Streaking Sooners stay atop AP poll

ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Oklahoma on Monday became the first No. 1 team in five weeks to hold the top spot in The Associated Press college basketball poll.
 The Sooners did need some extra time, however, as they were taken to overtime before beating Kansas 94-89 last week. That and a victory over Colorado, also on the road, improved the Sooners to 23-3 and earned them 61 of the 65 first-place votes from the nationwide panel of sportswriters and broadcasters and 1,296 points.
 Meanwhile, two schools made their first-ever appearances in the poll.
 St. Mary's, Calif., 22-3, joined the Top Twenty at No. 19, while Ball State, 21-2, took the final spot in the rankings.
 Arizona, 20-3, held second, receiving two first-place votes and 1,224 points.
 Georgetown, 20-3, improved one place from last week with 1,146 points. Indiana, which beat Michigan at the buzzer in its only game last week, jumped from ninth to fourth.
 The Hoosiers, 21-5, received one first-place vote and 976 points, four more than North Carolina, 22-5.
 The Tar Heels, who jumped three places with two victories last week, were followed by Syracuse, which held the No. 6 spot, and Missouri, which dropped from third after losing at Iowa State last week.

 Syracuse, 22-5, split two games last week, losing to Georgetown and beating Providence. The Orange-men had 934 points, four more than Missouri, 22-5.
 Louisville, 18-5, and Duke, 19-4, each jumped two places from last week. The Cardinals moved to eighth with 852 points, while Duke had 810.
 Illinois, fifth last week, rounded out the Top Ten after losing 72-52 at Wisconsin. The Fighting Illini, 21-4, had 696 votes, 105 more than West Virginia, which led the Second Ten and holds the nation's current longest winning streak at 20 games.
 The Mountaineers were followed by Florida State, Michigan, Iowa, Seton Hall, Stanford, North Carolina State, Nevada-Las Vegas, St. Mary's and Ball State.
 St. Mary's is tied for first place in the West Coast Athletic Conference with Pepperdine. Only Pepperdine, Stanford and San Francisco have beaten the Gaels.
 Ball State holds first place in the Mid-American Conference and both the Cardinals' losses were in conference to Ohio University and Toledo.
 Ohio State and Louisiana State both dropped from the Top Twenty.

Lady Aggies take on struggling Rice tonight

By Stan Golaboff
 SPORTS WRITER
 The Texas A&M Lady Aggies will try to rebound from a one-point loss to Arkansas when they host Rice tonight in G. Rollie White Coliseum.
 The Lady Ags (15-8; 7-5 in the Southwest Conference) are coming off a 74-73 loss to Arkansas. Rice (11-12 overall and 3-10 in SWC) is coming off a 70-63 loss to SMU and are looking for their first road win of the year. Rice is 0-7 on the road.
 "Rice is a dangerous team," Head Coach Lynn Hickey said. "They have nothing to lose and we have to play loose to have a chance to win."
 Earlier this year, A&M rallied from a three-point deficit at halftime to beat Rice 71-65 in Houston.

Aggie netters host UTA

After taking some hard knocks in Florida last weekend, A&M's men's tennis team matches up with the University of Texas at Arlington at the Omar Smith Tennis Center at 1:30 p.m. today.
 The Aggies have been hindered by the loss of Steve Kennedy and Craig Whitteker to knee injuries.
 The Aggies dropped matches to Texas Christian, Miami and Duke over the weekend. A&M won only six of the 24 matches in Florida.
 Coach David Kent said the matches played in Florida would have been tough to win under any circumstances.
 "The injuries hurt us, but those were outstanding teams that we were facing," Kent said. "We would have had a tough time with them even if we were healthy."
 A&M is 0-4 on the season, losing their first match, with Trinity, before dropping the three in Florida. The match with UTA is A&M's first home match of the season and will be followed by two more in the homestand.

Price hits 27 as Cavs hammer Rockets

RICHFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Cavaliers weren't about to waste a rare appearance on network television.
 "We've played well all year and we finally got a chance to show the whole country what we can do," Mark Price said Monday after he scored 27 points in Cleveland's 110-90 victory over the Houston Rockets.
 It was the Cavaliers' first regular-season home game on national network television in 11 years. The game was shown by CBS.

"We don't get a chance to play on national TV very often, and especially not at home," said Price, who was 10-of-12 from the field, including 2-of-2 on 3-pointers, and 5-of-5 from the line.
 The victory was the Cavaliers' 18th straight at home and improved their NBA-leading record to 39-12.
 "That team is scary," said Rockets' coach Don Chaney, whose team beat Cleveland 106-105 in Houston Dec. 6. "They have tremendous size. That's the key to their defense. You may beat one guy, and the next guy either blocks the shot or intimidates you so you won't make it."

won whenever he got the ball.
 "That makes it tough inside," Olajuwon said. "They come at you from all angles."
 "Akeem had tough points, and that's a credit to Brad," Nance said. "Mike was coming over to double-team him, and then I was trying to get the blocks."
 Houston, 31-19, had a four-game winning streak stopped. It marked only the second time Cleveland has beaten Houston in their last 10 meetings.
 The Cavaliers led by eight at the half and gradually widened the margin to as many as 20 in the third quarter behind nine points by Daugherty in the period.

substitutes freely the rest of the way.
 Mike Woodson had 18 points for Houston. Daugherty scored 18. Harper had 16 and Nance 15 for Cleveland.
 The Cavaliers fell behind by five early but went on an 11-0 run to tie up 15-9 with seven minutes left in the first quarter. Nance had seven points during the spurt, which put Cleveland ahead to stay.
 Houston got within three on Olajuwon's dunk early in the second quarter, but Cleveland responded with a 14-point streak, spurred by Price 3-pointer, to take a 45-28 lead with eight minutes to play in the half.
 Woodson scored 11 points in the final 7:15 of the second quarter, help the Rockets close to 59-51 at half. Price had 14 points in the second quarter, including Cleveland's final eight before halftime.

Softball

 competitive against UTA, I think we will have a good year.
 "If we win two, that would be awesome, especially against a team like theirs."
 Brock will be relying on the older players for leadership through the early part of the season.
 "Tory Parks in the outfield is a key for us," Brock said. "She has given us very reliable play in her three years here and we are looking for more of it from her."
 A&M will also be relying on its reputation. A&M has won three national championships and finished second twice since 1982.
 "We have had an unbelievable run of great play the last eight years and this may be a down year for us," Brock said. "The girls don't think so. They think they are better than ninth, so who knows."
 If tradition has anything to do with it, A&M could win a fourth national championship.
