White could begin career in Greece

SALONICA, Greece (AP) — PAOK Salonica was guardedly optimistic Tuesday that Randy White, the Dallas Mavericks' No. 1 draft pick, would begin his professional basketball career with the Greek team.

"He'd have to be very naive to turn down PAOK for the Mavericks," said the team's press officer, Plato Thoropoulos. "In effect we have offered Randy 2 1/2 times what the Mavericks have. That's why we're guardedly optimistic."

The 6-7 power forward, who played college ball at Louisiana Tech, left suddenly for the United States on Monday after spending the weekend in Greece negotiating with the team.

But before he departed Monday afternoon, White told a Salonica television interviewer that he was 65 percent certain that he would accept the Greek team's offer.

Thoropoulos contacted White's mother in Dallas on Tuesday and he said she upped the percentage. He quoted her as saying her son was "70-80 percent" sure he would play for PAOK, despite "the fact that he'd been talking with the Mavericks since his arrival."

PAOK president Nikos Vezirtzis told White on Monday that White has until Wednesday morning to reply to his team's offer.

The player was offered $1.3 million for one year, a condominium with luxury furnishings and several other perks during meetings with the Greek team's management.

"We could put all the money up front if he wanted it, and he wouldn't be taxed the way he would be in the NBA," Thoropoulos said in a telephone interview.

"What's more, he would be playing with one of the two best Greek teams and with three international players" he said. "And he would be the most expensive player in any European team."

A report in the daily Ethnos newspaper Tuesday said that White promised Vezirtzis that he would sign a contract on Monday afternoon but that after a telephone call to his manager he decided to return to the United States.

Mrs. White told Thoropoulos that Randy had returned home because he is very close to her.

"When I told her that PAOK would like to have her come live in Greece with her son, she expressed pleasure," Thoropoulos said.

The team has also offered White's friend and personal trainer $50,000 a year to join him in Greece.

PAOK, considered the second-most powerful Greek team after Aris, also of Salonica, will represent Greece in this season's European Cup of Cupwinners championship.

The greatest pressure on the team to hire White is coming from Panayiotis Fasoulas (PAOK's star center) who has always wanted someone like him for support. Coach Costas Politis also wants him, because he'll fill in the team's weak spot," Thoropoulos said.

"We will accept White with all the warmth shown to him by the fans last week when he arrived to negotiate," he said. "As long as he replies by the deadline."

Brucker first U.S. girl in Little League series

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Victoria Brucker is a Little League slugger with pierced ears and shoulder-length hair.

She is the leading home run hitter for San Pedro, Calif., one of eight teams competing in the Little League World Series, which begins Tuesday.

And she's also the first girl from the United States to play in the series.

"She's just one of the guys," teammate James Santos said.

Not exactly.

While the rest of the team sleeps in a bunkhouse on the Little League complex, Victoria stays with a chaperone at a nearby hotel.

Victoria, a first baseman, led San Pedro with nine home runs as the 12-year-olds advanced to win the Western Regional title and a spot in the series. She also pitches occasionally.

Victoria is the second girl to play in the 43 years the Little League World Series has been held.

Victoria Roche, a substitute for European champion Brussels, Belgium, was the first in 1984.

Lately, Victoria has been gaining respect.

In one of San Pedro's 17 tournament games en route to the Little League World Series, the opposing team walked her intentionally after she hit a home run.

For her part, Victoria appears most excited about her first trip out of California.

"Who would have thought in the first trip out of state I'd be in the World Series?" she said.

San Pedro plays its first World Series game Wednesday against Southwestern Regional champion Tampa, Fla.

Bucs down Astros, 4-1

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bobby Bonilla went 3-for-4, hit a two-run homer and drove in three runs and John Smiley cooled off Houston by pitching a six-hitter as the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Astros 4-1 Tuesday night.

Smiley, 10-7, won for the first time in five starts with his eighth complete game as Pittsburgh ended Houston's four-game winning streak. The Astros lost to the Pirates for just the third time in 10 games this season.

Glenn Davis homered with one out in the ninth inning to spoil the shutout. The homer tied a career-high of 31 by Davis, who has connected in all four Houston games at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Pirates, who were 0-3 against Houston at home, got to Astros starter Jim Deshaies, 11-7, for two runs in the first.

Jay Bell walked and scored one out later on a single by Bonilla. Barry Bonds, who also went 3-for-4, followed with a RBI double.

Deshaies pitched out of a base-loaded, none-out jam in the fourth, but got in trouble again in the fifth.
