HELP WANTED

Immediate Openings

We need 20 cooks & 50 drivers. Apply in person at any Bryan-/College Station Pizza Hut.

BATTALION CIRCULATION

The Battalion has immediate part time openings in the circulation department. Students interested in applying should call 845-2697 and leave their names and telephone num-

MGM LAWN CARE seeking sales representatives in new accounts department. Work your own hours. Bry-an/College Station residential areas. Call Joel Petrazio, 693-8213.

THE GRAPEVINE RESTAURANT is looking for part-time help. Please call 696-3411 for an appointment. Ask for Patsy. 183t08/04

BABYSITTER WANTED, mornings, 8/15-8/24. $3.25/hr. In my home. 693-0738. 182t08/04

SERVICES

SKIN INFECTION STUDY

G & S Studies, Inc. is participating in a study on acute skin infection. If you have one of the following conditions call G & S Studies. Eligible volunteers

* infected blisters * infected scrapes
* infected boils * infected scrapes

* infected hisect bites ("road rash")

G & S Studies, Inc. (close to campus) 846-5933

PATELLAR TENDONITIS (JUMPER'S KNEE)

Patients needed with patellar tendonitis (pain at base of knee cap) to participate in a research study to evaluate a new topical (rub on) anti-inflammatory gel. Previous diagnoses welcome. Eligible volunteers will be compensated. G & S Studies, Inc. (close to campus) 846-5933

ON THE DOUBLE Professional Word Processing, laser jet printing. Papers, resume, merge letters. Rush services. 846-3755.

Experienced librarian will do library research for you. Call 272-3348

TYPING- WORD PROCESSING- Personal Attention-Excellent Service- Professional Results- 764-2931 170t08/10

FOR RENT

Cotton Village Apts. Snook, TX.

1 Bdrm. $200., 2 Bdrm. $248. Rental assistance available! Call 846-8878 or 774-0773 after 5pm.

CASA BLANCA APARTMENTS: 2 bdrm, furn. & unfurn. units, SPECIAL PRIVATE BEDROOM DORM PLAN. 4110 College Main. 846-1413, 846-9196.

NO UTILITY DEPOSIT, 4-FLOOR PLANS TO CHOOSE FROM, CLUB HOUSE, POOL, TENNIS, LAUNDRY FACILITIES, SHUTTLE BUS, 24 HR. ON SITE MAINT, STARTING AT $251, CALL, NOW 693-6505.

2 B/1 1 2 b, Pecan Knoll 4-plexes, 5 min, from A&M. Options: fireplace, fenced, w/d conn., xtra storage. Now preleasing. Wyndham 846-4384.

Rent $160-$200 with a $200 deposit. Brazos Duplexes, 779-3003.

ROOMMATE WANTED

Wanted: 1 or 2 girl roommates to share a 2 Bdrm/2 Bath apt. Call Karen after 6:00 p.m. 512-682-8643. 177t08/16

NOTICE

WE BUY-sell good used furniture. Bargain Place Across from Chicken Oil. 846-2429. 181t08/31

FOR SALE

GMAT Instructors needed for a wel paid, part-time teaching position. Requirements: 650 or better on the GMAT. Some teaching or tutorial experience helpful. Call Barbara at 696-3196. 178t

'88 Honda Scooter Aqua. Call Collect (915)597-1698 $475, negotiable. 179t08/16

MULTI-FAMILY garage sale. Saturday 8am-noon. Married students apartments across from Skaggs. 181t08/04

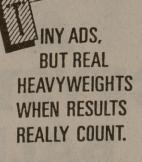

CHILD CARE

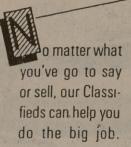

REGISTERED CHILDCARE in my home, any age Mon-Fri, weekends 693-2190 180t08/13

WANTED

WANTED: DRIVER to Galveston and back, Satur days, on a regular basis. Will pay all expenses. Call Car olyn M. 846-7934 or 845-8850. 181t08/09

Battalion Classified 845-2611

settle 'Thin Blue Line' suit

HOUSTON (AP) — Former tice system for 12 years Mr. Adams death row inmate Randall Dale Adshould not have been required to be ams and "The Thin Blue Line" a prisoner of Errol Morris for life," filmmaker Errol Morris settled a lawsuit in which Adams demanded the rights to his life story, attorneys statement from the Cambridge, said Thursday.

ing a Dallas police officer was ques-tioned in Morris' film, will receive As part of the agreement, Morri

Adams, now living in Ohio, sued the lawsuit.

