Franco goes 3 for 3 to down Twins, 8-5

lio Franco went 3-for-3 and drove in the go-ahead run as the Texas Rangers beat the Minnesota Twins 8-5

Brad Arnsberg, 1-0, pitched four innings of four-hit shutout relief in 101 degree heat as the Rangers won their 70th game, equalling last year's 32nd save.

Franco delivered a two-run single in the sixth inning when the Rangers scored four runs with the help of five walks from rookie reliever Mike Dyer, 3-4. Dyer, who did not give up a hit, walked the bases loaded with two outs and then issued walks to Jeff Kunkel and Jack Daugherty.

Franco followed with his key hit on a 3-2 pitch from Juan Berenguer, who had relieved Dyer.

All four runs were unearned be-cause of catcher Brian Harper's error on a foul pop-up, prolonging rookie Juan Gonzalez's at-bat. Gon-

Scott's errant pitch keys L.A.'s 7-5 win

HOUSTON (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers finally emerged from Mike Scott's shadow in the Astrodome with a 7-5 victory over Houston on Monday.

And Scott helped them do it with wild pitch that allowed the go-ahead run in the seventh inning.

"You live or die by the forkball," said Scott, whose wild pitch allowed Dave Anderson to score the goahead run in the Dodgers' two-run seventh. "(Catcher Craig) Biggio didn't have a chance to get it.'

Scott had beaten the Dodgers seven straight times in the Astrodome dating back to a 5-3 loss on

Aug. 13, 1986. "I didn't throw well from the first through the seventh innings," Scott said. "You just have games like that." Scott's downfall came when Alfredo Griffin bunted and Scott fell down trying to field the ball as Billy Bean scored the tying run.

I just did it on my own," Griffin said. "It was a great play to me. Not many players can do that. I was just trying to get the runner home.

Scott gave up four runs in the first inning and then shut down the Dodgers until the seventh-inning rally that kept him from becoming the National League's first 19-game winner. The Astros scored five times in the fourth for a 5-4 lead.

"I thought he pitched an outstanding game; he just gave up the home run (Mike Scioscia's three-run first-inning homer)," Astros manager Art Howe said. "He just started slow. He's done that a lot this year."

Tom Lasorda was pleased to see the Dodgers' early runs against

"That's what you have to do with him," the Dodgers' manager said. "Whenever we've gotten to him — and it hasn't been often — it's been in the first inning. We haven't done well against him.

After the four-run first inning, Scott did not yield another hit until Bean led off the seventh with a single. Pinch hitter Dave Anderson singled Bean to third before Griffin's bunt single. Anderson scored when Scott made his wild pitch with Eddie Murray at bat and Bean singled home the Dodgers' final run in the Griffin tripled and Scott walked Lenny Harris to start the game. Harris stole second, Murray struck out and Mike Marshall was intentionally walked, loading the bases for Jeff Hamilton, whose hit a sacrifice fly before Scioscia homered.

Los Angeles starter John Wette-land, 4-7, didn't allow a hit until Bill Doran led off the Houston fourth inning with a single. Kevin Bass and Glenn Davis followed with singles for one run before Glenn Wilson hit his 11th home run, a 420-foot shot that tied the game. One out later, Ken Caminiti put the Astros ahead with a 385-foot homer over the right field fence.

Jay Howell pitched the last two innings for his 26th save.
