Colombian official pea 1 plans resignation after death threats

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) ve held alians how nd the prop high on the reats against her and her children. News reports also said an appeals or drug at irt has revoked an arrest order acsing a top drug lord of ordering s an instan to vo assassinations is has in crime and

olice haw hey are no h polices a

its use bu The Swis

ns in 198

eized none

~~~~

ED

The bomb blasts occurred beanches of the national Banco Cafa lingering ivided out ero, owned by the state and coffee sporters, a police spokesman in ledellin said. at the don ex they won M em. Other ad the hom in

He said the bombs did $100,000 damage but caused no injuries. fused, the spokesman, who de- trucks, yachts and other goods. anded anonymity, said.

He said two men were arrested in car near one of the explosions and ere being questioned by detectives. Police said they were uncertain hether the bombings were carried at by drug traffickers or leftist aerrillas of the National Liberation my, which has attacked the bank's fices in the past.

Last week, the traffickers declared r on the government after it bea crackdown in response to the ssinations of a magistrate, a poriod ending Aug. 18.

"We don't have any group in par-Bombs exploded at seven bank of-fices Sunday in the cocaine traffick-ing center of Medellin, and newspaers reported the justice minister terrogating the two suspects, he said. ans to resign because of death Medellin, 215 miles north of Bo-Medellin, 215 miles north of Bogota, is the base for the world's big-gest cocaine trafficking cartel that is believed to be responsible for 80 percent of the cocaine smuggled into the United States. $50

The traffickers threatened to target the government, judges, journal-ists and industrialists because of the government's offensive.

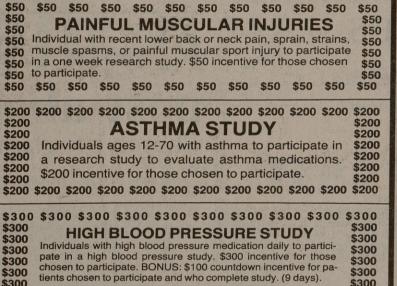

The crackdown by the military has confiscated hundreds of luxudamage but caused no injuries. Bombs were found at four other shops believed to belong to traffickanches of the same bank and were ers in addition to aircraft, cars and > Authorities said the raids will continue, but so far the cartel bosses have eluded security forces.

Bogota newspapers on Sunday carried unconfirmed reports that Justice Minister Monica de Grieff plans to resign. She left Friday for Washington, and the daily El Espectador said she may remain in the United States.

Another Bogota daily, El Tiempo, said Communications Minister Carlos Lemos Simmonds would fill in colonel and a leading presi-nual candidate during a 48-hour council that must decide on the proposed extradition of traffickers.

tients chosen to participate and who complete study. (9 days). $300

MENSTRUAL CRAMP STUDY Women, 18 years and older who suffer from menstrual cramps.

Monetary incentive for those chosen to particpate.

Free Allergy Testing

We are currently screening individuals, ages 12-70, who may be chosen to participate in future studies. Known allergy patients welcome. Monetary incentive for those chosen to participate in future studies.

> CALL PAULL RESEARCH INTERNATIONAL 776-0400

Watch For Our Daily Beer Specials!

R WE WILL WE WILL BEAT BEAT ANY ADVERTISED ANY ADVERTISED PRICE IN PRICE IN BIC.S. B/C.S. SPENCO BIOSOFT orig. 15.99 Get in shape with soft flexible 1-lb. weights fit comfortably on wrists SPEN or ankles. Machine-washable. STADIUM SEAT Get ready for those big games! 1" foam padded seat, folding back rest, carry handle and bench clamp. OCEAN PACIFIC SCREEN-PRINT T-SHIRTS Always a favorite in 100% cotton with active prints and neon highlights. COLLEGE LOGO T-SHIRTS MOUNTAIN TEK CORDURA DAY PACK WITH SUEDE BOTTOM Choose from an excellent of A & M logo shirts in white or team colors. Water-resistant nylon Q99 099 with suede bottom and sections for school supplies. Padded shoulder straps and orig. 12.00 waist strap. JANSPORT PAPER CHASE DAYPACK Has a large pouch for books and binders, plus a separate organizer compartment for accessories.

Protesters: Use of snakes for advertisement cruel

LONDON (AP) — Hundreds of eo rental shops on Friday reved promotional kits for a horror ruel and irresponsible."

The Royal Society for the Prevenn of Cruelty to Animals called on ema International Corp. to take ck the 700 reptiles.

lls from unhappy shop owners. Paul Brett, CIC's marketing manbe kept in shops to promote a riller about voodoo called "The pent and The Rainbow.

