Bundy admits to killings

Prisoner denied appeal, scheduled for electric chair

STARKE, Fla. (AP) — A tearful Ted Bundy, moving ever closer to the electric chair, tried to head off execution Sunday by at last confessing to some of the dozens of murders he is suspected of committing, authorities said.

Bundy, 42, will die at 7 a.m. Tuesday unless the U.S. Supreme Court stays the execution. The court denied a Bundy appeal just a week ago, as have all other courts he has turned to since Thursday.

Anthony Kennedy, who favors the death penalty, is the Supreme Court justice assigned to consider last-minute Florida death appeals. One justice may stay an execution pending review by the full court.

In talks with authorities over the weekend, Bundy, who grew up in Tacoma, Wash., confessed to killing at least eight young women in that state in 1974, said investigator Robert Keppel of the Washington attorney general's office.

Bundy also confessed to the 1975 slaying of Julie Cunningham, 26, a Vail, Colo., ski shop employee whose body was never found, Vail Police Chief Ken Hughey said.

Hughey said Bundy is convinced the only way he will get to heaven is to confess.

"He's attempting to purge himself," Colorado Attorney General Duane Woodard said. "It is part of his repenting."

"The man is trying to save his life," Keppel told KIRO-TV of Seattle in a telephone interview Saturday night from Florida. He added that Bundy was shaken and tearful as he responded to questions from investigators.

Bundy previously had not admitted to any slayings.

"Bundy is welcome to talk all he wants, but he better say it by Tuesday morning," said John Peck, press secretary to Florida Gov. Bob Martinez.

Bundy, scheduled to die for the 1978 kidnap-murder of 12-year-old

Kimberly Leach of Lake City, Fla., at one time was linked to as many as 36 killings and disappearances of young women in Washington, Colorado, Utah and other Western states. He was being questioned about the deaths of at least 24 women.

The law school dropout was visited Saturday by officials from Washington state and Colorado, said Paul Decker, assistant superintendent of Florida State Prison near Starke, the north-central Florida town where Bundy is held.

Former first couple settles in new home

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It isn't exactly 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, but Ronald and Nancy Reagan are settling right in at 668 Saint Cloud Road.

The Reagans moved here Friday from the White House after he completed an eight-year assignment in Washington as president of the United States.

Clusters of red, white and blue balloons and a "Welcome Ron and Nancy" sign remained up at one nearby house over the weekend, but otherwise the Reagans' new street looked like your average neighborhood of multimillion-dollar residences.

"Will he make a change?" Jeffrey Hyland, a real estate executive who lives near the Reagans, repeated the question to himself before answering. "Maybe for a couple of weeks," he said. "After that I think everything will be back to normal."

Small knots of tourists gathered along the narrow winding street from time to time over the weekend, hoping to catch a glimpse of the former president and first lady.

The Reagans' son, Ron, drove up in a red sports car and visited for about half an hour. While he was there, he and his parents appeared on a walkway that is visible from the road and waved.

Occasionally, tour vans stopped in front of the Reagans' place — a new stop on an established route that includes the homes of neighbors Zsa Zsa Gabor and Elizabeth Taylor.

Flowers were delivered for Mrs. Reagan. A Secret Service man came outside for a moment.

The Reagans continue to receive around-the-clock Secret Service protection.

Like all the streets in the fashionable hillside neighborhood called Bel-Air, Saint Cloud has no sidewalks — apparently part of an effort to protect its exclusivity when it was first laid out as a haven for blue bloods in the 1920s.

In a television interview broadcast on the CBS program "60 Minutes" on Jan. 15, Mrs. Reagan, looking ahead to life after the White House, said not being on the front pages would be "fine with me."

"I will not miss being under the microscope," she said.

Indeed, attention is already shifting to President Bush and his wife Barbara as they get settled in at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue and away from the Reagans as they get settled in on Saint Cloud Road.

"We have our share of rubbernecks, but we have always had them," Hyland said. "The novelty, I think, is going to very quickly wear off."

As for the Reagans, they said during the flight from Washington that they still have unpacking to do.

Solidarity welcomes negotiations

GDANSK, Poland (AP) — Solidarity on Sunday welcomed government's offer to negotiate legalizing the trade union movement and said talks should begin as soon as possible to end Poland's chronic economic and social ills.

A Solidarity statement, released after a nearly two-day meeting, clears the way for the first formal talks between Solidarity and authorities since a December 1981 military crackdown crushed the organization.

But Solidarity leader Lech Walesa cautioned, "I wish that there be no euphoria. Anything is possible.

"Is it true we will be solving Polish problems in a pluralistic free way? We will see very soon," he told about 5,000 people at Mass at St. Brygida's church in Gdansk.

Solidarity's National Executive Commission said it is willing to meet the government's conditions that it respect Polish law and to serve the statute that made Solidarity the East bloc's first and only legal, independent union in 1980.

The statement said that in agreeing to negotiate its legalization, the government has met the union's conditions for beginning reform talks authorities first proposed during serious labor unrest in August.

"We are responding, stretching out our hand because the other side stretched out its hand to us," Walesa said. "We are committed to agreement, but we have to maintain free and self-governing."

The Solidarity leader appeared happy at an impromptu news conference after Mass. A Solidarity pin adorned his lapel and his tie was clipped with a gift from George Bush during his visit to Poland in 1987.

After the Mass, about 1,000 people marched from the church chanting, "Solidarity! Solidarity! Legalize Solidarity!" Police stopped the march after a few blocks and the group disbanded peacefully.

Solidarity national spokesman Janusz Onyszkiewicz said cooperation between the union and government seems to be the only solution for the nation's chronic consumer shortages, mounting debt to the West and rising inflation.

The statement from the 23-member executive commission, adopted unanimously with one abstention, said: "We state that the possibility of negotiations concerning Solidarity and the matters of the country has been created."

"It is necessary to start negotiations as soon as possible," Walesa told reporters. Solidarity could be ready within two months to hold its first nationwide congress since 1981.
