Ags

Johnson's rebuilt squad when it goes up against Southwest Conference powerhouses Texas and Arkansas?

Gilbert said the Aggies have the capability to score runs in 1990. It'll just take some work.

"We've always felt our pitching staff was there," he said. "We definitely have the talent at the plate. I think it'll come together."

But Broussard said this season's A&M club is going to be far different from last year's 58-7 squad, where no starter had lower than a .300 hitting percentage.

Still, that doesn't mean the Aggies will suffer at the plate this year. It just indicates they'll have to work a lot harder for their runs, Broussard said.

"We're not the power team from last year," he said. "We're going to be a scrappy team this season. The majority of our games this year we're only going to win by one, two or three runs. It'll all come down to execution."

"If we execute, we'll be all right."

Douglas now looking for a Tyson rematch

NEW YORK (AP) — Now, the boxing world agrees: Buster Douglas is heavyweight champion.

And there apparently is agreement on another front: His first challenger will be Mike Tyson.

Douglas-Tyson II came close to clearing the final hurdle Tuesday when Evander Holyfield's manager, Ken Sanders, said in Atlanta that his boxer probably would step aside to allow the rematch.

Billionaire developer Donald Trump says Douglas-Tyson II will be June 18 in Atlantic City, although Douglas has not signed a contract.

In fact, Douglas only learned hours earlier that he was undisputed champion when the World Boxing Association became the last of the sport's three major governing bodies to recognize his 10th-round knockout of Tyson on Sunday in Tokyo.

"We don't have a rematch now," Don King, Tyson's promoter and adviser, said Tuesday at a news conference. "We're trying to get one. The first thing we have to do is get a rematch. As you know, the catching comes before the hanging."

Tyson, who appeared with King at the news conference, said his loss was "a temporary, minor setback. I don't take it to heart. I'll be the champion again. I'm still one of the best fighters in the world and when the rematch comes I'll prove it."

"We've been approached to make a deal, by Don King, to step aside and make way for the rematch," Sanders said. "We're waiting for the contract from him. If it's what they said it would be, we probably would do it."

"They're just asking us to move it three or four months," Sanders said. "It's a very good deal for us. We know we're going to fight for the championship."

The International Boxing Federation recognized Douglas as champion immediately, and the World Boxing Council extended recognition Monday night after King, who promotes Tyson, dropped a protest of the result.

"I never asked anybody to change the decision," King said.

shortstop Russell Ferrell drove a 2-2 pitch to center field that moved Jones to third base with one out. Johnson had sophomore Ronnie Allen and junior Steve Hughes warming up in the bullpen, but decided to let Bullard try to get out of the one-out, two-men-on situation by himself.

He did. Bullard forced Derrick Copes to ground out to Witte, and then got Lenny Tallo to hit a chopper to shortstop Jason Marshall. Marshall threw to first baseman Jeff Bernet to end the game.

It marked the fifth straight time the Aggies have beaten the Bearkats. They meet again March 7, when the Aggies travel to Huntsville for a 2 p.m. contest. But A&M's win Tuesday showed a possible trouble sign for things to come.

If the Aggies could manage only five hits against a SHSU team that was tabbed in the preseason as the fourth best club in the Southland Conference, what will happen to recognize that also. The Aggies have received 24 known non-binding, verbal commitments from prep athletes.

A&M is expected to sign 25 players Wednesday, the maximum under NCAA guidelines. The Aggies have landed an incredible array of talent — 17 commitments from the Dallas Times Herald Top 100 prospects list, 22 from the Dallas Morning News Top 100, 19 from the Houston Chronicle Top 100 and 20 from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Top 100.

This figures to be one of the best, if not the best, recruiting classes the Aggies have had. That includes the class of 1987, which included running backs Randy Simmons and Darren Lewis, tabbed as the Nos. 1 and 2 runners in the nation back then.

A&M is holding a 3 p.m. press conference at Cain Hall Wednesday to announce its recruiting booty.

And though strange things can happen on national signing day, if all things hold up, the Aggies will be set for years to come to remain on top of the SWC throne.

A&M received its first blue chip commitment Monday in Waco High defensive end Kefa Chatham. But A&M's list of hopeful talent that will wear maroon runs much deeper than the color blue.

It includes highly touted quarterbacks Jeff Granger and Steve Emerson, Dallas Carter running back Greg Hill, wide receiver Ryan Matthews, defensive lineman John Richard and linebacker Charles Burrell.

The Aggies are still in the running for blue chip defensive back Clifton Abraham and running back Daron Washington.

So far, Granger and Chatham have been the cream of the crop. But who can tell with recruits, when a high school player must learn to make the difficult adjustment to collegiate football?

It doesn't matter. The Aggies have made a habit of taking talented high school players and molding them into college stars. Wednesday's banner crop will only mean they'll be sitting pretty for years to come.
