ASTROS 12, PHILLIES 4
In Philadelphia, Glenn Davis hit a two-run homer and an RBI single, and Kevin Bass was 4-for-5 and scored two runs as the Houston Astros routed the Philadelphia Phillies 12-4.
Bill Doran had three hits and three RBIs in Houston's biggest output of the season. The loss was the Phillies' sixth in their last eight games.
Jim Deshaies, 3-2, gave up nine hits while striking out three and walking three in eight innings. Juan Agosto worked the ninth.
The Astros scored four times in the second, knocking out starter Floyd Youmans, 1-3.
EXPOS 6, REDS 4
In Montreal, Otis Nixon's two-out RBI single broke a 3-3 tie and sent the Montreal Expos to a 6-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.
Spike Owen doubled just inside the first base bag off reliever Kent Tekulve, 0-1, to start the decisive rally. Nixon then singled to right and came all the way home on Tim Raines' single.
Raines went to second on the throw home and came in on Tom Foley's single, making it 6-3.
Ken Griffey homered in the ninth for Cincinnati.
The Reds, held to four hits through seven innings by rookie

METS 7, BRAVES 1
In Atlanta, Bob Ojeda pitched a five-hitter through eight innings for his first victory since nearly severing his left middle finger last September, as the New York Mets beat the struggling Atlanta Braves 7-1.
It was the eighth victory in nine games for the Mets and the eighth loss in a row for the Braves.
Ojeda, 1-3, almost severed the upper portion of the finger on his pitching hand with an electric hedgeclipper last Sept. 21. He got off to a rough start this season and had a 6.38 ERA entering the game.
Ojeda, who also had two singles, fanned two and walked one. Don Aase pitched the ninth.
Darryl Strawberry gave the Mets a 2-0 lead in the first inning with his sixth homer. It came on a 3-2 pitch from Pete Smith, 0-4. The Mets added three runs in the third on an RBI double by Kevin McReynolds and a two-run single by Gregg Jeffries.

ROYALS 5, YANKEES 3
In New York, Luis de los Santos hit a two-run, go-ahead single in the seventh inning and Mark Gubicza pitched a six-hitter, leading Kansas City past New York 5-3 for the Royals' fourth straight victory.
De los Santos, playing in his first game of the season since his week-end recall from the minors, singled to left after Tommy John, 2-4, loaded the bases. It snapped New York's four-game winning streak and gave the Royals their ninth victory in 11 games.
Gubicza, 2-2, struck out six and walked none in his second consecutive complete game, both against the Yankees.
John allowed 10 hits in 6 1/3 innings, the third time in six starts he gave up 10 or more hits.
ORIOLES 4, ANGELS 3
In Baltimore, Jim Traber's sacrifice fly in the ninth inning gave the Baltimore Orioles a 4-3 victory over California, snapping the Angels' five-game winning streak.
Brady Anderson led off the ninth with a double off reliever Willie Fraser, 0-2. After Phil Bradley sacrificed Anderson to third, Joe Orsulak and Cal Ripken were intentionally walked to load the bases. Traber batted for Randy Milligan, and after fouling off several pitches, lifted a fly ball to the edge of the warning track in right field.
Greg Olson, 3-0, got the victory in relief of Jose Bautista. Olson pitched two innings, allowing one hit.
RED SOX 4, TWINS 2
In Minneapolis, Ellis Burks hit a three-run homer in a four-run eighth inning to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 4-2 victory over Minnesota, handing the Twins their ninth loss in 10 games.
Burks' homer off reliever Jeff Reardon negated a strong performance by Minnesota starter Fred Toliver, who carried a no-hitter for 5 2/3 innings.
Rich Gedman began the decisive

American League

WHITE SOX 6, BREWERS 1
In Chicago, Ron Kittle and Ivan Calderon hit two-run homers as Chicago ended Chris Bosio's four-game winning streak by beating Milwaukee 6-1, handing the Brewers their fifth straight loss.
Bosio, 4-1, gave up 12 hits in 7 1/3 innings. He remained winless lifetime against Chicago, falling to 0-5.
The victory enabled the White Sox to sweep the two-game series at Comiskey Park, where Chicago had not swept Milwaukee since 1981.
Milwaukee has scored only five runs in its losing streak.
Eric King, 2-3, gave up five hits, including a run-scoring single to Robin Yount in the first inning, while walking seven and striking out three in eight-plus innings. The run ended a string of 25 straight scoreless innings for Milwaukee.
ATHLETICS 8, BLUE JAYS 5
In Toronto, Mark McGwire hit a grand slam with two outs in the ninth inning off reliever Tom Henke to give the Oakland Athletics an 8-5 victory over the Toronto Blue Jays.
Reliever Duane Ward, 1-4, struck out the first two batters in the ninth and then allowed singles to Luis Polonia and Dave Henderson.
Henke relieved and walked Dave Parker to load the bases and McGwire followed with his sixth homer of the season and second career grand slam.
Rick Honeycutt, 1-0, pitched 2 2/3 innings and Eric Plunk got the last out for his first save.

Rose not part of poster of minor league greats

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Cincinnati Reds manager Pete Rose is one of the most famous alumni of the New York-Penn League. But his face is nowhere to be found on a poster commemorating the Class A league's 50th anniversary.
Wade Boggs and Jim Rice are among the 18 other former league players displayed, and so are Maury Wills and Warren Spahn of another era. But not Rose, who began his professional career with the league's franchise in Geneva, N.Y.
Rose is under investigation by the commissioner's office for "serious allegations" reportedly having to do with alleged gambling improprieties, but neither the league nor the bank sponsoring the poster would say if that is why he didn't make the poster.
"I can't comment on any of the reasons why the decision was made," said Charles Lynch, an attorney for the league which is based in Auburn, N.Y.
A spokeswoman for Buffalo-based Marine Midland Bank, which sponsored the promotion, said she wasn't aware of the reason why Rose was snubbed because she wasn't involved in the decision.
Judith Nolan said the probe by the commissioner's office "possibly" had bearing on why Rose was left off the poster.
Both Nolan and Lynch said the decision to exclude Rose was one made by both the bank and the league.
She denied a report in Monday's USA Today that quoted league president Leo Pinckney as saying it was the bank's decision not to have Rose on the poster.
