used to entice businesses to Killeen. Terrell Blodgett, a University of Texas professor who is conducting a management audit of the Killeenarea community college, said asked for help after reviewing hundreds of pages of college documents and interviewing about 60 AEC em-ployees, former employees and others connected with the college. The management consultant originally expected his study to take six weeks. But the review has stretched for three months and now is slated for completion by June 1. The college has agreed to pay UT $6,000 for Blodgett's services.

Blodgett was hired by the college Biodgett was hired by the conlege about three months ago after Hobby, Lewis and state Rep. Stan Schlueter, D-Killeen, agreed that the AEC's unusual structure and world-wide operations should be evaluated by a management expert in the wake
