Gramm-Rudman law's automatic pending cuts." Those seven words were supposed to conjure visions of that would frighten Congress nd the president into cutting the ederal deficit.

But it hasn't worked that way this ear. On Monday, $16 billion in "auomatic" federal spending cuts take ffect.

The law calls the cuts "permaent." In reality, they may not be. Unless you are a doctor, hospital fficial, veteran, college student or federal worker, you are unlikely ver to notice the reductions.

Even if you are among those vicms, however, you may not suffer very much or for very long. If Congress follows its own precedent, it nay roll back the cuts in a matter of

The Gramm-Rudman deficit-reluction law, enacted in 1985, has riggered automatic cuts twice beore, in 1986 and 1987. The 1987 utback lasted two months and was olled back by Congress.

The White House budget chief, Richard Darman, said Sunday that 'maybe . . is the best available alter-

WASHINGTON (AP) — "The ically triggers cuts in spending of ramm-Rudman law's automatic whatever is required to slash the figure to $100 billion.

The White House has estimated that the 1990 deficit would be $16.2 billion.

The law distributes the cuts equally between defense and domestic programs: $8.1 billion from defense and $8.1 billion from domestic programs. From there, the formula gets more complicated.

The cuts apply to all defense programs except for money already owed on signed contracts. That means that about $190 billion of the budget's $300 billion for defense is subject to reductions. Result: a 4.3 percent cut in eligible defense programs.

Special rules in the law exempt nearly 75 percent of federal spend-ing, including Social Security, payments on the national debt, federal retirement and disability programs, veterans pensions and compensation, and state unemployment benefits.

The law sets a ceiling of 2 percent lowing the cuts to last a full year cuts on programs including Medicare, veterans' medical care, community and migrant health centers and Indian health facilities.

The result is a 5.3 percent cut applied evenly among eligible domestic programs.

Early on, agencies - which re-One of the bill's authors, Sen. Phil ceive their budgets in monthly or quarterly allotments - cope by delaying purchases, leaving vacant jobs unfilled, reducing travel and shifting money within accounts.

Technically, the Gramm-Rudman cuts "temporarily" took effect Oct. 1, and agencies have been watching their budgets since then.
