

1989-90 UNDERGRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAM CALL FOR STUDENT RESEARCH PROPOSALS
ELEGIBILITY: Outstanding Juniors who have completed nine hours of Honors coursework before the fall semester begins and who have at least a 3.25 overall grade point average are DERGRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAM. This program is the most prestigious research opportunity available for undergraduates at Texas A&M, featuring a close, master-apprentice relationship between student researcher and faculty advisor. This provides an opportunity usually avalible only to graduate students.
TIME TABLE: An informal meeting concerning the 1989-90 Fellows Program, open to faculty as well as students, has been scheduled for 5:15 P.M. on February 22, 1989 in the MSC, room 226. Research proposals will be due March 23. Students admitted, will be notified during April's preregistration for fall courses.

For more information contact the University Honors Program, 101 Academic Building, 845-1957

ATTENTION

 STUDENT TEACHERSYOUR APPLICATIONS ARE DUE NOW! COME IN FOR OUR

RESUIME SITTING- $$ 12 .{ }^{95}$

* 4 proofs back in 2 hours * 6 color wallets * no appointment necessary * studios at both locations

May,August & Dec. SENIORS! the Centennial Ring Class of '89 needs

CLASS AGENTS

Qualifications & duties of persons to be elected to represent the Class of ' 89 for the next five years will be discussed at a meeting sponsored by the Association of Former Students Thursday, March 2 Alumni Center

Attendance is mandatory to seek election as a Class Agent.

Page 4 The Battalion Tuesday, February 14, 1989
Warped

by Scott McCullar

by Kevin Thomas
Waldo

End of A&M Regent's term leaves no minorities on Board

AUSTIN (AP) - The term of the only black on the all-male Texas A&M B Bard of Regents has expired, and aides to Gov. Bill Clements say the search for a suc. and aides to Gov. Bill Clements say the search for a successor and a second regent nominee includes several minorities and women.
"Certainly we have minorities and women under consideration,", James Huffines, director of appointments for Clements, said. "But we haven't made those decisions yet. I think we'll be making them in about two weeks," Huffines The six-year terms of Board Chairman David G. Eller and Dr. John B. Coleman, both of Houston, expired Feb. . Both were appointed in 1983 by Democrat Mark Whit. White.
Huffines said Clements' office is aware that eight of the 11 Hispanics serving on the state's 15 university joverning boards would leave office as a result of the proposed mergers of South Texas schools with the "Yes, we're concerned about that, and certainly we will take that into consideration when making appoint ments. I would look for more Hispanics to be represented on these other boards," he said. resented on these other boards," he said, The issue of minority representation governing boards flared this month after several state senators complained about Clements naming three white meft a nine-member panel composed entirely of white males. white males. Durings the controversy, Chester Upham Jr. of Mineral Wells, asked that his name be withdrawn sideration, and Clements nominated Mario Ramirez of Rio Grande City in his place.

AIDS victim sues on basis of partiality

AUSTIN (AP) - A state district court is scheduled to hear arguments Tuesday on whether people with the AIS sue for discrimination under rexas to law. The case could have an impact on thousands of people in Texas with thousands of people in Texas with AIDS-related conditions.
The Legislative Task Force The Legislative Task Force on AIDS concluded last year that discrimination against ATbS concluded last year that discrimination against such individuals is commonon throughou is common throughout the state and is increasing the financial impact of is increasing te acquired immune deficiency syndrome on local, tax-supported health health and human services.
The Austin hearing concerns the case of Gilbert Nieto, who sued the case of Gilbert Nieto, who sued the law firm of Clark, Thomas, Winters & Newton in 1988, contending the firm fired him from his job of two years as a yerm ired a paralegal after he was di-yeano agnosed with AIDS-related agnosed with AIDS-related complex in August 1987 . Barry Bishop, a partner in the firm, has said Nieto was fired for taking off from work against the instructions of his immediate Norto's lawsuit seeks reinstatesor Nieto's hawsuit seeks reinstatement to his job, restoration of his health insurance benefits, back pay health insurance benefits, back pay, attorneys' fees and an unspecified amount amount of damages for "severe mental and physical anguish." mental and physical anguish."
The case, set for jury trial in Aus tin on Feb. 27, would determine it tin on Febe. 27 , wourd determine if such a dismissal constitutes a violation of the Texas Commission on Human Rights Act, which bars enplomers from discrimination based on disability. ployers from.
on disability.
Tuesdays.
Tuesday's hearing is on a motion by the law firm seeking a summary judgment to dismiss bydge law to tirm seeking a summary judients suit.
The motion cites a 1987 . The motion cites a 1987 case, Chevron vs. Redmon, which narChevron vs. Redmon, which narrowly interpreted the state act to provide protection for disabled provide protection for disabled persons only if they are so severely dissons only if they are so severely disabled they could not work anyway. "We expect a ruling Tuesday on whether a person with AIDS or whether a person with AIDS or AIDS-related complex is handicapperd'ated complex is thand-statute," Phil Durst, Nieto's defined by said. Durst, Nieto's attorney based in part on a a 1987 opinion by the Texas attorney gerieral. The opinion said, "Persons dishandicaps perceived by their employers have standing ployers have standing. . .even if the person in fact is not handicapped." person in fact is not handicapped.
The Texas Human Rights Foundation is helping to pay Nieto's legal expenses.
expenses.
The foundation works on behalf of gay and lesbian concerns and against discrimination against peoagainst discrimination against peo ple with AIDS-related conditions.

