

Come Play
VOLLEYBALL
Live Oak Nudist Resort
Washington, TX
(409) 878-2216

DESIGNED FOR ROOMMATES
2 BR/2 BA
Split floor plan
New frost-free refrigerators and new look coming soon!
Preleasing Now!
BRAZOS HOUSE APARTMENTS
2401 Welsh, C.S. 693-9957

$3.50 Daily TUESDAY
All Seats
Selected (Discount Tuesday) Feature

MANOR EAST III
MANOR EAST MALL 823-8300
MEN DON'T LEAVE * PG-13 7:10 9:35
REVENGE * R 7:00 9:40
DOWNTOWN * R 7:20 9:45

PLAZA THREE
228 SOUTHWEST PKWY 693-2457
GLORY * R 7:00 9:45
STELLA * PG-13 7:15 9:40
DRIVING MISS DAISY * PG 7:05 9:35

SCHULMAN SIX
2000 E. 29TH STREET 775-2463
COURAGE MOUNTAIN * PG 7:20 9:40

$1 DOLLAR MOVIES $1
ALWAYS PG 7:10 9:55
TREMORS PG-13 7:05 9:35
BACK TO THE FUTURE II PG 7:00 9:30
LOOK WHO'S TALKING * PG-13 7:15 9:45
CHRISTMAS VACATION PG-13 7:25 10:00

All University Party!!
SEA-n-SKI Spring Break-Fest
Wednesday, March 7th
at the Grove
8-12 Midnight
Stay tuned for more details
(The Break-Fest of Champions)

ARTS FEST ART CONTEST

MSC VISUAL ARTS PRESENTS
AN ANNUAL STUDENT
ART COMPETITION

ENTRIES ACCEPTED IN THE MSC VISUAL ARTS GALLERY ON FEB. 28, AND MARCH 1 & 2 FROM 10 am TO 3 pm. ENTRY FEE $4.00 PER PIECE WITH A FOUR PIECE LIMIT. FOR MORE INFORMATION CALL-VISUAL ARTS 845-9252.

TODAY $2.50 TUESDAYS

CINEPLEX ODEON THEATRE GUIDE
★ SELECTED FILMS NOT INCLUDED CHECK LISTING BELOW...
CINEMA THREE
315 College 693-2796

| | | |
|----------------------|------|------|
| Steel Magnolias (PG) | 7:00 | 9:20 |
| Hard to Kill (R) | 7:15 | 9:15 |
| Rockula (PG-13) | 7:30 | 9:30 |

POST OAK THREE
1500 Harvey Road 693-2796

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----------|
| Born On The Fourth Of July (R) | 8:00 |
| MADHOUSE (PG-13) | 7:30 9:30 |
| NIGHTBREED (R) | 7:00 9:15 |

AGGIE CINEMA

International Series Presents
News Attack

February 27
7:30 PM
MSC 201
Free Admission

Co-sponsored by the Chinese Association
Aggie Cinema Information Hotline - 847-8478
Next Aggie Cinema General Meeting will be Monday, March 5 at 7:00 PM in room 502 Rudder.

A&M's Milton honored

Senior awarded Player of Week for stellar play

The Milton Update

| Game | Points | Assists |
|--------------------|--------|---------|
| Arkansas (Feb. 21) | 23 | 6 |
| Rice (Feb. 24) | 25 | 9 |

It's been a long wait for Texas A&M senior point guard Tony Milton. Milton, after being nominated nine times in the past 12 weeks, was named Southwest Conference Co-Player of the Week Monday for his performance in last week's games against Arkansas and Rice. Houston's Carl Herrera also was named to the award. Wednesday will provide a meeting for both Milton and Herrera, as the Aggies host the Cougars at G. Rollie White Coliseum. Tipoff is set for 7:30 p.m. Milton scored 23 points and added seven rebounds and six assists in last Wednesday's 114-100 loss to nationally ranked Arkansas. He followed up that performance in Saturday's 103-95 win over Rice with 25 points and nine assists. For the week, he averaged 24.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 7.5 assists, made 17-of-33 field goal attempts (50.9 percent), nine-of-12 free throw

