Crisis Pregnancy Service offers support, education

Holly Beeson
STAFF WRITER

She's a pregnant teen-ager. She thinks her parents will reject her. She can't possibly raise a child. She needs to know her alternatives.

The Brazos Valley Crisis Pregnancy Service offers support, education and other services to pregnant women.

During the service's second annual Benefit Dinner and Auction at the Central Baptist Church in Bryan Saturday night, the Rev. Bill Putman, author of "Daddy, I'm Pregnant," and Kathi Hart, CPS spokesperson and entertainer, gave testimonials and advice to those faced with the problem of unwanted pregnancies.

Putman, father of five and a minister from Boise, Idaho, told how his family dealt with the pregnancy of his 14-year-old daughter.

He said the night he and his wife found out, their daughter entered their bedroom around 2 a.m. while they were asleep.

"She was crying," Putman said. "She said, 'Please don't hate me, but I'm pregnant.'"

He said they embraced their daughter and told her they didn't hate her, but loved her and forgave her. She decided to go in front of the church and tell the congregation of her pregnancy, Putman said.

"That began a wonderful time in our lives," he said. "Everyone was supportive and encouraging. It brought our whole family closer together."

Putman said there was only one thing wrong with his daughter before her pregnancy.

"She was not with the fellowship of the Lord," he said.

More than 200 people were at the benefit, including members of Aggies for Life and Campus Crusade for Christ. The audience was enthusiastic and went along with Putman's request to repeat his favorite Bible verse aloud three times.

In the verse, John 14:18, Jesus says, "I will not leave you desolate or alone: I will come to you."

Putman concluded his speech by saying, "Maybe the only picture we have of Jesus is in the Bible, but I believe that through this ministry and through Crisis Pregnancy Service we can have Jesus step out of the Bible and into people's hearts."

The benefit also presented a video of Kathi Hart singing "Love Waits." The National Christian Council has chosen it to be its national theme song, and Crisis Pregnancy Service across the country are using the video as a counseling tool on abortion.

"The song is the perfect picture of my mother when she was pregnant — when she was pregnant with me," she said. "My mother wanted an abortion, but luckily it was not easily obtainable."

Hart said she's glad the law now makes it easy for her mother to go through with that decision.

"We are where we are for a reason," she said. "Each of us planned project, and so are 4,000 or more babies that aborted everyday."

The director of BVCP, Bruegger, then discussed some of the center offers young women needing help.

"What we're there for is to meet the needs of these girls in any way we can," Bruegger said.

The BVCP offers free pregnancy tests and information on the options available to pregnant women.

"What we want to do in Crisis Pregnancy Service is to educate girls," Bruegger said, "and we're there to see them through."

The BVCP's telephone number is 823-CARE.

Horses need special care in winter

Horses usually can withstand a lot of cold, but they are not invincible. Making sure your horse gets the winter care he needs can insure a healthy horse all through the year.

First, make sure your horse gets annual vaccinations for rhinopneumonitis, Eastern and Western equine encephalomyelitis, equine influenza and tetanus.

Next, be sure to have his teeth checked so he can chew his food properly. This is a time he will need to burn more energy to stay warm, therefore you should increase his rations of food.

Also, one of the most important things to check is that your horse has a clean, dry, and well ventilated place to stay. A damp environment can lead to colds, coughs and viral infections. Poor ventilation can cause your horse respiratory diseases, such as pneumonia, if the stable is too hot or too tight.

Moist bedding can cause foot infection. If you don't have a barn, your horse should have at least a three-sided shelter, open on the downwind side.

When exercising your horse in cold weather, give him more time to warm up his muscles so he will be limber. Break any ice in his water bucket or trough. If possible, put a water heater in the trough.

Keep an eye out for early signs of sickness such as nasal drainage, coughing, and if detected contact your veterinarian immediately.

Jury selection begins in camp accident suits

KERRVILLE (AP) — Jury selection begins Monday in three civil suits filed in connection with the July 1987 church bus accident at a Guadalupe River church camp.

Ten Dallas-area teen-agers were swept away in the rain-swollen river as the bus and a van tried to flee the camp, located near Comfort. Rescuers plucked 33 others from the river's bank and from treetops.

Attorneys representing families who lost children in the incident will be seeking millions of dollars in damages for their clients from owners and operators of the Pot O' Gold Youth Camp.

The bus and van were taking the 43 members of the Seagoville Road Baptist Church of Balch Springs out of the camp when they were immobilized by a wall of water that swept down the river during an 11-inch rain.

Defendants in the suits are Pot O' Gold Youth Camp; Youth Camps Inc.; Huisache Avenue Baptist Church of San Antonio Inc.; the Rev. Claud J. Bonam, camp administrator; his wife Zeldia Bonam, the camp's cafeteria manager; and their son, Claud Bonam Jr.

The suits accuse the defendants of failing to adequately supervise the departure of the campers; failing to establish, maintain and enforce strict emergency camp safety and evacuation procedures; and failing to advise the campers' parents of the historical and commonly accepted flooding risk of the area.

Four hundred prospective jurors have been called to the Kerr County Courthouse for the trial before state District Judge V. Murray Jordan.

The trial is expected to last three weeks.

Attorney Mark Nakol of Dallas is seeking about $5 million on behalf of John and Rosie Bankston. Their son, 17-year-old John Bankston, is the only victim whose body has not been found.

Suits brought by William and Brenda Gossett, parents of flood victim Leslie Gossett, 14; and Jerry D. and Linda Smith, parents of flood victims Stacey Smith, 16, and Tonya Smith, 13, also will be heard.

Attorney David Glenn of Dallas, who represents both families, is seeking about $3 million in damages per victim, the San Antonio Express-News reported.
