Grand jury indicts driver who hit bus

Decision sealed until Guerra arrest made

EDINBURG (AP) — A Hidalgo County grand jury Tuesday issued a sealed indictment naming the driver of a truck involved in a South Texas school bus accident that killed 21 children in September.

The driver, Ruben Perez, 25, of Mission, could be arrested Wednesday on the charges contained in the 21-count indictment, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra said.

Guerra has said the most likely charges stemming from the bus crash would be involuntary manslaughter, a third-degree felony carrying a maximum penalty of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine; or criminally negligent homicide, a Class A misdemeanor carrying a maximum penalty of 1 year in jail and a $2,000 fine.

"I'm going to seal the indictment because the accused is not in custody," State District Judge Fernando Mancias told the grand jury after it reported its decision to indict in the 93rd District Court.

The grand jury spent three full days in sessions over the past two weeks investigating the Sept. 21 accident.

Perez told investigators his truck's brakes failed just before he ran a stop sign and struck the bus, push-ing it into a water-filled pit. Most of 21 junior and senior high school students who died drowned. About 60 others were injured.

Perez has been on paid suspen-sion from Valley Coca Cola Bottling Co., the owner of the truck, since the accident.

The National Transportation Safety Board's full report is not expected for another year. The grand jury heard from witnesses and used a preliminary NTSB report, along with a Texas Department of Public Safety report, in its deliberations.

The preliminary NTSB report said that although some of the brakes were out of adjustment, there was enough braking power to stop the loaded, 44,000-pound soft drink
