EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP) -Tony Rice guided Notre Dame to touchdowns on its first five possessions as the Fighting Irish opened defense of their national championship by routing Virginia 36-13 Thursday night in the Kickoff Classic.

After losing seven top players before the season started, Coach Lou Holtz said he didn't consider Notre Dame a Top 20 team. But the Fight-losish sure looked like one against Thick sure looked like sure looked like one against Thick sure looked like su contend for the Atlantic Coast Conference title after finishing last season with five straight victories.

The game was all but over at half-time after second-ranked Notre Dame raced to a 33-0 lead before a sellout crowd of 77,323 at Giants

Rice, one of the preseason favorites for the Heisman Trophy, completed six of seven passes for 125 yards and ran for 34 yards and a touchdown in the first half. He played only three series in the second half as Holtz substituted freely.

Notre Dame outgained Virginia returning three punts for 67 yards and returning three punts for 67 yards. Virginia's most glaring statistic was its failure to reach Notre Dame territory in the first half. When the Cavaliers' total first-half yardage on one play, a 52-yard pass from Rice to Raghib Ismail that set up a 2-yard passes for 42 yards and returning three punts for 67 yards was its failure to reach Notre Dame territory in the first half. Top U.S. seeds win, avoid Open upsets nors, the oldest player at the U.S. Open, showed Thursday he still has plenty of fight, while Andre Agassi and Michael Chang kept up the march of America's teen brigade.

Connors, who turns 37 on Saturday, avoided the upsets that had tripped two other former champions, disposing of hard-serving but erratic 23-year-old qualifier Bryan Shelton 6-7, 6-2, 6-2, 6-2 in a secondround match.

Shelton, an All-America from Georgia Tech who lost to Boris Becker in the first round at Wimbledon in his first Grand Slam event, blasted 12 aces without being broken in the first set. He polished off an 8-6 win in the tie-breaker with his eighth service winner.

But Shelton's serve failed him as he double-faulted at game-point at the start of the second set, and the steady, wily Connors took his measure with blazing returns, deft lobs and passing shots

Shelton managed only five aces in the last three sets and never threatened the 13th-seeded Connors in any of them.

"I'm happy I stopped the rout (of seeded players). I'm happy it stopped at me," Connors said. "If he continued serving and playing the way he did in the first set, it could've been a different thing. But I didn't think he could keep it up."
Shelton was impressed with Connors.

"I thought he moved pretty well,"

a point was over and he ran it down. Agassi, 19, Chang, 17, and Pete Sampras, 18, who took out defending champion Mats Wilander on Wednesday night, meanwhile, showed they are part of a new generation of U.S. players on the verge of taking over the game.

The sixth-seeded flowing locks and a throng of screaming female admirers, beat South African Neil Broad in winning 6-3, 6-2, 6-3 to advance to the third round.

Chang, the seventh seed and French Open champion, handled the swirling breeze on the stadium court as easily as he did Sweden's Thomas Hogstedt in a 6-1, 6-3, 6-3

There were no big upsets, for a change, as top-seeded Ivan Lendl, third-seeded Stefan Edberg and ninth-seeded Tim Mayotte also advanced to the third round without dropping a set.

Lendl didn't strain himself much in a snappy, 78-minute, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1 victory against John Fitzgerald, a doubles specialist from Australia who charged the net futilely while Lendl stayed back and hammered forehands and backhands past him. Lendl said he wasn't suprised at the second-round upsets of Wilander by Sampras and four-time champion John McEnroe by new-comer Paul Haarhuis, or the near upset of Becker by Derrick Ros-
