

Gee whiz! Ag paces All-SWC

Junior golfer leads pack of underclassmen

From Staff and Wire Reports

Texas A&M's Bobby Gee was named to the 12-player All-Southwest Conference men's golf team Tuesday. The junior, who won last week's SWC Tournament, leads six underclassmen on the squad.

Bill Montigel of Texas Christian was named Coach of the Year in balloting by the league's coaches.

"With his great tournament win, it's just another positive for him to be selected all-conference," A&M Coach Bob Ellis said. "We have struggled a little bit this year, and I was pleased to see it close this way with Bobby playing the way he is." McGee will be one of two amateurs to participate in next month's Southwestern Bell Colonial tournament.

Bobby Gee

Texas, which won the regular-season title and tournament team championship, had the largest number of players named to the all-conference team with four selections.

The Longhorns honored were senior Brad Agee, juniors Kyle Jerome and Omar Uresti, and sophomore Taylor Tipton.

Houston, Texas Christian and Baylor had two players apiece named to the team.

The Cougars were represented by senior Dee Green and freshman Thad Harbour. Harbour was the only freshman named to the squad.

Junior Chad Magee and senior Mark Massengale were the TCU players, while seniors Tom Cismoski and Tim Hobby were named from Baylor.

Rice's Mark Pfingston, the 1989 SWC individual champion, also was named to the team.

Foreman KO's Jameson, sets sights on title

STATELINE, Nev. (AP) — Former heavyweight champion George Foreman pummeled the ample belly of overmatched Mike Jameson, bloodied his eye and knocked him out in the fourth round Tuesday night to stay on track for a title shot.

Foreman, slow and plodding but still much quicker and sharper than Jameson, ended the bout at 2:16 of the fourth with a left hook that dropped Jameson in a heap in his own corner. Earlier in the round, Foreman knocked Jameson's mouthpiece out for the third time in the fight, and opened a deep, ugly gash over his left eye that led to a brief halt while the ringside doctor checked the damage.

Jameson was breathing hard from the body blows and had blood dripping down his face when referee Mills Lane began to move in, apparently intent on stopping the fight. Before Lane could intervene, Foreman hit Jameson with the left hook to end it.

"I can take a good punch," Jameson said. "But by God, he hit me harder than anyone, even Mike Tyson. He hits you with those hands, it's like a wrecking ball coming at you."

When Foreman started his comeback 21 fights ago, in 1987, he had two goals — to get his boys club out of hock, and to win the heavyweight title again.

He's accomplished his first goal and has a chance for the second, with a possible stop first to pick up several million dollars fighting Tyson in the fall. Foreman's next fight will be against Adilson Rodrigues of Brazil in June.

If Foreman keeps winning and can beat Tyson, he hopes then to fight the champion, Buster Douglas, or his challenger in September, Evander Holyfield.

Mavs squeak past slumping Jazz, 97-96

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Mavericks almost blew a 15-point fourth-quarter lead but survived a late Utah rally Tuesday night to beat the Jazz, 97-96, behind the 24 points of Derek Harper.

With the loss, Utah, the Midwest Division leader, slipped to within a game of runner-up San Antonio, which hosts the Jazz Wednesday night.

Harper scored eight of his 24 points to lead a 23-2 first half spurt, then scored back-to-back baskets down the stretch.

Thurl Bailey's layup for Utah with 40.5 seconds remaining closed the score to 97-96.

Harper threw up an airball off a three-point try with 21.2 seconds remaining but time expired, preventing the Jazz from completing a four-game series sweep of Dallas.

Bailey's 18-footer from the left corner came after time expired, preventing the Jazz from completing a four-game series sweep of Dallas.

Karl Malone scored five of seven straight points by the Jazz that made the game close in the final period, closing a 91-81 Dallas lead to 91-88 at 3:18.

But Harper hit an off-balance 12-footer, then drove the middle for a layup to boost Dallas' lead to 95-88 with 2:33 left.

The game was tied 10-10 with 5:34 left in the first quarter when Harper drilled a three-pointer and converted a three-point play on a consecutive possessions.

Steve Alford completed the 23-2 run, hitting a top-of-the-key jumper to pad Dallas' advantage to 33-12 with 10:12 left until halftime.