The snakes were bred domestiand the company began sendthem out Thursday from its don headquarters, he said.

The snakes, silver with gray pes, are not poisonous but might ry harmful parasites if they came Lawrence Cane, Cinema International's marketing assistant, said, "Whenever we launch a new video tivie with live snakes inside the tle we normally send to our distribuckages, and outraged animal pro- tors posters, sleeves and cardboard tion officials called the stunt cut-outs. With this film, we decided to send snakes. In marketing terms it's called live points of sale.

> Some recipients weren't impressed.

"We felt complete and utter hor-ror," said a London video shop man-ager, who refused to be identified to protect his relations with the distri-bution company.

It said it was receiving dozens of Refresher course aul Brett, CIC's marketing man-r, said the snakes were intended may lower risk of car accidents

WASHINGTON (AP) - A California study indicates that older people who take a driver training refresher courses may have fewer traffic convictions and serious accidents than do non-participants.

The report cautioned that drivers who took part in a voluntary pro-gram on which the study is based mabroad, said RSPCA spokeswon Diana Jones. They needed to be weekly, she said.

While admitting there'd been me confusion," Cinema Internaal denied the snakes would harm one or be harmed.

AL

GHTS

ULTS

UNT.

hat

say

SSI-

you

ob.

ea

We've sent out 700 in clear, plasaerated boxes as conversation ces," Brett said. "Snakes make nderful pets.

The 18- to 24-inch snakes used in promotion came from a comcalled Animal Actors, which ased Cinema International they did have to be fed for three months, were "a highly self-selected group who would be expected . . . to have lower subsequent accident rates."

Leadership

Nevertheless, it said; there was "suggestive evidence" that the driver training course helped reduce accident risl

"We feel the results are quite sug-gestive and promising," said Ray Peck, director of research for the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

Drivers over age 65 are second only to those age 15 to 24 in traffic accidents, and when the number of miles driven is taken into account. the two groups are almost equal.

Continued from page 1) "The group clicked a little bit bett than in past years," he said. They seemed to interact better right the bat — maybe it was because that crazy bus ride.

Throughout the conference, A&M culty and staff members and other akers lectured on such topics as vertising and publicity, creative innovative thinking and relations ith advisers.

The keynote speaker for the conence was Robert Segner, class of and the interim department head the Department of Construction cience. Segner, a former yell ader, spoke about the qualities of adership to the A&M student lead-

Other guest speakers included forer Aggie Parents of the Year John d Peggy Erickson and Frank and nie Abbott, Vice-President for udent Services Dr. John Koldus, d Jane Mobley.

re a square dance, some intramu-- type sports, and a theme the conference, described a ue quality of the conference: ou get to know people very well FLC, because once you've lived Henry also commented on the suc-cess of the conference and the qualthree days with a group of people ity of students.

laughed together, it's a friendship that can never be matched by meeting in a cubicle in the MSC Holland said the conference is funded by fees paid by those leaders in attendance, and by fund raising, consisting of contributions from former students, many of whom attended the conference in past years, and endowments from corporations.

ing for the FLC committee, said M.D. Andersen Foundation and Houston Endowment were two major contributors to the organization.

The attending student leaders had many positive comments about the conference. Kim Roberts, public re-lations executive for MSC Hospitality said the conference helped prepare her for the upcoming year. For Roberts, the most important aspect of the retreat was "to build that 'Ag-gie network' and have 'FUN' friendly unstructured networking."

James Johnson, chairman of FLC Among the recreational activities in 1987, commented on the change in the caliber of student leaders attending the conference.

nce. Keith Powell, director of activities of their relationship with the faculty and what they expect of them,' Johnson said.

Joe Holland, director of fund rais-