of the suspect.

Plano Municipal Court Judge Toni Baggett issued a murder warrant for Newman's arrest after Laurie Newman died. Pursued by the gunman, she had driven about five blocks from the shooting scene at La Petite Academy to a bowling alley. She was then taken to a hospital where she died of her wound.

Holton said Newman was being booked into Collin County Jail in lieu of $100,000 bond.

Before she died, Laurie Newman provided information about her assailant, Plano police said.

Jon Giddings, a police investigator and public information officer in the North Dallas suburb, said Laurie Newman, 25, of Richardson, was wounded Monday afternoon as she tried to pick up her two children. The gunman drove up in front of her, left his vehicle and fired a large-caliber handgun five times.

Laurie Newman drove to Plano Super Bowl, pursued by her attacker. After he fled, she was treated by Plano Fire Department personnel and then transferred to ACA Medical Center Plano where she died at 5:50 p.m. of a gunshot to her right side, said Giddings.

Officers were first called to the bowling alley to which she had driven about one-half mile from her attacker, Luis Benavides, the bowling alley manager, said.

"When she drove up, there were several customers and employees at the entrance who assisted her," Benavides said. "She evidently was shot at the day care center. She drove up, she got out on her own and said, 'Please help me. I've been shot.'

"I was working inside but went out when I heard all the commotion."

The gunman at the bowling lanes "evidently saw the crowd of people there and he took off," Benavides said.

He said an off-duty firefighter who was bowling at the center rendered aid to the woman as paramedics were called.

The slaying occurred six weeks after a similar shooting at a day-care center in Dallas resulted in the deaths of a Dallas woman and a Dallas County deputy sheriff who had driven her to the Day Place Development Child Center to drop off two of her children.

Loeffler gets appointment as UT regent

AUSTIN (AP) — Former Republican congressman Tom Loeffler, former state GOP chairman Chester Upham Jr. of Mineral Wells and Robert Cruikshank of Houston were named Tuesday to the University of Texas System Board of Regents.

Gov. Bill Clements named the three to replace Robert Baldwin III of Austin, Jess Hay of Dallas and Mario Yzaguirre of Brownsville. The three new appointees, subject to Senate confirmation, will serve terms ending Feb. 1, 1995.

"The management and leadership skills of these outstanding appointees will move higher education in Texas into a new era of excellence and accountability," Clements said.

Outgoing regent Baldwin was a close associate of former Democratic Gov. Mark White, who ousted Clements in 1982 and then lost to the Republican in 1986.

Dallas financier Hay, chairman of Lomas & Nettleton, has been a major Democratic Party fund-raiser.

Loeffler, 42, of Mason, is a senior partner in the law firm of McCamish, Martin, Brown & Loeffler. He served in the U.S. House from January 1979 through January 1987, and he was an unsuccessful GOP candidate for governor in 1986.
