

The Battalion

Page 13

WLady Ag netters compete in tourney

Photo by Scott D. Weaver

A&M's Susan Williams returns a Lady Long- Feb. 25 at Omar Smith Tennis Center. The Lady noms' shot with a powerful backhand Sunday, Aggies compete in Wisconsin today.

By VINCE SNYDER Of The Battalion Staff

The Texas A&M women's tennis team will compete in the United team will compete in the United States Tennis Association/Intercolle-giate Tennis Coaches Association's National Indoor Team Tennis Championships starting Thursday and continuing through Sunday. The tournament will be held at the Nielsen Tennis Stadium on the University of Wisconsin campus in Madison, WI. The Lady Aggies will face Okla-

The Lady Aggies will face Oklahoma State at 9 a.m. Thursday, in the first round of the 16-team field. A&M is ranked 19th in the Volvo Tennis/Collegiate Rankings, while OSU is 9th.

"This is a great opportunity for our team," A&M Coach Bobby Klei-necke said. "We need to go all out and we need to upset some teams. That would make up for our slow start in Utah.

This will mark the Lady Aggies first appearance in the event's three-year history. Top-ranked and top-seeded Standford University won the title last year.

The 16 teams involved in the tournament include 13 of the top 14 teams in the Volvo rankings. Each team is quaranteed to play at least three matches during the four day event. The championship match is scheduled to begin at noon on Sun-

Mardi Gras... The party's not over yet

Fish Ball

March 2, 1990 8:00 - 12:00 MSC Ballroom Tickets on sale now! $5. Available at Commons, Sbisa & Duncan

MSC Class Council of '93

Lady Ags at home O'Donovan leads Ags to Softball team opens home season Corpus Christi tournament today as it plays host Nebraska

am will open the home portion of eir 1990 schedule today as they ost the Nebraska Huskers in a dou-cheader at Lady Aggie Softball reld in College Station. First pitch is eduled for 5 p.m.

first eek.

The Lady Aggies will carry a 5-2 record into today's game with all seven of those games being played on the road. A&M beat Texas-Ar-LOSE ngton, Tuesday, by 3-1 and 7-0 punts in Arlington. The Lady Agght es went 3-2 last weekend to finish cond in the Louisiana Classics Itics urnament in Lafayette, La.

Of The Battalion Staff The Texas A&M men's tennis

team travels to Corpus Christi this week to participate in the 22nd An-nual H.E.B. College Tennis Team Championships, Thursday through Sunday

By NADJA SABAWALA

Twenty-four teams, including five from the Southwest Conference, will compete in the four-day event in the H.E.B. Tennis Center.

The Aggies start off the tournament against 4-1 Harvard at 2 p.m. The winner will go on to face No. 13 Clemson while the loser will play the loser of the Southern Methodist versus Southwestern Lousiana game.

"Harvard is always tough," A&M coach David Kent said. "They're the best team in the East, but we've got a pretty good team. "I feel like we'll do well.'

A&M's No. 1 singles player, senior Shaun O'Donovan (14-6), will at-tempt to keep his 1990 year his hottest. O'Donovan is 7-0 in dual match and 7-6 in tournament play. The Aggies' dual match record is 6-1, including an impressive win over 25th-ranked Trinity. "We need to beat some people in the Top 20 to get into the poll," Kent said."This will be a good chance to do that." A&M's top three singles players are O'Donovan, senior Gustavo Es-pinosa and junior Matt Zisette.

pinosa/Zisette, O'Donovan and sophomore Doug Brown, and junior Steve Kennedy/junior Mike Castillo. "This is a big weekend for us," Kent said. "There are 24 teams and they're all tough.'

Other teams in the tournament include top-seeded South Carolina, eighth-ranked Texas Christian, No. 10 Mississippi and No. 20 Arizona.

The Aggies return to College Station to meet Wake Forest March 6 at 1:30 p.m. at the Omar Smith Tennis Center.

