ning six during a banner 1988 season, he was labeled as overrated.

But Agassi's game is on the rise again. The 6-1, 6-4, 0-6, 6-2 victory over Edberg avenged a four-set loss to the Swede two weeks earlier at a tournament in Indian Wells, Calif.

"I try to get better every time I go out there," Agassi said.

The tournament boosted Edberg from third to second in the world rankings and Agassi from fifth to fourth. Agassi was as high as third in

Tennis team split pair with TCU, Baylor

The Texas A&M men's tennis team was challenged by more than just the weather this weekend. Friday afternoon, the Aggies lost a match 7-2 to Texas Christian but on Saturday, they came back to defeat Baylor 6-0 despite strong winds and cold weather.

The Aggies' split last weekend gives them a 12-5 record overall and 1-3 in the Southwest Conference. The Horned Frogs, rated 11th in the Volvo/Intercollegiate Tennis Coaches Association rankings, remain undefeated in conference play.

A&M was led by a stellar performance by No. 1 singles' player, senior Shaun O'Donovan. In a hard-fought match Friday, O'Donovan defeated TCU's Luis Ruette, 7-6, 1-6, 7-5. Ruette is ranked 21st in the country.

"I cannot say enough about the performance of Shaun O'Donovan," head coach David Kent said. "We were outplayed today," Kent said. "We have no excuses.
