Not all MBA's are created equal.

Graduating from one of the better business schools can give you a competitive edge. And with twice as many people getting their MBA's today as 10 years ago, every advantage counts.

It's no surprise that enrollment in Kaplan's GMAT prep course has more than quadrupled in those 10 years. Students come to Kaplan to increase their scores. And better scores mean better chances for getting into the school of your choice.

As a bonus, with Kaplan's GMAT prep, you'll receive refresher math lessons and business school admissions information.

So call Kaplan. In the business of business school prep, we have no equal.

Aggie Players present 'Dear Liar' in Rudder

The Aggie Players will present "Dear Liar," a George Bernard Shaw play, tonight at 8 p.m. in Rudder Forum.

Performances will also be given Friday and Saturday nights at 8.

The play revolves around love letters written between Shaw and Mrs. Patrick Campbell over a 40-year period.

The two-member cast features Scott Kelly, assistant general counsel with the Texas A&M University System Office of General Counsel, as Shaw. Playing Campbell will be Emma Reading, an A&M theater graduate.

Tickets for "Dear Liar" are $4 for students and senior citizens and $6 for the general public. They may be purchased in the MSC Box Office.

ROAD TRIPS

Circus clown and showgirl auditions today

Anyone who has ever dreamed of running off and joining the circus may make his or her wish come true, as the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus will hold showgirl and Clown College auditions today at 4 p.m. at the Summit in Houston.

While prior experience in clowning is not necessary for admission to the school, those hoping to attend are evaluated for evidence of motivation, desire to be a clown, quick physical reactions, timing sense and improvisational ability. Applicants to the tuition-free Clown College must be 17 years or older.

Those accepted will attend the ten-week course in Venice, Florida, where they will take courses such as makeup, costume construction and performance arts.

Top Clown College graduates are awarded contracts to become clowns in the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ladies who would like to audition to be a circus showgirl should have a strong background in dance—one which preferably includes jazz, modern and ballet.

Showgirl applicants must be 18 years or older, a high school graduate and be available to travel. Personality, appearance, weight and ability to learn routines are considered important.

For additional information, call the Summit information line at (713) 961-9003. The Summit is located on Hwy 59 South just inside Loop 610.
