A's take 2-0 series lead over Blue Jays

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Jose Canseco could not start Wednesday because of a bad headache. No matter. Rickey Henderson gave Toronto one all day.

Rickey Henderson sparked a two-run fourth inning rally with two stolen bases, and the Oakland Athletics beat the Blue Jays 6-3 in Game 2 of the best-of-7 American League playoffs for a 2-0 lead.

Only two of 11 teams have rallied from a 2-0 deficit to win the AL playoffs — Milwaukee in 1982 and Kansas City over Toronto in 1985.

The A's have won six straight playoff games, while the Blue Jays have dropped five in a row.

Once again, the A's put together a combination of power, pitching and speed to beat the Blue Jays.

Starter Mike Moore allowed three hits in seven innings, Mark McGwire had three hits and Dave Parker hit his first home run in 25 postseason games spanning 93 at-bats.

Rickey Henderson had two singles and two walks, and has been on base seven times in nine plate appearances. He has six steals in the series, breaking the playoff record of five previously held by Davey Lopes (1981) and Steve Sax (1988), both with Los Angeles.

Rickey Henderson stole both second and third in the fourth and seventh innings.

Canseco was in the starting lineup but was scratched when he had a migraine headache before the game. He pinch hit in the A's three-run sixth inning and struck out. He walked in the eighth.

The AL playoffs take a day off before moving to Toronto for Game 3 on Friday night. Storm Davis (19-7) is scheduled to pitch for the A's against Jimmy Key (13-14).

Toronto starter Todd Stottlemyre held the A's to two hits and no runs on 26 pitches in the first three innings.

The Blue Jays grabbed the lead in the third inning on Fred McGriff's run-scoring grounder.

Rickey Henderson walked leading off the fourth, and stole second and third.

The previous AL record for steals in a series was four by Kansas City's Amos Otis in 1978.

Carney Lansford, who hit .336, followed with a single to left over a drawn-in infield to tie the score. Lansford moved to second on Parker's grounder to first, and scored on McGwire's double down the left-field line.

Oakland was breezing along when Rick Honeycutt relieved Moore to start the eighth and loaded the bases with none out on a single by Nelson Liriano and walks to Lloyd Moseby and Mookie Wilson.

Dennis Eckersley relieved and McGriff singled to right to make it 6-2. But Eckersley, who had 33 saves, got George Bell to hit into a 4-6-3 double play as Moseby scored the Jays' third run. Eckersley, who saved all four Oakland playoff victories last season, earned his first of the series.

The A's chased Stottlemyre in the sixth when Parker led off with a long home run to right field and McGwire followed with a single.

Rickey Henderson led off the seventh with another walk and again stole second and third. He came home on a throwing error.

Clark powers Giants with 4 hits in 11-3 win

CHICAGO (AP) — Will Clark spent all season in the shadow of Kevin Mitchell. In the spotlight at Wrigley Field on Wednesday night, he finally moved ahead of his teammate — barely.

Clark drove in a record six runs, going 4-for-4 with two homers, including a grand slam, and overshadowed Mitchell's three-run shot as San Francisco routed the Chicago Cubs 11-3 in the opening game of the National League playoffs.

Pitching may dominate the post-season, but not this time. Clark's slam off 19-game winner Greg Maddux landed on Sheffield Avenue beyond the right-field bleachers and made it 8-3 in the fourth inning. By then there had already been four home runs and 13 hits.

Clark set a playoff record for RBIs and tied the all-time postseason record set by Bobby Richardson for the New York Yankees in the 1960 World Series. Clark hit his only big-league grand slam this season, against Mike Maddux, Greg's brother.

Mitchell, who led the majors with 47 home runs and 125 RBIs this season, contributed his homer and a single to the Giants' 13 hits. Clark, who batted .333 and had 23 home runs and 111 RBIs, walked ahead of Mitchell's home run onto Waveland Avenue in left field.

Scott Garrelts, the league's earned run average champion, struggled early yet lasted seven innings for the victory.

Mark Grace hit a two-run homer in the first inning for the Cubs and Ryne Sandberg, who had three hits, homered in the third.

That was all the 39,195 fans — not including those packing the adjacent rooftops — had to cheer about on a warmer-than-expected night. There had been frost warnings the previous evening, but the game-time temperature of 55 degrees and light winds even had home-plate umpire Doug Harvey in short sleeves.

Game 2 will be Thursday night with Chicago's Mike Bielecki (18-7) facing Rick Reuschel (17-8).

Clark, facing the team that has given him the most trouble throughout his career, hit an RBI double during a three-run first inning and a solo home run in third. With the bases loaded and two outs in the fourth, Cubs manager Don Zimmer went to the mound to talk to Maddux and Clark hit the next pitch out of the park.

Clark, a .407 hitter with runners in scoring position this season, tied the NL playoff mark for hits. He hit .360 for the Giants in the 1987 playoffs, a seven-game loss to St. Louis.

Neither Clark nor Mitchell like to hit at Wrigley Field or against Chicago. Going into the game, Clark had hit just two home runs in 141 career at-bats versus the Cubs — his lowest total against any team — and had no homers and just five RBIs in 48 tries this season. Mitchell hit only .189 against Chicago this year.

That wasn't evident this time. Mitchell, the league leader in total bases, and Clark, the runner-up, went wild.
