Brazos Folk Fest begins Friday

Czech, Hispanic and old west cultures will highlight the 1989 Brazos Folk Fest in Central Park this weekend.

Polka and country and western bands, as well as clowns, mimes, jugglers and the Ripley House Ballet De' Folklorico will be part of the festival's live entertainment. Bratwurst, fajitas, tacos and hamburgers will be some of the refreshments offered. Hayrides, arts and crafts shows and children's games round out some of the activities planned.

The festival opens Friday, Sept. 22, from 7 p.m. to midnight and continues Saturday from noon until midnight and Sunday from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m.

The price of admission is $2 per person or $5 per family.

Guitarist performs on campus

Flamenco guitarist Miguel Rodriguez will perform tomorrow night at 7:45 in the Music Department on the 4th floor of the Academic Building.

Rodriguez began his public career at age 10. In recent years he has toured the United States, Canada and Europe, providing music for several noted companies, including the Jose Molina Ballet Espanol, the Jose Greco Spanish Dance Co. and the Maria Benitez Estampa Flamenca.

Admission to the performance is $5. For more information call 846-9655.

Documentary shown this weekend

The travelogue "Song of Ireland" will kick off the "Bringing the world to Bryan-College Station Series" at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at the College Station Community Center.

Buddy Hatton, the film's creator, will be on hand to narrate the documentary. Hatton, who is considered by some to be one of the most popular travelogue narrators in the nation, is also remembered for his role as "Little Buddy" in the "Our Gang" series.

The series is sponsored by The Arts Exchange, a non-profit service organization in Austin.

Travelogues are feature-length documentary films which focus on individual nations, capturing the culture, citizens and customs of a country.

Other films in the series which will be shown this semester are "Spain," by Thayer Soule, on Oct. 29 and Frank Nichols' "Austrian Odyssey" on Nov. 19.

Single tickets for each program are $5 for seniors and students and $6 for the general public. Series tickets for all six travelogues, including three next semester, are available for $24 for seniors and students and $30 for the general public.

For more information, call the Brazos Valley Arts Council at 764-3720.

Aggie Flashback

The following information gathered from past issues of Battalion and reflects activities occurred during this week in Aggie history.

10 years ago — Figures at A&M showed that 31,331 students were enrolled during the fall semester. Women made up 35.8 percent of student body and the male to female ratio was 2 to 1.

25 years ago — Repairs of the face of Kyle Field were completed for the 1964 football season. Texas 10, a strain of Bermuda grass, sprigged into the soil of the field.

50 years ago — The president of the Association of Former Students announced that a placement and personnel bureau would be established at A&M to assist students and former students in finding employment.