Morris in Houston District Court "Nothing June 22 for rights to the story, which tragedy of what happened to Randepicted his account of his arrest dall Adams in Dallas in 1976 and in depicted his account of his arrest and conviction for the murder of a Dallas officer Robert Wood.

Both sides expressed relief over the settlement Thursday, and each blamed the other for what they termed an unnecessary legal action "I'm pleased that we were able to settle this, but I'm not pleased with the way it had to come about. It

Schaffer said. 'After being a prisoner of the jus-

Louisiana sells two airplanes for $1.2 million

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) Two airplanes that once provided transportation for Louisiana's governor and were criticized as wasteful by Gov. Buddy Roemer during his campaign were sold Wednesday for nearly $1.2 million.

Austin Jet of Texas bought one of the King Airs for $558,817, while Air Supply Service of Miami pur-chased the other for $551,000, Commissioner of Administration Dennis Stine said.

They had been grounded for over a year at the insistence of Gov. Roemer," Stine said.

During his 1987 campaign, Roemer often criticized the number of state-owned airplanes as the "Louisiana Air Force," and pointed to them as an example of government waste. The sales leave the state with lier this year, legislators criticized the Roemer administration for not elim-police, wildlife officials and the state forestry service for such service functions as patrol duty. About 17 are owned by state universities which charge students for flight training, Morris agency to represent him in those matters," Schaffer said.

Schaffer said.

Mass. filmmaker, in which he said he Adams, whose conviction of kill- had agreed to return the book and

As part of the agreement, Morris full rights to any commercial movies or books about his life, according to the settlement. Charges against Adams were later dismissed.

Adams dropped his demand that he be paid $60,000 for "The Thin Blue Line," although Schaffer said Thursday that was never part of

"Nothing can erase the terrible his subsequent 13 years of imprison-ment," Morris said. "It is my hope that both of us can now return to our lives and that we can put this lawsuit behind us."

The case was transferred to U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes' court June 30, and settlement negotiations continued for about a month before all parties completed signing the never should have gone to liti-gation," Adams' attorney, Randy agreement Wednesday, attorneys said.

Adams was freed from state prison in March after an appeals court overturned Adams' conviction earlier this year, and Dallas County prosecutors declined to retry him. The former inmate's lawsuit asked for a judgment on who owned the rights to his life story. A written agreement between Adams and Morris said that Adams was owed $10 if Morris produced a documentary about Adams, or $60,000 and 2 percent of profits if a commercial film was produced.

Schaffer had contended that "The Thin Blue Line," although produced in a documentary style, was actually a commercial film. The film was released in commercial theaters around the country.
"I was unwilling to pay money to Adams for "The Thin Blue Line," a documentary motion picture for which I received no profits and for which I am still approximately $100,000 in debt," Morris said in his Thursday statement. "I am relieved that this lawsuit has been settled," Morris said. "In my opinion, it was unnecessary and un-called for. It has never been my intention to deprive Randall Adams of the opportunity to make money from his life story. Schaffer said the lawsuit became about 45 airplanes, Stine said. Ear- necessary because Morris refused to yield rights to Adams despite attempts at a friendly resolution.

But Stine said the remaining air-letters of inquiry from filmmakers planes are being used mostly by state and writers interested in his story, and those materials were packaged and mailed to him Thursday, Schaffer said.

