Ags host LSU in rematch at Olsen Field

By ALAN LEHMANN Of The Battalion Staff

The No. 22 Texas A&M baseball team will be looking for revenge when it faces No. 11 LSU Friday at 3 p.m. at Olsen Field.

The Aggies and Tigers will finish the three-game set with a 1 p.m. doubleheader Saturday.

Last May, the Tigers ended the Aggies' season by beating them twice in the NCAA Central Regional 13-5 and 5-4 in College Station.

It was a tough way to end such a promising season for the 58-7 Aggies, said senior catcher John Wood "The feeling was something I'll never really be able to describe," Wood said. "The pain felt sort of like somebody had died.'

The Tigers won't be the only new faces at Olsen Field. The Aggies returned no position starters from last year's team, and have had to rely on IUCO transfers this season.

All three games will be broadcast on the radio by KTAM (1240 AM). Saturday's games will be televised on TCA Cable Channel 31.

Spurs: All is not happy in paradise

Brown unhappy, yearns for college coaching

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Spurs coach Larry Brown yearns for his days as a collegiate coach and could return to the college ranks after the NBA season, according to a published report.

Despite success with the Spurs this season, Brown said he is frustrated over the lengthy NBA season and its lack of time for practice and teach-

He also regrets not accepting the UCLA coaching job after leaving the University of Kansas in 1988, the year he took over as Spurs coach, the San Antonio Express-News reported Thursday
