

Lady Aggies sweep SFA in Wednesday twinbill

A&M improves to 39-15 on year on 1-0, 7-0 wins

The Texas A&M's women's softball team displayed strong pitching along with sound hitting as it swept Stephen F. Austin in a Wednesday night doubleheader at the Lady Aggie Softball Field.

The Lady Aggies scored only one run during the first game, winning it 1-0. In the second game the bats came alive as A&M scored all seven of their runs in the sixth inning, ending the game due to the seven run limit.

With the wins, the Lady Aggies move to 39-15 for the year, and 12-3 in region play. The Ladyjacks fall to 21-19.

"We were kind of in a slump lately," A&M Coach Bob Brock said. "But our two pitchers pitched good tonight in getting the two shutouts."

of Texas-Arlington on Tuesday, the Lady Aggies knew what they had to do in order to get back on the right track.

They did it with consistent pitching from Missi Young in the first game against SFA, and from Dana Mitchell in the second.

In the first game the score remained 0-0 until the bottom of the fourth inning when Stephanie Schulte walked to lead off for the Aggies.

She then reached second base on a sacrifice bunt by Angie Hughes. With a bad pitch by SFA pitcher Sandy Green, Schulte scampered to third with only one out for A&M.

Lady Aggies' second baseman Karen Kalhoefer drew a walk and kept going to second when SFA wasn't looking.

With A&M runners at second and third, Stacey Segal bounced to the shortstop bringing home Schulte who was gunned down at the plate.

Segal continued to second base repeating Kalhoefer's move, but the Ladyjacks were ready and threw to second.

The ball was thrown over the shortstop's head and rolled into center field. The overthrown ball allowed Kalhoefer to score from third and the Lady Aggies went up 1-0.

Young continued her on-target pitching as she chipped away the plate for strikes and held the Ladyjacks scoreless in the top of the seventh.

The second game got off to the same start, as both teams went scoreless going into the bottom of the sixth inning.

field, and then moved to second on a wild pitch.

Crainer then advanced to third as Michelle Mayfield slapped the ball in front of home plate and then beat out the throw to first.

Once again A&M snagged another base as Mayfield kept running to second while SFA was caught off guard.

Segal, A&M's next batter, was able to reach on an infielder's choice, loading the bases.

Lady Aggie Renee Blaha dropped a single into center field, bringing in two runs to make the score 2-0.

"I got the hit at the right time," Blaha said. "Their pitcher was pretty slow, and I had to time her pitch just right."

A&M continued to knock in runs, making the score 7-0, and was able to walk away with another victory over SFA.

"In the second game we seemed to put things together," Brock said. "Maybe this is a sign of things to come."

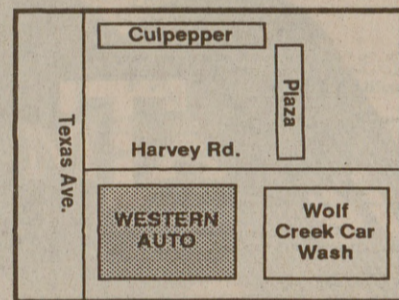

The Lady Aggies will be back in action tonight in another doubleheader at Lady Aggie Softball Field. They will take on the Lady Bobcats of Southwest Texas State. First pitch is set for 5 p.m.