The Mavericks used the first-half spurt to lead at halftime, 48-33. Utah's first-half output tied season-low for any half this season as the Jazz missed 16 of 27 first-quarter shots and hit only 30 percent of their first-half field goal attempts.

Malone had 18 first half points, but Bailey, Mark Eaton and Bobby Hansen — failed to score in the opening half.

Corps vs. Greeks? Groups get together for charity

By ALAN LEHMANN
Of The Battalion Staff

Cadets and fraternity members will face each other with bats in hand Wednesday night on Olsen Field.

But they won't be brawling. They'll be playing baseball.

Each team will be composed of 32 members and will play a nine-inning game, with the proceeds going toward scholarships.

Matt Poling, Corps of Cadets Commander, said the game was organized as an effort to increase interaction between the Corps and fraternities.

Robert Magee, the coach of the Corps team, agreed.

"It'll be a sort of social clash," Magee said. "We really don't interact much."

Inter-Fraternity Council President Field Hudgens agreed but said that the teams have met, had lunch together and got along well.

"This is just an example of how representatives from two groups can get along," Hudgens said. "Maybe this will pave the way for our organizations to work together in the future."

It should be a professional-looking rivalry anyway. Derrick Grubbs will be on hand to run the public address system, and will be calling lucky numbers.

Although the teams will not be competing for a trophy or cup, Poling said he hopes this will become an annual event.

"We need to get a lot of fans out," Magee said. "They'll see some good baseball and the $2 admission fee goes to a good cause."

Bruins advance to second round of hockey playoffs

BOSTON (AP) — Sparked by the surprising return of Ray Bourque and the goaltending of Andy Moog, the Boston Bruins advanced to the second round of the NHL playoffs with a 3-1, seventh-game victory over the Hartford Whalers on Tuesday night.

Bourque, who had been expected to miss his fifth straight game with a left hip bruise, played a regular shift, had one assist and was on ice for all three Boston goals.

Moog stopped 27 shots. Ray Francis made the score 3-1 on power play at 13:48 of the third period.

The Bruins open the best-of-seven Adams Division final at home Thursday night against Montreal.

Good news for people who shop.

Now you can use the Card for everything the Campus Bookstore sells.

Now it's easier than ever to pick up Plato, discover Proust, or even show your colors with a new campus sweatshirt. Just pay for whatever you need at the bookstore with the American Express® Card.

No American Express Card? No problem.

To become a Cardmember just complete and return one of the American Express Student Applications available at the bookstore. Once you're approved, you can enjoy added student Card privileges like discounted roundtrip airfares on Northwest Airlines.

So shop your bookstore today. From classic books to classic wear, the news is...you can use the Card for everything you buy.

Texas A&M University at Galveston Bookstore
Mitchell Campus, Galveston, TX 77553, (409) 740-4488
Store hours: Monday - Thursday 9:00 am - 4:30 pm; Friday 9:00 am - 3:00 pm

HOUSTON scored 11 points in an 18-2 foul helped the Ho the Sacramento day night.

Floyd finish seven assists a Rockets gained race with Seatt the Western Co

Houston im 40-39 with the regular season lost to the Le day night, Fe

The Rocke was ejected ea ter. A shoving

Traini Kar

HOUSTON of the waiting north Houston Mary Lou Ret two of the gi greatness in g more success.

For Karol achievements emergence of year-old Hou considered on gymnastics sta

"I used to out (here at wanted to be Zmeskal, who hi's facility the

Zmeskal, c pounds, has r the eyes of th earning gold around comp end's U.S. Cl and in the p American Cu Fairfax, Va.,

"Historical the America prominent ir women's gyr Nadia (Com "She won in an Olympic c 1983, coming the American later becomi pion. Then th and Phoebe M

Although l al in the sar and Retton's great things f

"She has a clients to bec est internatio ing years," K

Zmeskal's plishments, v er medal in proves she ad for herself at

Zmeskal b ation in th three gold in the U.S. Oly homa City la delivers his h takes a step b "Steeerike Seat cushie Olsen Field i triumphs on

Tisc (Continued

What an a wonderful ti baseball gam game anytim part of the cr

But it gets l was just so have my old Sounder in r come in han