Aggie men's tennis team sweeps UTA

The Texas A&M men's tennis team got its first win of the season in fine style at home Tuesday with an impressive 9-0 victory over the University of Texas at Arlington. The victory gives A&M a 1-4 season record.

Aggie Tennis

- Score: A&M 9, UTA 0.
- Record: 1 win, 4 losses.
- Next match: Thursday vs. North Texas at the Omar Smith Tennis Center.

A&M's top seed Gustavo Espinosa had no trouble in defeating UTA's Joaquin Lopez, posting a 7-5, 7-5 victory, while Aggie second seed Shaun O'Donovan defeated UTA's Will Angus 6-7, 6-2, 6-4.

A&M third seed Matt Zisette cruised past Wally Devereaux of UTA, securing a 6-0, 6-2 win, while fourth seed A&M freshman Doug Brown was too much for UTA's Alex Olaya, posting a similar 6-0, 6-2 victory.

Fifth seed Blake Barsalou of A&M rallied after a first set loss to defeat Randy Comacho of UTA 2-6, 6-4, 7-6.

The return of junior captain Steve Kennedy to the lineup was a welcome sight for the injury plagued Aggies.

Kennedy, who had been out of action with a leg injury, entered the lineup in the sixth-seeded position and rounded out the singles victories with a 6-2, 7-6 win over UTA's Chris Janz.

In doubles action, A&M's top-seeded team of Zisette and O'Donovan defeated Angus and Janz of UTA 6-2, 7-5, while A&M's second-seeded team of Barsalou and Brown edged out UTA's Lopez and Olaya 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

Kennedy and Greg Dyer of A&M posted a 6-3, 7-6 victory over UTA's Devereaux and Comacho in third-seeded action.

A&M Head Coach David Kent said the return of Kennedy to the lineup helped the team.

"We needed this win to get back going," Kent said. "It was good to have Steve back in the lineup. He adds leadership and gives the younger players confidence."

Kent also said that Doug Brown has become one of the best finds of the year.

Gustavo Espinosa, A&M's top-seeded player, returns a shot during his victory over Texas-Arlington's Joaquin Lopez.

Williams

was no exception heading into the seventh as the Aggies were clinging to a 2-1 lead in a game in which the cold weather, not to mention 20-mile per hour winds, was expected to keep scoring to a minimum.

"When you have a north wind as hard as that was blowing you don't expect a lot of runs," A&M Head Coach Mark Johnson said.

Easley and Williams destroyed that theory in the big inning.

With one out, right fielder Andy Duke began the inning with a single to left and Easley scored him with his second home run of the year, a shot over the right field wall.

Left fielder Trey Witte walked and Williams scored him on an impressive drive into the teeth of the wind and over the left field wall to give A&M a 6-1 cushion.

Williams, who seemed a little surprised by the homer, said he knew the ball had a chance of leaving the park, but he wasn't sure if the wind would hold it in.

"I knew the wind was blowing pretty hard," Williams said. "I knew I hit it hard. I guess it just kinda sliced through the wind."

"We knew we just had to go out and not worry about the weather and do our best."

Zastoufil left the hill for the Bearkats and was replaced by Jim O'Neal who was greeted with more of the same.

Kirk Thompson singled to center field. He stole second and Terry Taylor walked. Thompson and Taylor, who had two runs batted in on the day, then worked a double steal and Thompson scored on a single to center by Chuck Knoblauch. John Byington's sacrifice fly to center scored Taylor to give A&M the 8-1 margin.

The Aggie winning streak has allowed Johnson to use most of his players and Williams said the team's attitude is improving with each win.

"The good start is really a good sign," Williams said. "We're all having fun and everybody's doing their job."

Revamped Aggies host struggling Owls tonight

Shelby Metcalf's Texas Aggies will attempt to extend their winning streak to five games tonight as they play host to the Rice Owls.

After going 1-7 in the first half of Southwest Conference play,

Texas A&M v. Rice

- What: Texas A&M (12-12; 5-7 in the SWC) hosts Rice (11-13; 5-8) in a Southwest Conference men's basketball game.
- When: 7:30 p.m.
- Where: G. Rollie White Coliseum.
- Radio: The game will be broadcast on KTAM-AM (1240) with Chuck Cooperstein doing the play-by-play and Duke Keith handling the color commentary.

The Aggies have turned their season around to post a 4-0 record in the first four games of the second half of conference play.

In the teams' first meeting in Houston, forward David Williams hit two free throws with four seconds remaining to lift Rice to a 79-77 win over the Aggies.

All five of A&M's starters scored in double figures led by guard Lynn Suber's 16 points.

Metcalf started eight different lineups until the Texas game when he settled on the combination of Donald Thompson and Ray Little at the forward positions, and a three guard attack featuring Tony Milton, Freddie Ricks and David Williams.

Only Thompson and Milton have started all 24 games this season for A&M.

Thompson is leading the Aggies with a scoring average of 16.7 points a game and rebounding.

Hogs have edge as SWC race heats up

ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Arkansas Razorbacks and Texas Longhorns are deadlocked for the Southwest Conference basketball lead going into Wednesday night's games but the Hogs can take a half-game lead with a victory over lowly Baylor.

While the Hogs host Baylor, Texas will be playing a non-conference game against Miami in Austin. The Aggies' 82-71 victory at College Station coupled with Texas' vital 84-82 victory over Texas Tech in Lubbock locked Arkansas and Texas in a 10-3 tie atop the SWC standings.

Arkansas would be the No. 1 seed in the post-season classic in Dallas if it is tied with Texas at the end of the regular season by virtue of two victories over the Longhorns.

Here's the schedule for Arkansas and Texas the rest of the way:
ARKANSAS — Baylor Feb. 22

(home), Tulsa (non-conference) Feb. 25 (home), Rice March 1 (away), Houston March 5 (home).

TEXAS — Miami Feb. 22 (home), TCU Feb. 25 (home), SMU Feb. 28 (away), Texas A&M March 4 (away).

Texas definitely has the toughest of the schedule with road games to SMU and Texas A&M.

In other games on Saturday, Rice beat SMU 67-65 behind freshman Dana Hardy's 35 points and Texas Christian regained its grip on the place with an 82-66 victory over Houston.

TCU is 8-5 while Houston and Tech are tied for fourth with 6-6 records. Texas A&M and SMU are each 5-7 while Rice is 5-8. Baylor is at hand during the tournament with a 1-11 record.

A&M's resurgence has been one of the big surprises of the season.

Softballers fall to UTA

The ninth-ranked Texas A&M softball team lost both games of a season-opening doubleheader to the University of Texas at Arlington, ranked No. 13, by scores of 5-3 and 2-0 Tuesday in Arlington.

A&M's Dana Mitchell pitched both games and was credited with the losses as A&M lost a season opener for the first time in this decade. It also marks the first time in the 1980s that an A&M softball team has given a run in a season-opening game.
