

The MSC Visual Arts
Presents
Something For Everyone
Works by
PYP A JEN
JOHNSON N D JOHNSON
September 1, 1990 - September 30, 1990
Reception Sept. 4, 1990
MSC Student Gallery
7:00 P.M.

Texas A&M Flying Club
COME LEARN TO FLY WITH US!
Interested people are invited to attend our meeting
September 4 at the Airport Clubhouse.
For information call Mary Walters at 693-6895

September 4 7:00 P.M.

CarePlus  Presents
Roc, The Good Doc

"Fell asleep at a tailgate party, did you?"
Make tracks to CarePlus Medical Center for all your minor emergencies. Our on-site x-ray facility allows us to treat your breaks, fractures and sprains quickly. And no appointment is necessary, so you can come in immediately after an accident. A&M students, faculty and staff even receive a 10% discount at CarePlus Medical Center. At CarePlus, you get quality care plus value and convenience.

CarePlus
1712 Southwest Parkway • College Station, TX 77840 • 696-0683

University of Wisconsin Platteville

See Castles in the Air
And learn your way around the world
"If you have built castles in the air, now put the foundations under them."
Henry David Thoreau

Study in London for $4325 per semester. Includes air fare, resident tuition, field trips, home stay with meals.

Study in Seville, Spain, for $3625 per semester. Includes resident tuition, field trips, home stay with meals. No foreign language proficiency required.

Summer program also available in London.

For further information, write or call:
Institute for Study Abroad Programs
308 Warner Hall
University of Wisconsin-Platteville
1 University Plaza
Platteville, Wisconsin 53818-3099
608-342-1726

Baines' homer ignites Oakland, Rangers lose 4-2

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Harold Baines said his his first home run for Oakland was no big deal. Athletics manager Tony La Russa wouldn't buy it.

"It was a big hit, and he's had some big hits like that against us," La Russa said Sunday after Oakland beat Texas 4-2. "It's nice to have him on our side now."

Oakland increased its American League West lead to 6½ games over Chicago, which lost to California 1-0. Baines, traded from Texas to Oakland on Wednesday night, tied the score 1-1 in the second inning with his 14th home run.

"When his timing improves, you're going to see a lot more production from him," La Russa said.

"The home run is just like a base hit; the RBI is the big thing," Baines said. "I'm not big on home runs. I had one good at-bat today, and the rest of the time I stunk."

Mike Moore (12-12) allowed four hits in 6 1-3 innings. Rick Honeycutt pitched 1 2-3 hitless innings and Dennis Eckersley finished the four-hitter for his 41st save.

Moore, who struck out five and walked four, came out of the game in the seventh with a bruised right wrist after a tag play on Russ Kunkel.

Moore struck out Pete Incaviglia with the bases loaded in the sixth to work out of a jam. Incaviglia is in a 6-for-57 slump.

"Incaviglia's not getting the hits, that's for sure," Texas manager Bobby Valentine said. "And when he doesn't hit, we have trouble scoring. But this isn't a one-man slump. A lot of people are contributing."

Charlie Hough (10-10) gave up seven hits and all four runs in his fifth complete game this season. He was hurt by three Texas errors, giving up two unearned runs.

Rickey Henderson stole his 54th base, leaving him 13 behind Lou Brock's record of 938.

dp 1990

FRUIT JUICY

BYU downs UTEP, beckons Miami

Bring on the Hurricanes. Brigham Young passed its first test of the season with a 30-10 victory over pesky Texas-El Paso in a game marred by a third-quarter brawl. And now the Cougars are gearing up for one of the biggest games in school history — against the defending national champion and top-ranked Miami Hurricanes.

Ty Detmer, who along with Miami's Craig Erickson are among the nation's top quarterbacks, passed for 387 yards, threw for a touchdown and ran for two others in the 16th-ranked Cougars' victory over the Miners.

BYU was called for 19 penalties in Saturday night's game that saw Miners tackle Lorenzo Constantini and Cougars running back Matt Bellini ejected during the fight.

"I told them we had an 'A' for effort, but maybe a 'C' for smarts," BYU coach LaVell Edwards said.

Smarts will come in handy on Saturday at Provo, Utah, when BYU plays a No. 1 team for the first time. BYU last played the Hurricanes in 1988, with Miami winning 41-17. The closest BYU came to playing No. 1 team was in 1984, when the Cougars upset No. 3 Pittsburgh 20-14.

The Hurricanes did not play Saturday, but most of last year's starters are back from an offense that averaged 35.7 points and 454 yards per game.

In other games involving Top 25 teams, No. 7 Nebraska beat Baylor 13-0, No. 8 Tennessee defeated Pacific 55-7 and No. 10 Clemson beat Long Beach State 59-0.

Also, No. 13 Texas A&M beat Hawaii 28-13, No. 15 Virginia battered Kansas 59-10, No. 18 Pittsburgh beat Ohio University 35-3 and No. 25 West Virginia beat Kent State 35-24.

On Friday night, Todd Marinovich passed for three touchdowns and a career-high 337 yards, and No. 9 Southern California topped Syracuse 34-16 in the Kick-off Classic.