A&M coach John Thornton said Milton deserved the honor because the senior has meant so much to the Aggies this season. He is one of only four seniors on a young A&M team. "Tony has been a very consistent player for us all season and is an intense competitor," Thornton said. "He's been very deserving of the honor, which is a tribute to the entire team." He is the first Aggie to be honored this season. Three Lady Aggies have won the award this year. Milton has started in 58 straight games since transferring to A&M prior to last season from Central Florida Junior College. He was named the Florida JUCO Player of the Year by USA Today. On the year, he leads the Aggies with a 20.5 scoring average, second in the SWC, and averages 6.9 assists per game, also second in the SWC. With 951 career points, Milton could become only the second two-year player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau. The other is Don Marbury (1984-86), who scored 1,162 points in 61 games at A&M. Milton ranks second on A&M's single season assists list with 193, and should easily break Darryl McDonald's record of 196 set in 1987-88.

Lady Ags host Lady Cougars in SWC action

By VINCE SNYDER
Of The Battalion Staff

After a hard-fought victory over Rice Saturday night the Lady Aggies basketball team will play their next to last game of the regular season tonight as they host the Lady Cougars at G. Rollie White Coliseum. Tipoff is set for 7:30. A&M squeaked out a narrow win, 74-69, against the Lady Owls in overtime with junior guard Yvonne Hill sinking two shots in the final seconds of regulation time to keep the Lady Aggies alive. Hill was fouled with only one second left on the clock and had to make both free throws to push the game into overtime. Despite a timeout called by Rice before the first shot and two more before the second, Hill made both buckets tying the game, 66-66. "The timeouts didn't really bother me. They didn't rattle me at all," Hill said. "Finally, though, I went up to the referee and asked if they had any more timeouts left. I just wanted to get it over with." A&M was able to hold on for the overtime win despite the loss of three of their starters at the end of regulation. With this win the Lady Aggies increase their record to 16-9 overall and 8-6 in Southwest Conference play. However, they are tied for fourth place in the conference with the Lady Cougars. UH is coming off a six day rest since downing Texas Christian University, 89-58, last Wednesday in Houston. The Lady Cougars are 3-3 since the last time they faced the Lady Aggies. But UH has won three of its last four contests after dropping back-to-back games to conference co-leaders Texas and Arkansas. "Houston has been playing very well, particularly the past few weeks, and they have a lot of momentum going into the final week of the season," A&M Head Coach Lynn Hickey said. A&M trails, 21-17, in the series with Houston, but the Lady Aggies have won their last four meetings with the Lady Cougars. A&M won 73-61 in College Station, 90-77 in Houston, and 86-73 in Dallas in the SWC tourney last year. The Lady Aggies kept their streak alive with a 88-67 win over the Lady Cougars earlier this season at Holtheinz Pavilion. A&M's senior guard Lisa Herner had her best outing in four years as she connected on 9-of-12 field goals and 10-of-11 free throws to score a career-high 28 points. Herner also collected four rebounds and three steals and dished out seven assists on her way to claiming the SWC Player of the Week honors.

