Service Awareness Day helps organizations

Approximately 15 service organizations from the Bryan-College Station area will participate in MSC Hospitality's Service Awareness Day Tuesday.

The Service Awareness Day will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the first floor of the Memorial Student Center.

Representatives from organizations promoting animal welfare, crime prevention, drug and alcohol education and other issues will be present to inform students.

Kristi Jackson, chairman of MSC Hospitality, said the program has been a success the last five semesters it has been held.

Jackson said it is helpful to students to be aware of service organizations in the area. She said the organizations also benefit by gaining volunteers.

HCA Greenleaf Hospital, Planned Parenthood, Mothers Against Drunk Driving and Twin City Mission are among the service organizations expected to be present.

students demonstrating financial need, he said. Personalized collegiate license plates are available for $70 more than the cost of regular plates, he said.

Applications for collegiate license plates are available at the Brazos County tax assessor's office. Cindy Barnes, a worker in the motor vehicle department of the tax assessor's office, said the fees for the plates must be paid at the time of application. It takes six to eight weeks to get the plates after the application is turned in, she said.

Smith said applications will be placed at various campus locations in upcoming weeks.

"We've got 10,000 applications here," Smith said. "We're going to put some at the information desk at Rudder, in the dining halls, in the bookstore, in the Clayton Williams Center and in other high traffic areas.

Smith said she and a number of other people, including members of the A&M Board of Regents, prominent former students and A&M President William Mobley, already have applied. The first plates will be delivered after May 1, she said.

A&M officials are optimistic about the license plate sales, Smith said.

"I hope we can sell 10,000 plates in this community alone," he said. "I think that's a reasonable goal. I expect we will outperform the other state institutions in the number of plates that are sold statewide."

"We're really excited about the program. The cause is good, and we're encouraging everybody to show their flag by buying one. I have a feeling this will go over particularly well with Aggies because we do like to show the colors."

Any decal or marking on a regular license plate is illegal, Smith said.
