An Aggie's Guide to the Texas A&M Campus

Let's just say, Willie Nelson, would be at home in these places.

Northgate slum area

Someone playing Neil Diamond's "Headed for the Future" (Yes Yes Yes)

Cars with stupid cardboard windshields

A lot of dorms that all look alike and their sunbathing areas (heh heh heh)

Place Moses brought the tablets with the 10 TRADITIONS carved on them

Areas for "Stupid Parking Tricks."

Lost love

The Lost Ark

Holy Grail

A mall that isn't half empty.

Cinema I, II, III (but you can only see one at a time)

University Half-Towers

Some Kinda store

The loneliest road in town

Vet School (where the students have to fight like animals to get in, and study like animals to pass.)

Railroad Tracks (usually separate a person from his classes with a train. Just picture a train derailed along here carrying dangerous chemicals...)

Sail and Crop Sciences Bld.

Entomology (These 2 buildings being together makes sense; the insects on one side eat what the other building grows.)

Proposed site for new Cartoonists Mansion.

Crossover Ramp (useful when there's a train, however it takes as much time to walk it as it does for the train to pass.)

You are here, and your next class is in Zachry in 10 min.: forget it!

Baseball Stadium (where one of the other campus sports is played.)

To miles and miles of nothing but miles and miles

So-called parking lot

lowest form of life (a few-truck)

Albritton Bell Tower (where beer drinkers lie dormant)

Dorms (where beer drinkers lie dormant)

Parade Ground (where Corps seniors pass final review, God willing)

Your roommate # staked out on an anthill.

Grows Amphitheater (for seeing movies with the moon, stars and trains.)

M.S.C. MISCELLANEOUS (Heaven)

Rudder Tower (a building)

Y.M.C.A. Bld. (No, you can't stay here overnight.)

Y.M.C.A. Bld. (No, you can't stay here overnight.)

Friskie Field

Ack-ademic Building

Library - the one building more crowded than the football stadium.

Architecture Building (Artists are drawn to this place.)

Administration Bld. - where all the right decisions are made. If you believe that, why are you in college?

Oceanography/Meteorology Building - they say if you hold this building to your ear, you can hear the ocean (well, that's what they say).

dead M.E. student

Golf Course (not a required course)

Historic site of a once reported parking space.

A GROUP SINGING THE SOUND OF MUSIC THE SAND TRAPP FAMILY SINGERS

Jogger Trap

Fire Station (original name of this city before they changed it.)

To a water tower (which the town is named after)

Several Restaurants

what food these morsels be...

Intersection Very Popular With Cars

East Gate (Area you can run to, but not hide)

c.s. city Hall (where utilities that cost way too much are paid for.)

Somebody NOT wearing an Izod shirt

Don't Wok sign

Some Food Places (actually they're not made of food...)

Big Blue Water Tower (This structure is painted sky-blue and is therefore impossible to see.)

Blocker Bld. (where engineers are designed)

Pie Are Square (No No, pie are ROUND, CORNBREAD are square.)

Area of nothing to Comment on.

Harrington Bld. (where a lot of eating and complaining goes on.)

where you can rent an empty mailbox... that stays that way.

U.S. Post Office

Y.M.C.A. Bld. (No, you can't stay here overnight.)

Read McDonald Building (where the paper you're reading comes from. Hello, Guys!)

The most disgusting election posters you've ever seen

Riders of the Lost Shuttle Bus

Squirrels not to be mistaken for freshmen.

The Commons-like living in an airport terminal. For the common elite.

A lot of Corps of Cadet Buildings (home of the crewcut)

A bevy of "Bim-bi" Bow heads

Duncan Mess Hall

Running hermit people

Wet hair. Lather. Rinse. Repeat.

Fire Ants (Corps Band Hall where men and women finally Band Together)

Places to lurk.

KAMU (The best college station in town)

NEW ALUMNI BUILDING (looks like a BANK. You're not kidding)

Resident's Mansion (No books helter on cement blocks here)

Nude co-ed sunbathing (No, really. Honest. Go look)

University Police Station - give 'em a break. How'd you like to have to control a campus full of US?

Jogger's Track (place your bets please)

Bonfire Site - where we sacrifice outhouses to the Gods for a victory

Lake of Lost Golfballs

Campus corner Marker (Do not pass GO. Collect 200 parking tickets.)

No Matter What Career Path You Follow, Chase Can Help You On The Road To Success.

Preparing for your life's career is a big step.

Depending on what course you follow, it may take a minimum four years of concentrated study...

Not to mention big bucks.

That's where Chase can help you keep the pace. No major bank in Texas offers more education loan choices. Besides the three federally guaranteed programs, we provide private financing to fulfill the unmet needs of both students and parents. Plus a loan consolidation program that eliminates multiple loan payments. What's more, Chase's state-of-the-art loan processing service will help you sidestep problems from beginning to end. If you have a question, our friendly, professional customer service representatives are only a toll-free phone call away. And our express turnaround service means funds are received promptly.

So take the first step. Call 1-800-253-5626,  or return the form to request your Chase education loan kit. Because the road to success begins at Chase.
