Moniki Daniels (l) and Yvonne Van Brandt (r) will team up against LSU Thursday night.
Lady Ags open against LSU tonight

After two weeks of intense drills, the Texas A&M Lady Aggie-Volleyball team will open the 1989 season tonight against LSU. The 7:30 p.m. contest will be the first of the year for each squad, and will feature the second place teams from last year in both the Southwest and Southeastern Conferences.

The Lady Aggies are coming off of an 18-15 season in 1988. They posted a 6-4 record in conference play to tie Houston for a share of second place in the SWC.

Coach Al Givens will send an experienced squad onto the court. Of the 13 players on the roster, seven are returning letterwinners, and four were starters last year.

This year's squad will be led by senior co-captains Yvonne Van Brandt, of San Antonio, and Kelli Kellen, of Conroe.

A pair of juniors will also be counted upon to contribute leadership. Krista Hierholzer, of Boca Raton, Florida, and Amy Cumings, of Midland each bring valuable experience.

Givens said that sophomores Moniki Daniels and Sheri Hermesmyer will join the four returning starters in the starting lineup tonight.

The Lady Aggies are 18 opening games since 1976. They haven't lost a season opener since 1985. Although A&M enters the match with a 17-5 lead in the series, Coach Givens said that he expects LSU to be a formidable opponent.

"They will put a big team on the court against us," he said. "We are a quicker team and rely on our speed. If we have trouble in the past their block, we could be in a long night."

Coogs shoot down ex-Sooner Parks

HOUSTON (AP) — Former University of Oklahoma cornerback Jerry Parks, who shot and wounded former teammate Zarak Peters in a dorm incident last January, has been denied admission to the University of Houston, the school confirmed Tuesday.

"I'm very disappointed, I was looking forward to going to school there and maybe later walking on (the football team)," Parks told KRIV-TV.

Parks, who played at Sugar Land Willowridge with Peters, was arrested Jan. 13 in Norman, Okla., and charged with shooting with intent to injure following an argument in the Sooner athletic dorm.

Peters was shot once in the left side of his chest with a .22 caliber pistol and was hospitalized with a bullet lodged in the rib cage.

Parks told KRIV he met with Houston interim president Dr. George Magner and was denied admission.

"I have no problem saying that I met with him but beyond that I have to talk to Mr. Parks," Magner said. "Under our rules, we have to protect their privacy."

Parks pleaded no contest to the charge and received a five-year suspended sentence.

He was ordered to submit to 82 days of supervised probation, including 82 days in the Cleveland County Jail in Norman.

Parks and Peters were high school teammates in 1984 and 1985. Peters graduated in 1986 and Parks in 1987.
