POLICE BEAT

The following incidents were reported to the Texas A&M University Police Department between May 2 and May 11

INDECENT EXPOSURE: A man was arrested for indecent exposure. FIRE:

• Dunn Hall was evacuated after a security officer notified the department that he observed smoke coming from the top of Dunn Hall. College Station Fire Department personnel verified that the fire started in the first floor trash chute. Residents remained outside until a representative of the Health and Safety Department authorized re-entry. The cause of the fire is still unknown ASSAULT:

• A man was assaulted in his Aston Hall room by another man who tried to start a fight by pushing him. The men had exchanged words the night before during a water fight. Both agreed to refrain from future contact.

• A black truck struck a pedestrian on the Band Drill Field and fled the area. An officer responding to the call for assistance stopped the vehicle on Houston Street and identified the driver who was subsequently jailed in the Brazos County Jail.

• A woman's ex-boyfriend threatened her with physical

ATTEMPTED SEXUAL AS-SAULT:

• A woman was the apparent victim of an attempted sexual assault in Spence Park. The woman said she met the man at a local nightclub and he had offered to walk her home and she accepted. The man attempted to assault her when they sat down under a tree to talk. The attack was interrupted by two students who happened to be in the area. The man got up and started to run, but was apprehended by one of the wit-nesses who held him until police officers arrived. The man was transported to the University Police Department and discussed the offense with a detective. The woman did not want to press charges and signed a non-prosecution affidavit and was escorted to her residence. The man was advised of her decision and released.

TERRORISTIC THREAT:

• A woman reported receiving a threatening phone call on her answering machine from a man who threatened to do her physical harm because she failed to call and wake him up so he could finish a term paper.

ASSAULT BY THREAT:

 An Aston Hall resident advisor wished to file charges against a resident for threatening him. The RA has taken action against the man on several occasions for his conduct in the hall. Both men said this has been an on-going problem since the beginning of the semester

PLACES WEAPONS PRO-

• A homemade explosive device was found exploded on the southside of Crocker Hall. MISDEMEANOR THEFT:

• A route salesperson with the Bryan-College Station Eagle saw someone remove several copies of the newspaper from a vending machine. He confronted and identified the individual who removed three copies of the Eagle after paying for only one copy. The man returned the copies that he had not purchased. The salesperson later told detectives that he wanted to file charges against the man for the theft.

 A red/black Soei motorcycle helmet was stolen from a motor-cycle parked in Parking Area 34.

• A black 1981 Kawasaki 440

LTD motorcycle was stolen from the motorcycle parking area on

• An Economics 203 test booklet was stolen from room 203 of Harrington Tower. The man re-porting the theft said he gave chase, but was unable to catch the