No. 7 Nebraska 13, Baylor 0

Nebraska limited the Bears to 164 total yards. The Bears hung tough, trailing 6-0 until 22 seconds remained, when Scott Baldwin scored for the Cornhuskers from 2 yards out. Earlier, Gregg Barrios kicked field goals of 37 and 20 yards in the second quarter.

"The way we look at it is if the other team doesn't score, our chances of winning are pretty good," Cornhusker linebacker Pat Tyrance said.

Tyrance made the biggest play with about nine minutes left in the game, when he forced Baylor's Frankie Smith to fumble at the Nebraska 5, with Travis Hill recovering for the Cornhuskers at the 3.

On to Aggieland
Ragin' Cajuns roll over hapless Tulane

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — James Freeman directed Southwestern Louisiana to a 48-6 victory over Tulane in his first college game Saturday night, taking advantage of four first-half turnovers in a runaway start.

It was the season opener for both schools and Southwestern's victory was just its second over Tulane in a 19-game series. It also was Southwestern's highest opening game score since the Ragin' Cajuns defeated LaGarde General Hospital, 53-0, in 1944.

Southwestern led 24-0 a minute into the second quarter, driving 38 yards for a field goal and getting quick touchdowns following an interception, a blocked Tulane punt and a fumble recovery.

The Ragin' Cajuns made it 27-6 at halftime, getting a field goal as time expired after yet another interception.

Mike Lemoine's field goals were from 20 and 40 yards.

Wayde Butler scored on a 5-yard run and threw a 38-yard wingback pass to Corey Williams for a touchdown. Freeman scored on a 1-yard run.

Tulane made it 24-6 on a 6-yard pass from Deron Smith to Willie Urbin, and Lemoine's second field goal made it 27-6 at halftime.

P.D. Broussard scored on a 21-yard run to cap Southwestern's first possession of the second half, and Damon Denaburg plunged one yard for a touchdown with 66 seconds elapsed in the fourth quarter.

Denaburg's touchdown capped a 14-play, 92-yard drive on which he carried nine times for 43 yards.

Reginald Francois scored on a 1-yard plunge with 6:03 left in the game, two plays after Ken Fogg recovered a fumble by Tulane third-string quarterback Billy Duncan at the 4-yard line.

Astros' rally falls short, Pirates steal 7-6 victory

HOUSTON (AP) — John Smiley held the Houston Astros hitless for 5 1-3 innings and Jeff King hit a three-run homer, leading the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 7-6 victory Sunday.

Smiley retired 16 of the first 18 hitters he faced before Eric Yelding broke up the no-hitter and the shut-out with an RBI triple in the sixth.

Smiley (8-7) gave up five runs on six hits in seven innings for the victory, which kept the Pirates a half-game behind first-place New York in the National League East.

The Astros, trailing 7-5 going into the ninth, got within a run on an RBI single by Franklin Stubbs and had runners at first and third with one out before Bob Kipper relieved Ted Power. Kipper then struck out Gerald Young and got Yelding on a fly ball to center for the final out and his third save.

Danny Darwin (10-2) was the loser, ending a personal nine-game winning streak. Darwin pitched six innings, giving up five runs on nine hits.

Pittsburgh took a 1-0 lead in the first on an RBI double by Andy Van Slyke, and scored again in the third on Bobby Bonilla's run-scoring single.

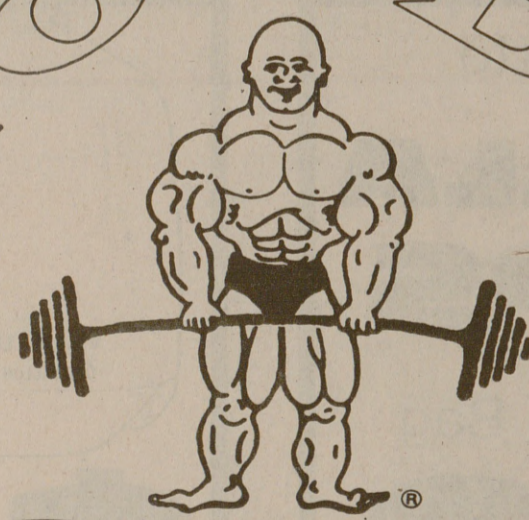

King's three-run homer gave the Pirates a 5-0 lead in the sixth after an infield single by Sid Bream and walk to Mike LaValliere.

Houston cut its deficit to 5-3 in the sixth on RBI triples by Yelding and Rafael Ramirez and a sacrifice fly by Craig Biggio.

Pittsburgh added two runs in the seventh off reliever Al Osuna in his major-league debut. Jose Lind tripled and scored on a double by Jay Bell, who came home on Bonilla's sacrifice fly.

The Astros made it 7-5 in the seventh on an RBI double by Stubbs and a sacrifice fly by pinch-hitter Glenn Wilson.

OLD

GYM
& AEROBICS

One Week of Results FREE

Present this ad for 1 free week of GREAT workouts!

 A license of Gold's Gym Ent. Inc.
1308 Harvey Rd. C.S.
764-8000
Coupon Expires 9/15/90