One year after the massacre, Cowboys still going nowhere

IRVING (AP) — One year ago, the NFL witnessed an apocalypse of the Dallas Cowboys. After the "Saturday night massacre" on Feb. 25, 1989, the only thing that didn't change was the name of the team. Tom Landry, the only coach in the team's 29 years of existence, was fired. Club President Tex Schramm, rendered powerless and dispirited by the change of ownership, eventually left. Personnel director Gil Brandt, the last of the Cowboys' "Big Three" who accounted for 19 consecutive winning seasons and five Super Bowls, was sacked. Front office staffers, secretaries, and assistant coaches were released. Veteran players such as Randy and Danny White were encouraged to retire. Others were cut. Running back Herschel Walker, the only offensive star left on the team, was traded. Owner Jerry Jones brashly predicted his good buddy and new head coach Jimmy Johnson would win more games in the first third of the season than Landry had (three) in 1988. But Jerry and Jimmy found it wasn't that easy in the cannibalistic NFL. One victory football is all they managed and all they have in the trophy case one year after the upheaval of what once was "America's Team." Landry is more popular than ever. He has done a smash television commercial (sings in it, no less) and recently was chosen on first ballot as an inductee into the Professional Football Hall of Fame. Schramm is biding his time and biting his tongue about the upheaval at Valley Ranch as he awaits the start of the World League of American Football in the spring of 1991. Jones and most of the NFL teams are partners in the undertaking. Brandt has been keeping a low profile as he plots his next professional move. He appears at basketball games and is critical of the way the new regime has done business. Jones has tried to make peace with the fans and his critics. "I handled the Landry situation poorly," he said. "But there wasn't an easy way to handle it. Jimmy was going to be my coach." Johnson, accustomed to the heady success of national championship teams at the University of Miami, was stunned the Cowboys didn't perform better. "The players we have now love football and have a winning attitude," he said. "Replacing the veteran players hurt us more than we thought. We thought we'd win more games." When you visit Jones' office — formerly Schramm's — the first things you notice are the Cowboys' two Super Bowl championship trophies. A year after the "Saturday Night Massacre," the Cowboys have never been farther away from another one.

Longhorns sign top-rated prep pitching prospect

AUSTIN (AP) — Pitcher Todd Van Poppel of Arlington Martin, considered a strong possibility to be the first pick of the major league draft in June, has committed to the University of Texas. Van Poppel, a 6-foot-5, 210-pound right-handed power pitcher, chose the Longhorns over Miami, Louisiana State and Texas A&M. He said chances are "pretty good right now" that he will attend college rather than sign a professional contract. "I haven't given too much thought to the pro draft," said Van Poppel. "I'll cross that bridge when I come to it." Van Poppel and Cleburne pitcher Mark Lummus became the fifth and sixth recruits to choose the Longhorns.

Patriots turn sour on Berry

Former assistant Rust top candidate for replacement

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Raymond Berry was fired Monday as coach of the New England Patriots in a power struggle with General Manager Pat Sullivan. Pittsburgh defensive coordinator Rod Rust, a former Patriots' assistant, reportedly was the top candidate to succeed Berry. The firing came one day before Berry's 57th birthday and after 5½ seasons on the job. He had one season left on his five-year contract. Sullivan had no comment on the firing, but said he would meet with reporters Tuesday. The team released a statement saying simply that Berry had been relieved of his duties. The Steelers said they had given Rust permission to talk with the Patriots. The Patriots were 5-11 last season and missed the NFL playoffs for the third consecutive year. Berry, who had worked without offensive and defensive coordinators in 1989, was pressured by Sullivan to add those positions. But while Sullivan reportedly preferred outsiders, Berry wanted to fill those spots from his current staff. Last December, shortly after the season, Patriots owner Victor Kiam reportedly offered former San Francisco coach Bill Walsh the job of club president and the power to hire a coach or take the job himself. When Walsh declined, Berry appeared to be on firmer ground entering the final year of his contract, which reportedly gave him control over team personnel. But after Berry is said to have told Sullivan he planned to split the offensive coordinator's job between running back coach Bobby Griener and quarterback coach Richard Wood, Sullivan went to Kiam. The owner gave Sullivan permission to find a new coach. "It was time for Pat to step up to the plate and take charge," Kiam said. The Patriots were 48-39 under Berry. If Rust, 61, is hired, it would be his first NFL head coaching job. An assistant with four pro teams the past 14 years, Rust was defensive coordinator for 3½ seasons before filling that position with Kansas City in 1988 and the Steelers in 1989.

MSC Public Relations Committee presents

Public Relations Workshops

Feb. 27, 1990
ADVERTISING LAYOUT
with Dr. Wegener
145 MSC 6:15-7:00 p.m.

Feb. 28, 1990
PUBLIC SPEAKING
with Dr. C. Westfall
352 MSC 5-5:45 p.m.

OPEN TO GENERAL PUBLIC

The First Step: A survival workshop on interviewing

Speaker:
Randi Mays-Knapp '79
Head Recruiter
Andersen Consulting
Houston, Texas

Wednesday, February 28, 1990
4:00-5:00p.m.
302 Rudder Tower

Free workshop hosted by the
MSC MBA/Law Committee

