

Vikings humiliate Oilers 38-7; Carter plays key role in romp

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Anthony Carter took his foot out of his mouth and put it ahead of Houston defenders Sunday, catching seven passes for 123 yards and leading the Minnesota Vikings to a 38-7 victory over the Oilers.

Carter, who on Tuesday said he was so upset with his contract that Vikings coach Jerry Burns should bench him because "I won't put my best foot forward," scored Minnesota's first touchdown and set up its next two.

A two-time Pro Bowl receiver who is making $450,000 this year, about half as much as some of the league's highest-paid receivers, Carter later apologized to Burns and the team.

Wade Wilson accepted the apology and said he would throw early and often to Carter. He did, hitting Carter for 14 yards on the Vikings' first offensive play.

The pair connected twice more on the seven-play, 80-yard drive, including a 32-yard touchdown pass that tied the game 7-7.

Minnesota got the ball back on Mike Merriweather's diving interception of a Warren Moon pass and, after Wilson's 14-yard pass to Carter, Wilson hit Steve Jordan with a 2-yard TD pass.

Wilson, starting his first season as the team's undisputed No. 1 quarterback after a two-year battle with Tommy Kramer, completed 16 of 25 passes for 218 yards.

The Vikings went up 21-7 by taking advantage of another Houston mistake: punter Greg Montgomery's inability to handle Bruce Matthews' low snap. One play after a Wilson-to-Carter 22-yard hookup, Rick Fenney scored from 1 yard.

Teddy Garcia made a 35-yard field goal for a 24-7 halftime lead. Fenney added a 3-yard third-quarter run and Alfred Anderson scored from 2 yards in the fourth.

Houston, losing its first opener in five years, had taken a 7-0 lead on a 13-play, 61-yard march capped by Alonzo Highsmith's 1-yard run. The drive ate up the game's first 7:48.

The Oilers were without 1,000-yard rusher Mike Rozier, who just signed Thursday.

Top teams in prep football see weekend action

For Corrigan-Camden coach Jim Skinner, the 1989 high school football season has gotten off to a good start.

The Bulldogs lost most of last year's Class 2A state championship team to graduation, including eight players who received football scholarships.

But 5-6, 167-pound Undra Holman, who gained 2,337 yards last year, is back, and Holman exploded for 221 yards on 20 carries, including a 41-yard touchdown run, as Corrigan-Camden defeated Woodville, 35-16, on Friday night.

Corrigan-Camden, ranked No. 4 in Class 2A in the Associated Press preseason poll, has its hands full this week, however. The Bulldogs must go to Groveton, the state's No. 1-ranked 2A team.

A similar match-up is in Class 5A, where Marshall, ranked No. 4 last week, journeys to Odessa Permian, the state's No. 2-ranked team. Marshall lost to Neville, La., 22-17, last weekend while Permian was blasting El Paso Austin, 55-0, behind the running of Chris Comer.

In last weekend's key games, top-ranked Converse

Judson in 5A, defending state champ Paris in 4A, Groveton in 2A and Munday in 1A all won, but Navarro ranked No. 1 in 3A, was bounced, 20-8, by A&M Consolidated.

That leaves No. 2 Sweeny, No. 3 Southlake Carroll and No. 4 Gainesville poised to fill the void. Sweeny beat West Columbia 34-13, defending 3A state champ Southlake Carroll routed Boyd 41-0 for its 17th straight win, and Gainesville defeated Springtown 39-7.

In a major upset, No. 3-ranked Lufkin in 5A lost to Beaumont Central 27-14.

In games involving top-ranked teams, Judson beat San Antonio Jay 37-0, Paris beat No. 4-ranked Deming 32-16, Groveton beat Trinity 35-7, and Munday overwhelmed Haskell 61-20.

Skinner has no argument with those who picked Groveton as the No. 1 Class 2A team in the state over defending state champion club.

"That's who I would have picked. They have a great club, a lot of talent. I don't know if we can stop them. Not. We're real young this year, and we're having several kids play hurt," Skinner said.