"He has retained the William

WHAT'S UP

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS: will meet at noon. For more information contact

HINDU SOCIETY: will meet at 7:30 p.m. in Rooms 230 and 231 of the MSC. For more information contact Amiya Ghatak-Roy at 846-4519.

Monday

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS: will meet at noon. For more information contact

CATHOLIC STUDENTS ASSOCIATION: will meet at 8 p.m. at St. Mary's Student Center for Movie Night.

Tuesday

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SYSTEM ASSOCIATION OF PROFESSIONAL SUPPORT STAFF: will meet at noon in Room 231 of the MSC to listen to Joe M. Burt, Director of Medical Services at Sam Houston State University, speak about AIDS. For more information contact Peggy Ritchey at 845-5311.

BRAZOS VALLEY BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMANS CLUB: will meet at 6:30 p.m. at K-Bob's Restaurant. All those interested may attend for more information contact Beth at 846-6943 or Susan at 846-2038.

Items for What's Up should be submitted to The Battalion, 216 Reed McDonals no later than three business days before the desired run date. We only publish the name and phone number of the contact if you ask us to do so. What's Ups a Battalion service that lists non-profit events and activities. Submissions are no na first-come, first-served basis. There is no guarantee an entry will run. If you have questions, call the newsroom at 845-3315.

In Advance

Researcher will present AIDS facts at MSC Services at Sam Houston State University, who has been in-volved in AIDS research.

The Texas A&M University System Association of Profes-sional Support Staff will sponsor a factual presentation about AIDS that will include a short film and a question and answer session. The featured speaker is Joe M. Burt, Director of Medical Burt will speak Tuesday at noon in 231 MSC. The public is encouraged to attend. For more information, please contact Peggy Ritchey at 845-5311.

Faculty member to speak at Y.O.U. Program Dr. Alan Letton, assistant professor in mechanical engineering, will speak at the final assembly of the Youth Opportunities Unlimited (Y.O.U.) Program Sunday at 6:30 p.m. in Heldenfels 100.

Y.O.U., designed to focus on high school students at risk of dropping out of school, is a program that helps teenagers develop career-orientated goals, D. H. Seastrunk, Y.O.U. headmaster, said.

The national program was created in the 1970s and Texas has participated in it since 1984. Seasstill participate in the program. Seastrunk said 18 state univer-trunk said at least 3 other states sities take part in the program.

The eight-week program brought 123 high school students from Houston and East Texas to Texas A&M this year. These 14 and 15-year old students, design

tered

itors. "Th

nated as potential high school dropouts, take English and mat courses while earning minimu wage for jobs they have on campus. Each passing grade they receive gives them a half credit to ward their high school graduation.
"These kids are getting credit toward graduation and accum-late some money while they're here at A&M, but the program also does much more," Seastrunk

Sheet-metal worker develops Vidtron, makes millions from drive-in video store agreements already sold include promises to open about 400 stores, which would bring $1.2

The idea behind Vidtron was hatched one eve-

CLEBURNE (AP) - Michael Grozier went to during the next few weeks, and franchise his local video store to rent the latest hot movie. What he got was an idea that turned the 28-year-old former sheet-metal worker into a millionaire. His Vidtron Inc. drive-in video rental stores in parking lots across the nation feed off the frustrations of customers who can't find the current top hits at nearby, larger video stores.

"What I wanted to try and create was that opinited again, unable to rent a newly released vi-

"What I wanted to try and create was that Golden Arches, the big V in the sky," Grozier said. "My goal, I guess, is to do to video what McDonald's did to hamburgers." With only four stores open, Vidtron has a long way to go before becoming McDonald's, but it's growing rapidly. Grozier has sold franchise rights for 21 of 60 regions and got $800,000 this year for California deotape because all the copies were gone.

million in fees. His goal is 500 stores by 1991.

