resigns amid allegations

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Florida football coach Galen Hall resigned Sunday amid charges he made unauthorized payments to a player and to his assistant coaches in violation of NCAA rules, the university's interim president said.

His replacement is Hall's current defensive coordinator, Gary Darnell, said interim president Robert Bryan. "We made this move because the man violated his contract and committed major violations of NCAA rules," Bryan said at a news conference. "We cannot al-low him to coach."

Bryan said he accepted the resignation effective immediately, ting payments allegedly made by Hall to a player in 1987 and unauthorized salary supplements to assistant coaches from 1986 to 1988

"This is not a rogue univer-sity," Bryan said. "But we contracted a disease in the early 1980s that my predecessor, Mar-shall Criser, almost broke his heart trying to cure. But I guarantee to all who are interested in the university that it will be cured

Hall compiled a 40-18-1 record in six years as Florida's head coach after taking over after the first three games of the 1984 sea-son when Charley Pell left the job amid charges of recruiting viola-tions by the NCAA.

In a letter of resignation to Bryan, Hall admitted that in January 1987, he helped out a player who faced a court order arising from non-payment of child support

An unnamed graduate student told university officials that Hall had him deliver money for the player in a sealed envelope. Hall enied the accusation, writing in he letter to Bryan that to his recllection, the envelope contained only court papers.

He also admitted to paying un-authorized salary supplements to assistant coaches in 1986, 1987 and 1988.

Gators coach Giants beat Cubs again San Francisco one win from 'All-Bay' series

the records on Sunday night. Matt

Williams just won the game. Williams drove in four runs, including a tie-breaking, two-run homer in the fifth inning, and San Francisco beat Chicago 6-4 in Game 4 to take a 3-1 lead in the best-of-7

National League playoffs. Clark went 3-for-4 and tied an NL playoff record with 10 hits, and Grace drove in two runs to give him eight RBIs and a share of the NL series record, for a while.

The game started in 85-degree temperatures at normally cold and windy Candlestick Park. It seemed to help the hitters.

All the offense even caused some short tempers as Clark and Shawon Dunston exchanged words at first base after the Cubs shortstop blooped a single to right in the sixth. The benches emptied, but peace was restored quickly. Kelly Downs, in one of the few clutch pitching performances of the series, relieved Giants starter Scott Garrelts in the fifth and allowed three hits over 4-plus innings for the victory

With two outs in the ninth, Ryne Sandberg singled and Steve Bedro-sian relieved Downs. Lloyd McClendon blooped a single to right off the glove of second baseman Robby Thompson and walked Grace to load the bases.

He then struck out Andre Dawson for his second save of the series.

With the score 4-4. Clark led off the fifth with a double to make him 10-for-15 in the series. One out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Will later, Williams lined reliever Steve Clark and Mark Grace dueled for Wilson's pitch over the left-field fence

It gave Williams nine RBIs, breaking an NL playoff record previously held by Gary Matthews, Dusty Baker and Grace.

The Cubs or Giants will play in the World Series starting next Satur-day in Oakland. The Athletics won the American League pennant earlier Sunday in Toronto.

Once again in the NL series, the starting pitchers flopped and the outfielders spent most of the time getting familiar with the fans in the bleachers.

Chicago starter Greg Maddux left in the fourth inning, and his coun-terpart, Garrelts, followed him to the showers in the next inning after failing to protect a 4-2 lead. Jerome Walton led off the Cubs' fifth with a single and scored on Graces's triple to right. Dawson tied the score with an opposite-field double to right that chased Garrelts.

Luis Salazar, a late-season pickup from San Diego, gave the Cubs a 2-1 lead when he led off the second inning with a homer.

Clark came back with a single and double in two at-bats against the right-hander in Game 4.

Lady Ags split pair in North Carolina

FROM STAFF & WIRE REPORTS

The Texas A&M women's volleyball team traveled to North Carolina last weekend and split two matches against North Carolina and NC State.

On Saturday, the Lady Aggies lost to UNC in four sets 15-13, 5-15, 15-8, 15-7. Amy Cummings led the Lady Aggies with 12 kill-sand five blocks. Three of Cumming's blocks were solos.

The team got their weekend road trip off to a good start, how-ever, defeating NC State in four sets, 15-12, 15-10, 10-15, 15-7. Cummings again led the Lady Aggies with 13 kills.

The Lady Aggies (8-6) return to action on Wednesday. They meet the University of Texas in a 7 p.m. match in Austin at the Frank Erwin Center. The team travels to Lubbock on Sunday to meet Texas Tech in a 2 p.m. match.
