U.S. declines Iranian offer for hostage deal

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — President Hashemi Rafsanjani on Monday of-fered help in getting Western hos-tages freed in Lebanon if the United States releases billions of dollars in frozen Iranian assets or helps settle the cases of three kidnapped Irani-

Rafsanjani said hostage-taking is an "inhuman action" that can pro-duce no positive political results. Eighteen Westerners, including eight Americans, are believed to be held by pro-Iranian groups in Lebanon.

While Rafsanjani said his government was maintaining indirect contacts with Washington, his offer and demands were not new. White House press secretary Mar-lin Fitzwater said Rafsanjani's comments did not change the U.S. position.

'We do not link the Iranian assets to the hostages and we do not make deals for hostages," he said.

Rafsanjani spoke at a three-hour news conference attended by about 50 foreign media representatives is-sued visas specifically for the event. Sitting behind a small table in the high-ceilinged hall of the presi-dential office in downtown Tehran, Rafsanjani spoke in a soft voice, smiling frequently as he played with a string of worry beads.

Responding to a question from a U.S. reporter, Rafsanjani said he had proposed "two methods" that the United States could use to facilitate release of the hostages.

The first is that as a sign of goodwill, you release our assets," he said. "This is something that you will have to do, and sooner or later you will be forced to do it. So do it now.

Secondly, if you do not want to give us our money, at least you can get your agents, your lackeys in Lebanon to release our hostages. If you say they are not alive, at least you can give us back their bodies or show us oir graves.' The assets, estimated at between $9 billion and $12 billion, have been frozen since the U.S. Embassy was seized by students in Tehran in November 1979, nine months after the East German factory workers establish Reform labor union

BERLIN (AP) — Several hundred employees of an East German factory have formed an independent union, a worker spokesman said Monday, stirring memories of Solidarity's challenge a decade ago to an mocracy

Workers at the Wilhelm Pieck electronics factory in Teltow, a suburb of East Berlin, call their union Reform.

It is the first independent labor union in this commu-nist nation, as Solidarity was the first in the Soviet bloc, and includes the right to strike among its demands. There was no comment from the government.

ZDF television in West Germany quoted a Reform spokesman as saying workers in entire sections of the plant had resigned from the state Freie Deutsche Gewerkschaftsbund labor federation. It said workers had appealed to comrades in other factories to spread the new union.

A crowd estimated at 300,000 by supporters and "over 100,000" by the official news agency ADA marched through downtown Leipzig demanding more democratic society. For the first time, a Roman Catholic church was made available to activists for the weekly demonstrations and rallies.

Lutheran church sources said police did not interfere with the peaceful parade. More than 120,000 people filled the streets of Leipzig a week ago to demand reform.

Marchers carried placards reading "Egon, who asked us?" and "We want dialogue, not lies."

In East Berlin, 3,000 pro-democracy activists held a vigil in the Gethsemane Lutheran-Church to suppor their comrades in Leipzig. ADN said about 40,000 peo-ple rallied in Schwerin, a northwestern city, in an even sponsored by the Communist Party to encourage da logue between citizens and the leadership. Cor boo reco
