

Dominica pays tribute to France with stamp

(AP) — The Commonwealth of Dominica, a mountainous island of the Windward chain in the Caribbean, joins the ranks of the many nations paying philatelic tribute to the bicentennial of the French Revolution.

In these stamps, Dominica proves that former ties to another country are hard to erase. The island was first settled by the French in 1732. It was later captured by the British before being regained by the French. The British, however, recaptured Dominica in 1783 and remained in control until 1978, when Dominica gained its independence.

Despite over 200 years of continuous British rule, French influence is still evident. Many of the rural inhabitants continue to speak in a French dialect.

The tribute to the bicentennial and to PHILEXFRANCE '89, the French international stamp show, is evident in four new stamps and a souvenir sheet that focus attention on the historical contributions of the French.

The 10-cent depicts a map of Dominica, featuring the names of towns that have French associations and which appeared on a map of the island in 1720. The 35-cent shows a French coin dated 1688 that was used by the French plantation owners of the period.

The $1 bears a French ship that traveled to Dominica and to other French Caribbean colonies in 1720. The $4 illustrates the coffee plant, which the French introduced into Dominica in 1772.

Commando

Burns, Barbara Mandrell, Manhattan Transfer and Little River Band. In 1988 and 1989, he was nominated for Campus Entertainer of the Year and Campus Artist of the Year.

Mason's claim to fame is an act that blends the arts of stand up comedy, ventriloquism and music.

After graduating from the University of Illinois, he moved to Chicago and joined the famous Second City Theatre as a musical director of the touring company. It was there that he began working on his own comedy material, writing material for Second City at the same time.

Mason has performed with Judy Collins, Jerry Lee Lewis, Robert Klein and Tina Turner. He also has been a guest on "Robert Klein Time" on the USA Cable Network. Another noted appearance was his performance at MTV's 1986 Video Awards.

An original song parody by Mason entitled "Psycho Santa" received wide airplay on FM radio stations across the nation.

Tickets for the Comedy Commandos are $2.50 (general admission) and can be purchased at the MSC Box Office.

The Commando show will be over by approximately 10:30 p.m. — leaving plenty of time for those attending to recover and attend yell practice for the LSU game.

HOW TO SPOT THE NOID® ON YOUR CAMPUS.

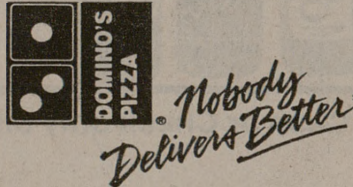

Beware. The NOID, that bizarre character that yuks pizzas, is out there somewhere on campus. He could be disguised as anyone. A major jock. Psych teach. Bowhead. Even your big rival's mascot. But most likely, he's hanging out, searching for pizza 'cause he likes to trash 'em out — make the crust soggy, splatter sauce all around the box and toss on the wrong ingredients — before he overmights it to the wrong place so it'll be good and cold when you get it. Don't get jukeed. Give Domino's Pizza® a ring and some serious pizza — hot, fresh, made to your order with the best ingredients — will be at your door in 30 minutes or less. Guaranteed. Domino's Pizza. Nobody Delivers Better.™