"They were always out," Grozier said. "It gets frustrating, you know. . . . My wife and I went to Dairy Queen, had a hamburger, and while I was sitting there I said, 'You know, somebody ought to have a video store that just carries the top 40 movies, and it ought to be a drive-through be-cause you wouldn't need all that space like you one.

have in a traditional walk-in store . . . just drive in Stores are scheduled to open in several cities and get a video and drive on home."

Grozier didn't really intend to be that some body, but with his wife's urging, he paid $250 for a kiosk once used by a drive-in photo develope spent $40 on signs, plunked down most of hi $5,000 life savings for videotapes and opened Vidtron in April 1986.

"I put it right across the street from that video store that was always out, with the idea that they'll go in, can't get what they want there and then they'll see my sign across the street."

A few months later Grozier brought in $400 on a Saturday night. It cost him about $80 a day to run the store.

"I had a profit of a little over $300, which is more than I made all week doing sheet med work," he said. "So that convinced me that I'm going to give up the sheet metal work.'

Lubbock sock manufacturer finds popularity, success internationally

LUBBOCK (AP) — In Japan, where the only familiar words an American might hear are "Sony" and "Mitsubishi," there's a new appellation: Oak Creek.

Coined in Lubbock by Cal and Susan Brints, Oak Creek is the name for a Lubbock company that produces fashion and athletic socks for accounts ranging from Caesar's Palace in Nevada to the Sony Corp. in Ja-

Specialty fashion shops, J.C. Penney and a nation-wide confederation of mercantile stores also appear on the firm's 1,600-plus client roster.

Athletes from the high school, university and professional levels are among the wearers of the sports footwear and headbands produced by Oak Creek Products Inc. in its plant at 505 32nd St. They include baseball, basketball, football, soccer and rugby players.

The company began full production early this year after a limited production start-up began on Dec. 1, 1988, according to the Brintses, who are eight-year veterans of the textile manufacturing industry.

"We had wanted to locate a plant in this area for some time," Brints said. "We did some planning, then got in contact with the Chamber of Commerce." He credits the chamber with providing the necessary information, services and some incentive funding for renovating a suitable building. "If it hadn't been for them, we wouldn't be in Lubbock," he said. A major portion of the financing for the operation was handled through investors, according to the Brints.

The Brintses earlier built Texas Knitting Inc., a fa-

We have manufacturer representatives that handle the contact with the individual stores," Brints said. Oak Creek, which utilizes a network of sales representatives to span the nation from coast to coast, also has won approved-vendor status to supply hosiery to

The company builds the socks from design to the pressing of the finished product. But to supply growing orders, the firm also buys basic socks from large knitting mills and brings them to Lubbock to be finished.

Oak Creek is just one of the company's labels. "We do private labeling also for the customers," Susan Brints said. "Right now, we are shipping the Hobie label. We produce the socks for Caesar's Palace, and all the Cae-

One of the company socks has a design patent. "We have the exclusive distribution of it," Brints said. "It has a cotton foot and Orlon top. It will sell for about $7.50 or $8 per pair retail.'

Another sock designed this year by Susan Brints features a fashionable bow on one side and has proven to be popular in both Japan and the United States. "Socks have become a fashion item now," she said.
"They are not purchased just for wear, they have become a statement in themselves, especially with the Oak Creek uses cotton for a portion of its products. "There are a lot of requests for a dress sock which has a cotton foot," Susan said

Report: College overtaxed citizen by $5 million

AUSTIN (AP) — The American Educational Complex in Killeen overcharged more than $ million in property taxes in the past 18 years, according to Thursday report recommending a financial overhaul of the col lege.

The taxes were collected for bond payments but used for un authorized expenses, such short-term notes and loans "which were being used to short up unprofitable military con-tracts," according to a manage-ment study by Terrell Blodgett at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs Public Affairs.

The sinking fund levy will not continue in the fall, because the bonds were retired in May after the matter was brought to the attention of Chancellor James R Anderson, said the study

The report calls for the chancellor to correct current financial problems at the school.

$50 $50 $50 $50 $50 $50 $50 $50

But

joking

season

Day

315 po