

Frogs stay unbeaten in SWC

No. 2 Illinois, No. 4 Louisville get big victories

TCU 57, Texas Tech 56
John Lewis sunk both ends of a one-and-one with 21 seconds remaining as Texas Christian held off a late Texas Tech rally to win 57-56 at Lubbock on Sunday.

The win allowed TCU to stay on top of the Southwest Conference standings.

The win left the Horned Frogs at 13-5 and 6-0 in the SWC, while Tech fell to 6-10 and 1-4.

TCU led throughout the game but saw the Red Raiders whittle away at the margin during the second half. Tech's Todd Duncan made the score 54-55 on a 3-pointer with 50 seconds left.

Danny Hughes, who had been in a shooting slump, led the Horned Frogs with 15, while Reggie Smith added 10.

Mason's 20 points paced the Red Raiders, and Sean Gay had 12 before fouling out with 21 seconds left.

The Red Raiders shot 56 percent, the best shooting by a SWC opponent against TCU this season.

Texas Christian shot less than 44 percent from the floor en route to preserving its perfect conference road record.

Lewis had no doubts about his ability to save the game for the Horned Frogs in his hometown.

"All the players were saying, 'You can make 'em, John.' I told them not to sweat. I was going to make them," Lewis said.

Tech's efforts were hampered by 20 turnovers, while TCU had only 10.

Illinois 103, Georgia Tech 92
Kenny Battle scored 25 points Sunday as No. 2 Illinois rallied for a 103-92 double-overtime home victory over Georgia Tech and staked a claim to the No. 1 spot in college basketball.

The Illini, down by 14 at the half, outscored the Yellow Jackets 21-10 in the second overtime to stay unbeaten at 17-0, the best start in the school's history.

Georgia Tech, 11-5 and unranked, got 29 points from Dennis Scott and 20 from Tom Hammonds, but lost three starters to fouls in overtime.

Tech dominated the first half, taking a 45-31 lead, but the Illini stormed back into the game in the second half with strong defense and shooting.

Steve Bardo put Illinois ahead 70-69 on a 3-pointer with 3:22 left in regulation time, but Hammonds tied it, 74-74, on a basket with 30 seconds left and sent it into overtime.

Louisville 92, Nev.-Las Vegas 74
Pervis Ellison matched his career high of 28 points as No. 4 Louisville let a 23-point lead slip to five before recovering for a 92-74 victory over No. 10 Nevada-Las Vegas on Sunday at Louisville.

Louisville, 13-2, now owns the nation's second-longest winning streak with 13 in a row, while UNLV, 13-3, had its 11-game skein snapped. No. 2 Illinois has won 17 in a row.

A steal and dunk by Keith Williams with 14:40 left in the game gave Louisville its biggest lead, 59-36, before Las Vegas began its rally.

Stacey Augmon scored 12 points and Clint Rossum added eight as the Rebels outscored the Cardinals 25-7 over the next six minutes to pull within 66-61 at the 8:26 mark.

SWC hoops coaches still like Hogs near midpoint of season

The Rice Owls and Houston Cougars are elevating cliff-hanging finishes to an art form in the Southwest Conference basketball race.

The Owls beat the Texas Aggies 79-77 Saturday in the final four seconds and the Cougars beat Southern Methodist 84-83 on a free throw with no time remaining in overtime.

On Sunday, Texas Christian's John Lewis sank both ends of a one-and-one to give the Horned Frogs a 57-56 win over Texas Tech to stay on top of the league with a 6-0 mark.

"Our guys played hard. I can't complain about the way they played," said Tech Coach Gerald Myers, whose team fell to 1-4 in the league.

There was no late excitement for the Texas Longhorns or Baylor Bears.

Vanderbilt buried Texas 94-79, giving Commodore Coach

C.M. Newton his 500th victory as a coach.

The Arkansas Razorbacks extended Baylor's league winless streak to 0-5 with an 88-58 victory, aided by Mario Credit's 18 points and eight rebounds off the bench.

Rice sophomore David Willie's free throws with four seconds to play gave the Owls their second league victory.

"It's one we needed badly," Rice Coach Scott Thompson said. "We played a lot of games that could go either way."

Rice beat Texas Tech 79-74 in overtime and lost to Texas 66-65 when its final shot fell short earlier this season.

Texas beat the Cougars on a final shot, 88-86 Jan. 14 but Chris Morris gave the Cougars a happy ending Saturday against SMU.

With the score tied at 83-83 Morris missed a 12-foot jumper as the buzzer sounded but he was fouled by SMU's J.D. Green and sank a free throw for the victory.

"You really have to give credit to these kids," Houston Coach Foster said. "We've had enough of these one and two-point games this year."

Credit led Arkansas as the Razorbacks beat Baylor, boosting their record to 11-4 for the season and 5-1 in SWC play.

"That is the best team we have played all year," Baylor Coach Gene Iba said of Arkansas after Saturday's loss. "They are easily the most talented team in the league and they played that way."

Texas A&M Coach Shelby Metcalf still is picking Arkansas as the conference champion, but he has admiration for the Horned Frogs.

"I like Arkansas but TCU is playing great," Metcalf said. "I just can't see Arkansas losing a game in 'the hills.' They have a nice collection of athletes."
