Bill would stiffen penalties for unscrupulous lawyers

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Senate approved a bill Thursday that would stiffen penalties against attorneys who try to solicit business in an unscrupulous manner during a crisis situation.

Sen. Hector Uribe said his bill was a response to complaints about attorneys after the July 7 roof collapse of a three-story department store in Brownsville that killed 14 people and injured 47 others. The collapse occurred under the weight of rainfall trapped on the roof.

Uribe, D-Brownsville, said lawyers descended on the families of victims like "a horde of locusts."

Some attorneys or their "runners" impersonated priests and Red Cross officials to try and drum up business, Uribe said.

"These lawyers exploited this very tragic event," he said. "Lawyers should not take advantage of individuals at a time when they are grieving or injured."

The bill would increase penalties against attorneys or their representatives who try to solicit business at a hospital, funeral parlor, cemetery or accident scene, or impersonate a clergyman, emergency worker or public employee.

Penalties would range from a possible jail term of one year and $2,000 fine, or both, to a possible fine of $5,000 and maximum prison term of 10 years.

The bill was approved on a voice vote and sent to the House.

In other business, the Senate approved measures that would:

- Change procedures in handling disputed tax funds that will add about $168 million to state coffers over the next two fiscal years, according to an analysis by the Legislative Budget Board.

- The bill by Sen. Kent Caperton, D-Bryan, would allow the state comptroller to delay refunds from tax lawsuits to the beginning of the two-year budget cycle following the date of a final court judgment.

- Lawmakers have been complaining of the large amount of tax dollars unavailable for appropriation because of pending litigation in an early revenue estimate given to the Legislature, nearly $2.1 billion was reserved because of lost cases or potential losses from tax litigation.

Restaurant Report

By Mia B. Moody

REPORTER

The restaurants listed below were inspected by the Brazos County Health Department Monday through Wednesday. Information is taken from a food service establishment inspection report.

SCORED BETWEEN 95 AND 100:

TCBY at 404 University Dr. was inspected by David

Plett. Score — 99. One point was deducted because hair restraints weren't used by employees with long hair.

Archie's Hamburgers at 918 Harvey Road was inspected by David Plett. Score — 99. One point was deducted because the ice scoop handle was in ice.

Pie Are Square at Texas A&M was inspected by David Plett. Score — 96. Four points were deducted because hand sinks didn't have hot and cold water faucets turned on.

David Jefferson, a registered sanitarian at the department, says restaurants with scores of 95 or above generally have excellent operations and facilities. He says restaurants with scores in the 70s or low 80s usually have serious violations in the health report.

Scores can be misleading, Jefferson says, because restaurants can get the same score by having several minor violations or a few major violations. He says the minor violations can be corrected during the inspection. Point deductions or violations in the report range from one point (minor violations) to five points (major violations).

Jefferson says the department might close a restaurant if the score is below 60, the personnel have infectious diseases, the restaurant lacks adequate refrigeration, there is a sewage backup in the building or the restaurant has a complete lack of sanitization for the food equipment.

The department inspects each restaurant every six months. Jefferson says a follow-up inspection is sometimes required if a restaurant has a four- or five-point violation that cannot be corrected during the inspection, or if there are numerous small violations.

Inspectors at the department are registered sanitarians.

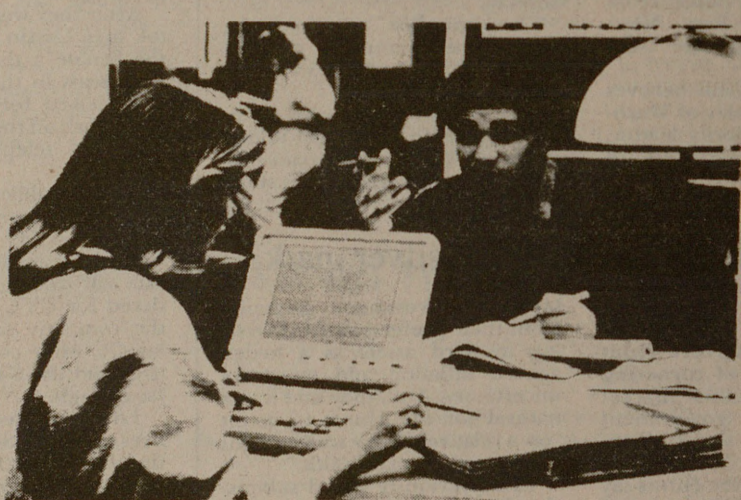

House OKs bill to let doctors test patients for AIDS

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas House on Thursday tentatively approved a bill that would allow doctors and hospitals to administer AIDS tests without specific consent from the patient.

The bill by Rep. Billy Clemons, D-Pollock, would modify 1987 legislation requiring special consent for AIDS testing.

Under Clemons' bill, patients could be asked to sign a specific consent form for AIDS testing or they could be tested by signing a general consent form for medical tests, which would not specify AIDS testing.

After lengthy debate and a defeated motion to table the measure, House members passed it in a non-record vote. Another vote is required for final passage.