1 • 1

Ag swimming team visits

The Texas A&M men's swim team ll be hoping for the chance to hold on to their postion as the No. 3 team in the Southwest Conference stand-8. The ings when they compete in the SWC last 10 Swimming and Diving Championhips this weekend in Austin.

last six. The three-day meet is scheduled start today and continue through at the Texas Swimming the Center on the University of Texas their 11th straight SWC crown while SMU is expected to finish second.

The Texas A&M women's softball A&M Coach Bob Brock said. "But Nebraska is always one of the top teams in the country, and I'm sure they'll come here ready to play." The Huskers will be seeing their first action of the 1990 season when they square off against the Lady Aggies today. Nebraska went 32-28 last year and posted a 7-3 conference re-cord to finish second behind Oklahoma State in the Big Eight.

A&M holds an 11-2 edge in the series with Nebraska. Last year, the Lady Aggies split the last two games of the season with the Huskers, win-Tm excited about this team. ning 3-2 and losing 4-2 in the final We're doing real well right now,"

Austin for SWC tourney

Campus. The Aggies will be hoping to repeat their third place finish from 1988 and 1989 while also qualifying. several individuals and relays for the NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships, scheduled for March 22-24 in Indianapolis. The Texas Longhorns are favored to win

A&M rugby squad competing for kicks

By CLAY RASMUSSEN Of The Battalion Staff es

DS

I have

schoo

e to our

- reg

sis.

and ally.

regis

If you're missing football, and seball just isn't providing you with 9 to US baseball just isn't providing you with the rush of excitement that comes A.s white A&M rugby team has just what you ady time need. grades Students can get a dose of A&M nugby this Saturday at the Rugby Onal sys Fields, as Texas A&M hosts the on list Fields, as Texas A&M hosts the Texas Collegiate Rugby Champion-you results. Teams from around Texas, ou her including Texas Tech, Houston, ou her including Texas Tech, Houston, ou her including Texas and Southern Method-ist, will compete for a shot at advanc-will get ing to the Western United States added Collegiate Championship in April. "Rugby is 80 minutes of running, one that passing and hitting," junior winger v all sty lames Goodman said. Goodman, an animal science ma-Emoriza

Goodman, an animal science major, graduated from A&M Consol-idated after transferring from Australia in 1983. He brought with him a burning desire to continue his rugby carrer.

Not many people on campus are most promising team since 1986." aware of the rugby team, or its winning tradition. Formed in 1975 as an dominated Texas, winning 12 con-

1986. Goodman, the Aggies' team (16-9) representative, said the 1986 team "Th was one of the strongest until it lost most of its starters to graduation.

But Goodman said 1990 looks us with good years to come." fix, the A& romising for the Aggies. The bulk of A&M's rugby team they crave. promising for the Aggies.

ing us with a serious shortage of showed up to give it a shot.

quality players," Goodman said. "We Goodman said that anyone inter-lost the title in 1987 to Southwest ested in rugby, with a willingness to Texas State University.

'We've been rebuilding since then the team. and I think the 1990 team is the aware of the rugby team, or its win-ning tradition. Formed in 1975 as an extramural sport, the rugby team lishing a dominance in the Texas Collegiate Organization.

As M is 4-0 this spring, with one-sided wins against the University of trexas Collegiate Tournament in the final state of the spring state of the

"In 1987, the team that had won comes from students that have bethe '86 tournament graduated, leav- come interested in the game and

Goodman said that anyone interrun and drink beer is a candidate for

"We get a lot of people who don't really know rugby," Goodman said. "They want to get involved in contact sports, and we provide that for them.

"We get all types, from the high

(16-9). "This years crop of players is a good one," Goodman said. "The depth we've aquired should provide multiply good years to come." A little bit of football, shades of pas-ketball and pieces of hockey. And for those people needing a sports fix, the A&M Rugby team has what Rugby has it all for the sports fan.

"It's an exciting, fast-paced spectator sport," Goodman said. "It's just plain exciting.'

NOW OPEN SATURDAY

Parts and Service 8 a.m.-1 p.m.

—Parts and Service Hours— Mon.-Fri. 7:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m. 775-9444

